

Claims

In the event of a claim please contact Romero Insurance Limited as soon as possible on +44 (0)113 281 8110, by email cpsa@romeroinsurance.co.uk or post to Romero House, 8 Airport West, Lancaster Way, Yeadon Leeds LS19 7ZA.

When making a claim please have the following information available:

1. CPSA Membership number
2. Date of incident
3. Location where incident took place
4. Details of any third parties involved
5. Details of any witnesses
6. Full details of the event that gave rise to the claim
7. Details of any medical practitioner consulted

Important information

- Cover is applicable for the length of your membership
- This is a summary of the full cover provided. The full policy details are held by the CPSA and in the first instance specific queries regarding cover should be addressed to them
- It is essential that you (or a representative of your club or ground where you shoot) report every incident that may give rise to a possible claim to the CPSA's insurance broker, Romero Sports & Leisure. In addition, an accident report record book should be maintained keeping accurate records of the date and time of any incident that occurs, along with details of any relevant circumstances and the full name and address of any parties involved including witnesses
- Any letter, claim, writ, summons or process in connection with an incident (involving a member) must be forwarded immediately without reply to Romero Sports & Leisure
- It should be noted that it is a condition of the policy that under no circumstances should any offer or promise of payment be made by, or on behalf of, an insured person

Additional Benefit for Competition Members

Protection of your Shotgun Certificate and Legal Expenses

In addition to our standard insurance benefits, competition members (excluding Colts) are also eligible to access additional support for:

An appeal to the relevant police force or court, where the police revoke or refuse to renew Your Shotgun Certificate.

Legal Costs reasonably incurred in: Defence Against Criminal Prosecution; Defence of your legal rights including defence, appeal, or defence of an appeal against judgement, conviction, or sentence in respect of any act or omission leading to criminal proceedings being brought against you as a result of participating in CPSA endorsed activities.

All claims will be fully reviewed and the CPSA reserves the right to refuse cover at its absolute discretion. Incidents will be subject to a formal review process and a limit of indemnity per incident and member. The Legal representation cover is provided by our retained specialist Solicitors Lewis Nedas.

In the event that the court does not find in your favour and makes an order for you to pay court costs, or some or all of the legal costs of the opposing party, those costs may be covered by the CPSA. However, this will be entirely at the discretion of the CPSA, dependent upon the particular circumstances of each case, and is not guaranteed.

To register a claim please complete the following online form www.cpsa.co.uk/fale in the first instance. If you do not have access to a computer, tablet or mobile phone then please contact CPSA HQ on 01483 485400 where a member of staff will assist you.

Professional Indemnity for our coaches, instructors, safety officers and referees

The policy also provides Professional Indemnity Insurance up to £10,000,000 for our qualified coaches, instructors, safety officers and referees in respect of negligent advice or instruction given. This is not subject to any declaration of income or limit on earnings.
