A sporting welcome

LAST MONTH I mentioned the importance of raising standards wherever we can to ensure our sport continues to be a safe, welcoming and well managed activity. Giving new shooters the confidence and support to continue and progress is vitally important, and pointing them towards CPSA qualified instructors and coaches at member grounds is a great way to do this. It's also vitally important that our clubs and grounds respond well by making new shooters feel welcome, particularly if they're from under-represented groups. Before this begins to sound as though I'm jumping on the 'equality and diversity' band wagon, I would highlight the fact that 93% of CPSA members are male and over 30% are aged 60 or over.

Shooting is an inclusive sport so there should be many opportunities to bring new people in. However, there are still some challenges when we introduce newcomers, whether due to the availability of grounds nearby, cost, or it may also be due to facilities and the image we project as a sport.

We're working hard to position clay shooting as an accessible, visible sport with low barriers to entry but we need to ensure that modern expectations are met when someone turns up at a facility to shoot. If facilities are clean, warm and dry and can be entered conveniently by everyone then they will be welcoming to everyone. Experiences elsewhere, be they at university, other sports clubs, stadia and the like will lead people to expect clean and modern facilities wherever they go to spend their leisure time and shooting grounds are no different. We must set a good example and provide an environment in which everyone feels welcome, that way we have every chance of growing much more quickly. There may be some funding available too if any grounds wish to make improvements; contact us if you think there is an opportunity somewhere and we'll do all we can to help.

As part of the improved image of our sport, we have spent much time and made a significant investment into our website and I am very hopeful, at the time of writing, that this significant upgrade will be launched to members imminently. As well as providing a fresh new face for the Association it will be more welcoming to newcomers and also enable existing members to tailor the look of the website when they return to it, through the introduction of a personalised 'dashboard'. It will be responsive to tablets and mobiles and will make it easier to locate nearby grounds and competitions, for example. Please have a look at it and find your way around, then give us some feedback about it. We will continue to improve it over time but we hope you like it to start with.

The English Open Sporting championship at Highwaymans SG, kindly sponsored by Perazzi, Eley and Promatic, provided an excellent start to our competitive season, attracting more than 1100 members and setting the scene for some great championships to come. Simon and Mark Smith set an excellent course and there was a thrilling final that saw Paul Simpson emerge as the overall winner – see the full report in this month's magazine.

The European FITASC Sporting championships begin in Dorset in early June

Get ready for FITASC

COMPETITION

AS THE European FITASC Sporting championships get underway at Lulworth Castle in Dorset on June 7-11, Hugh Smith, President of FITASC Referees Commission, has some sage advice for those who have not, or rarely, shoot this discipline.

"To avoid the referees giving you a 'warning', follow my advice and you should only have to shoot and enjoy your four days of competition," he says.

- Make sure you have a 25cm visible line on your Skeet vest or shirt; this is what the referees judge your gun position by when in the ready position (Rule 3.1.1 & 3.1.2). It is your responsibility to have this line correctly marked and positioned on your shooting attire.

- When you receive your competitor number and time sheet at the opening ceremony on Wednesday June 7, make sure you have four safety pins to pin your number centrally between the shoulder blades on the back of your shooting attire and not on your cartridge bag.
- Check your time sheet, making sure you know when and where you start each day; be early, do not leave it until the last minute to catch your transport. The referees won't wait and it could cost you up to 25 lost targets or an £80 protest fee.
- You will also be considered absent if you do not have, and wear correctly, eye and hearing protection.
- Pay attention to the 'show' targets, the first competitor in the stand will see in menu order, all the single targets; they will then have 15 seconds to call for each target as will you when it's your turn. If you go over time you will receive a warning; one warning is all you get for any offence, after that you will start to have penalties awarded i.e. the referee will deduct targets; this can be costly. If it is on a simultaneous or rafale double you will lose both targets.

- Empty out from your cartridge bag all those leftovers from the game season as you are only allowed a maximum of 28g load and 2.5mm (+0.1mm tolerance) shot size. Do not think English or continental shot size six will be ok; they will fail the field tests that will be carried out throughout the four-day event including shoot-offs.

CONGRATULATIONS BEN

COMPETITION

BEN LLEWELLIN recently won the UK Championship in Men's Skeet, held at Bisley Shooting Ground, beating 58 competitors to take the top spot.

Scoring a personal best, with just one clay dropped, Ben achieved 124x125, with his nearest competitors Jack Fairclough and Freddie Killander scoring 121x125. Ben, who is brand ambassador for Zoli and Nobel Sport Italia (NSI), said of his win: "I'm really delighted. To not only win the Championship, but also to achieve a personal best is a fantastic feeling. I haven't been well, so I haven't been training as hard as I'd like to have, and I had to miss out on competing in Mexico in March. However, it all just seemed to fall into place for this competition. I headed down to Bisley for the two days prior to the competition, and I was shooting well, so I felt confident going in. The conditions were perfect, which helped, it was sunny and there was very little wind, so you could see the targets very well. It all clicked for me. My concentration was at its best, and the clays looked like dustbin lids. It's a great feeling."

GAME FAIRS AND SHOWS

CHAMPION OF CHAMPIONS

THE COMPETITION IS held on the Saturday of The Game Fair; this year it will be July 29, and will display the talent of many of the country's top shots.

Every CPSA county throughout England is invited to participate and the CPSA committee select their Top Shot to be put forward as an individual competitor as well as to represent the county. The format is simple but the course may not be! Beginning with a 50 bird Sporting followed by the semi-final which consists of the top 10 who compete over a 25 bird Sporttrap layout. From those 10, 5 shooters progress to the final where they fight it out for some brilliant prizes. Why not put this in to your visitor schedule so you don't miss the chance to see our top shots battle.

THE SHOOTING LINE

THE CPSA WILL once again have their have-a-go stands ready to welcome all abilities for a shooting experience under qualified instruction, this will be on The Game Fair's Shooting Line, which has become a staple feature of the show site for many years. It allows visitors the opportunity to have a mid-summer shoot.

The Game Fair boasts Europe's Longest Shooting Line at a staggering 585 metres! Plenty of room for the whole family to get involved with this historical sport. With a secure Gun Safe located on Gunnmakers Row[®], there's never been a better excuse to bring your gun along and enjoy the sport.

OUTDOOR CLASSROOM

THE CPSA, THE Game Fair and Time Inc have joined together to put on an Outdoor classroom, to look at all aspects of Clay Target Shooting, from safety to coaching, careers to high performance athletes. The Classroom will cater for all levels of knowledge and ability, so there will be something for everyone.

Watch out for more details of the seminar schedule and top named speaker line-up.

COLTS CHALLENGE

HELD ON THE SUNDAY of the Game Fair, the Top 10 English Sporting Colts in the country are invited to come along to The Game Fair and compete over a 50 bird sporting course. The top five shooters go through to the final, which is held on the clayline over a 25 bird Sporttrap course. This is an exciting competition which features some of the up and coming Colts in the country giving you an opportunity to watch the best youngsters in our sport going head to head.

Major expansion for Just Cartridges

NEW OPENING

FOLLOWING CONTINUING significant growth, Just Cartridges is moving to larger premises in Oxfordshire near Witney, only 1.5 miles from the A40. This will give over 25,000sq.ft space for greater stock storage, larger offices, more parking spaces for customers, and a larger dedicated shop, enabling greater efficiency and even faster service. Just Cartridges will move at the beginning of June with an open day planned for Saturday July 1. More details about the day will be publicised on their website and shared with email newsletter subscribers.

The new address is at Station Road, South Leigh, Witney, Oxfordshire OX29 6XN. Visit www.justcartridges.com for more information.

Becky's back

COMPETITION

CHAMPION SHOOTER Becky McKenzie has made a fantastic return to form after a herniated disc in her neck last year forced her to stop competing for three months. She won the English Open FITASC, held at Valley View Gun Club, Buckinghamshire, in April, beating her nearest rival in the Ladies category comfortably. She then went on to compete at the Southdown Gun Club Grand Masters, West Sussex, and took the top spot there too. "It's been a tough few months," she says. "I was only able to pick up a shotgun in January, so I'm thrilled with these results. It feels like I'm getting back into the swing of things!"

Setting up a new competition

PULL! INTERVIEW

KEVIN DURRANT, Steve Cox and Martin Butler of the Oxfordshire CPSA committee set up the Oxfordshire CPSA Trap Challenge in 2015. Now in its third year, the competition has evolved from a 'Trap' Challenge into a discipline categorised competition, with an All Round shoot to determine the overall winner. With sponsors including 2M Financial Services, Sola UK and Banbury Gunsmiths, the now named Oxfordshire CPSA Challenge Trophy is a leading example of how to successfully establish a county-level competition. Pull! caught up with Kevin Durrant to hear how they got the competition off the ground.

WHAT MADE YOU DECIDE TO SET UP THE OXFORDSHIRE CPSA CHALLENGE TROPHY?

Originally it was designed to attract more people to try Trap disciplines and to help gain a larger participation to our county Trap events. The thinking behind this was to also give us more people to choose our county team from.

HOW DID YOU GO ABOUT ESTABLISHING THE COMPETITION AND FINDING SPONSORSHIP?

We tried to find a formula which encouraged people to try different Trap disciplines. We came up with the idea of an accumulator type of competition where people had to shoot multiple events. This was designed to have no clear winner until the last event. We then created a list of local businesses and individuals who may have a connection or interest in the sport. We really wanted to put something back into the sport we love and provide some potential business streams for our sponsors by raising awareness of their products and services.

THE COMPETITION HAS EVOLVED FROM A TRAP CHALLENGE TO ITS CURRENT CATEGORY COMPETITION FORMAT. WHAT'S THE REASONING BEHIND THIS?

This was done to open the competition up to a wider audience and be more attractive to people who are nervous of trying unfamiliar disciplines. Whilst we would like to encourage as many shooters as possible to try new disciplines, we also thought it was valuable to offer the shooters the option to shoot their preferred disciplines.

YOU ALSO NOW OFFER PRIZES FOR THE TOP THREE IN EACH CATEGORY COMPETITION?

We spoke to our members and the feedback dictated that the prizes should be over a wider set of competitions and available to more people. It also helped to generate more interest in the competition.

DO YOU SEE THE CHALLENGE TROPHY AS A STEPPING STONE TO SHOOTERS

PROGRESSING TO MAJOR CHAMPIONSHIPS?

Yes and no. It was designed to attract more shooters to take part in county-level competitions with the specific aim of attracting more young people to try different disciplines and get a taste for competition shooting. If this then encourages people to start competing in major competitions and beyond it can only be a positive for the sport.

YOU ALSO HOST A DINNER DANCE FOR THE PRIZE CEREMONY. CAN YOU TELL US A BIT MORE ABOUT THIS?

Having gained significant sponsorship, we as a committee were looking for a more prestigious event to present and raise the profile of the fantastic prizes and county awards on offer and also to celebrate the achievements of our county shooters over the last year. We came up with the idea of a subsidised dinner and dance. The event was to be funded through a combination of county funding, sponsorship and a raffle on the night with some major prizes on offer. The first event was a bit of a leap of faith as we weren't sure if people would attend. As it was, the county members supported us, purchased tickets and attended to make the event a success. The feedback from that event was very positive and this has now become a regular fixture.

WHAT ADVICE WOULD YOU GIVE TO OTHER COUNTIES LOOKING TO SET UP A SIMILAR COMPETITION?

Discuss and set your objectives of what you want to achieve, get the support from all committee members to sell the idea. Our committee has worked tirelessly during the last two and half years to make this work and it is a very big thank you to them all. Develop a strategy to ensure that the competition will last all season and build up to the finale. Find your sponsors and make it worth their while investing... and remember to thank them! ●

As every year going to the European FITASC Championship to Lulworth, Dorset, and then on to the World FITASC Championships in Hungary we are taking our caravan and to finish off abroad we are going to Holland in August to do the Grand Prix – FITASC of course. In between all of this we will be doing other FITASC shoots in England and if there is any time left might even do a bit of fishing. Life is grand when you retire but we have waited a long time to be retired!!!

Went last year with my two boys to Sarasota Trap-Skeet and clays in Florida, brilliant 45 Sporting stands. What we did there was great fun, golf carts to get around (wife drove), friendly staff and it was quiet, not one other person shooting Sporting, most people were on Skeet.

LETTER OF THE MONTH

I have owned and used a Longthorne Hesketh O/U sidelock 12 bore, for almost four years. They are fabulous guns, 100 per cent British made in their own factory. They make their own barrels, unlike most other gun makers in this country. These barrels are to their own, patented design, and are probably the strongest shotgun barrels in the world.

I had my gun serviced after 12 months by Longthorne, which they did free of charge. During the three years since then, I have shot thousands of cartridges through my gun, without any problems. This spring, I thought it was about time for another service.

I sent my gun off to Longthorne and the service was completed. Unfortunately, during transportation back to me, the fore end was damaged.

Longthorne told me to send the fore end back to them. They made a brand new fore end and returned it to me, completely free of charge. Exemplary service from a great British gun company. Sincere thanks to Jim and Elaine Stewart, they are great people to deal with.

Steve Maynard

Hello CPSA,

What an absolute disgrace for an AGM. We have 24,000 members and there were 21 members present, not including the board members. I am a life member and will carry on shooting, but am very disappointed. Put this letter in the magazine – it might be vetted, but it also might buck people up to come to AGMs in future.

Yours

NAPRIL 26 2017 the Independent Police Complaints Commission (IPCC) published its report of their investigation into Surrey Police Firearms Licensing Department and whether they could have prevented two deaths at the hands of a Surrey shotgun certificate holder. While such tragic events are fortunately very rare in the UK, the publication of the IPCC report has, as with similar events in the past, led media commentators to question whether adequate checks are carried out by the Police on certificate holders and if it is time to impose stricter controls on who should be allowed to have a certificate.

The IPCC report was commissioned after John Lowe, who had been issued a shotgun certificate by Surrey Police, fatally shot his partner and one of her daughters in 2014. Previously, in 2013, Surrey Police had temporarily seized Mr Lowe's shotguns and certificate from him when his partner's other daughter reported to police that Mr Lowe had threatened to kill her whilst holding a shotgun in his hand. Four months later in July 2013 Surrey Police returned Mr Lowe's guns to him after that allegation was withdrawn. The IPCC has now found there were serious failings by Surrey Police to assess previous police intelligence reports on John Lowe, including concerns which had been raised about his mental stability. The key causes of those failings were identified by the IPCC as being inadequate supervision and training of officers within Surrey Police Firearms Licensing Department.

What makes the decision by Surrey Police to return Mr Lowe's shotguns and certificate all the more staggering is the timing of it. They had seized his guns in March 2013 after the complaint by his partner's daughter that he had threatened to kill her. Just over a year earlier on New Year's Day January 2012 in County Durham a tragically similar incident happened in which another certificate holder, Michael Atherton, shot his girlfriend and two of her family. Mr Atherton had previously had his guns and certificate seized temporarily by the police following more than one domestic allegation and then later returned to him.

The IPCC report into the investigation of Durham Police Constabulary's handling of that case had been deeply critical of the lack of proper checks carried out by the Durham Police Firearms Licensing Department. That report was published in June 2013, just one month before Surrey Police returned Mr Lowe's guns to him. Unfortunately the licensing officers in Surrey Police who made that decision do not seem to have been sufficiently aware of the IPCC report on the Durham case, or to have taken on board the IPCC's recommendations for more regular and careful review of the suitability of certificate holders.

In recent years, partly as a result of a handful of widely publicised cases including those of Mr Lowe and Mr Atherton, Home Office guidance on firearms licensing has been significantly tightened to direct the police to carry out a very careful review in every case where any kind of domestic allegation is made against a certificate holder. In addition, since April 2016, the police have been required to make enquiries with the doctor of every applicant or renewing certificate holder. In my experience, the cases of Mr Lowe and Mr Atherton are a stark contrast from the extremely cautious approach the Police usually adopt.

The publication of the recent IPCC review of the Surrey Police failings to properly assess available evidence and intelligence on Mr Lowe should not therefore be used as a justification to call for tighter legal controls on the possession of firearms. Instead, it is a deeply tragic, but fortunately rare, example of how an adequate system of control can be in place but nevertheless things can go terribly wrong if police firearms licensing departments are understaffed and lack proper training and supervision. ●

Careers in shooting

IF YOU love shooting, you must have looked around a shooting ground at some point and thought to yourself: "Wouldn't it be great to work here?" On a warm summer's day, it certainly seems idyllic, although you might think twice when you have to fill the traps in a freezing January gale.

The range of opportunities is greater than you might imagine. Becky Lord is Personal Assistant to E.J. Churchill Managing Director Rob Fenwick. She explains that the CPSA Premier Plus ground, near High Wycombe in Buckinghamshire, employs around 25 full-time staff and calls on many more seasonal and part-time staff when required.

Jobs at the ground fall into three main categories. There are the ground staff, who look after the traps and the upkeep of the ground itself. Then there are the caddies and instructors. Indoors you'll find the office staff, who deal with bookings, organise and run events, and much more. E.J. Churchill also organises shoots off-site – this year they are running the clay line at the Game Fair again, as well as putting on charity shoots and simulated game days.

It is a busy, varied business and, as a result, Becky says, no two days are the same: "One day might be just a regular day at the shooting school, then the next day we might have 120 people for a VIP event. Just recently we had a 'Boys' Toys' day, with people test-driving Maseratis and Ferraris, helicopters and off-road driving. I really enjoy working here. It's never quiet, that's for sure!"

IN THE FINAL PART OF OUR SERIES ON CAREERS IN SHOOTING, JAMES MARCHINGTON LOOKS AT WORKING ON A SHOOTING GROUND

Another busy, popular ground is Southdown Gun Club, a CPSA Premier ground just north of Worthing in West Sussex. Greg Swan is co-owner of the ground with Shaun Miller. Greg is a keen shooter and says it's vital to provide a good service to the ground's customers, the shooters. Southdown employs around a dozen full-time staff in various categories: ground staff and trappers; coaching and instruction; and operations, admin and event management. On a busy weekend they may boost that with up to 50 part-timers.

Ground staff might not sound like the most glamorous role, but Greg explains there's more to the job than you might think. It's not just about filling clay traps, and his ground staff have qualifications such as forklift driving and use of pesticides. Then there are instructors and coaches, both full- and part-time, for customers at all levels, from the have-a-go groups to top level coaches with the appropriate CPSA qualifications.

Greg says they have spent eight years building a good team at Southdown, making it a great place to work. So what advice can he offer to someone interested in working at a shooting ground? "The natural route into ground staff work is through one of the agricultural colleges, such as Sparsholt and Brinsbury. When we have a vacancy, that's where we turn first."

Jobs are advertised via social media, but many vacancies are filled through personal contacts. Get to know your local ground, chat to the people who work there, find out what the job entails, and let them know you're interested. You never know where it might lead. ●

EAGER ANTICIPATION SURROUNDED THE FIRST MAJOR OF THE SEASON AS MORE THAN 1,100 SHOOTERS FLOCKED TO HIGHWAYMANS SHOOTING GROUND IN BURY ST EDMUNDS IN MAY TO CONTEST THE ENGLISH OPEN. JACK CAVILLA REPORTS ON A GRIPPING COMPETITION

ET OVER 15 stands across a glorious site, the 120-target course proved challenging with several deceptive targets that caused even the very best problems.

With demand for entries so high, the competition extended to the Wednesday morning and on the first day shooters were greeted with warm sunshine and very little wind, which proved to be the best weather conditions of the entire week.

The leaderboard reflected this, as four of the top 11 scores for the whole competition came on the first day. No score was more impressive than young Taylor Hedgecock, who posted 113 ex 120 on Wednesday afternoon to set the benchmark for everyone else.

Speaking after his round the AA Junior hotshot reflected: "I'm very happy with my score. Conditions were near on perfect, with very little wind. I got off to a really good start and didn't drop a target on the first eight stands and then momentum carried me through."

By the end of the first day it was apparent that any score above 110 would have a strong chance of making the six-man Super Final on the Sunday. Highwaymans owner Simon Smith and his team had clearly set the course with this in mind.

"My brother Mark and I spent a lot of time setting the course up and designing the stands to try and make sure that everyone is hitting 50 per cent," he said. "So there's a target that you should really hit and one you have to work for. We designed the course so that people are shooting to their class and the scores have reflected this."

AAA shots Philip Thorrold and Paul Simpson both registered 112 ex 120 on Wednesday and Thursday respectively to tie for second place on the leaderboard. Paul shot seven or eight on every stand, highlighting the importance of remaining consistent throughout the course.

Many of the top shots on course during the week appeared to be suffering a hangover from the World English Sporting, which took place in San Antonio at the end of April. Richard Faulds and George Digweed both fell short of the mark with Richard scoring 102 and George finishing on 107.

Last year's English Open Champion Chris Childerhouse and third place Andy Jude (who both shot for England in San Antonio) recorded a pair of 105s when shooting in the same squad on Saturday afternoon.

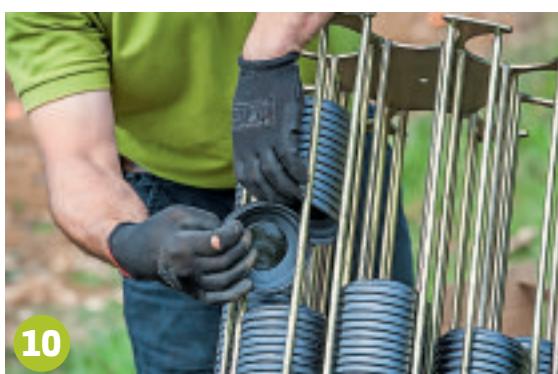

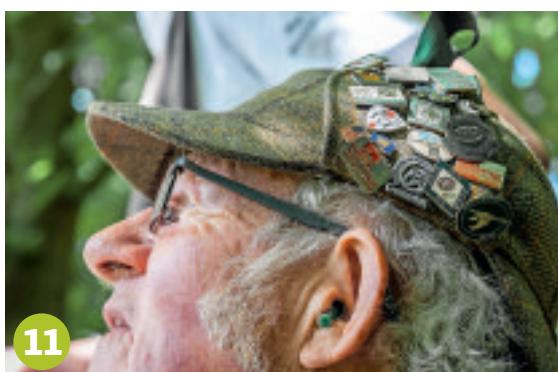

Chris said: "I had a bad start. I was six away after the first four stands. I pulled it together in the middle, but letting them slip away at the start was the problem. I was maybe a little bit nervous trying to retain the title and possibly tried too hard."

While the weather forecast had predicted rain for much of the week, only the odd light shower ever appeared and the Sunday shooters were greeted with warm sunshine for the conclusion of the competition.

Heading into the last day there was a group of five shooters tied for sixth place on 110 ex 120. However, finals day always attracts a number of big names and Steve Brightwell produced a fine round of 111 ex 120 to force his way into the top six scores.

Last year's British Open champion Mark Winser and Carl Bloxham completed the six-man Super Final, both registering 111 earlier in the week, leaving them two off the pace alongside Steve.

With scores being carried forward, Taylor held a narrow lead as the Super Final got underway in front of a large crowd who were all eager to see if the 18-year-old could seal victory.

7*12*13*9*10*11

The 30 targets were unforgiving and set in similar fashion to the main course. All of the finalists notably struggled on the second stand as the wind took its toll on the targets.

After the first 10 targets, Hedgecock still held a one point advantage over Paul Simpson, both shooting nine out of 10, while Philip Thorrold continued to apply the pressure in third scoring eight.

The second stand saw momentum shift, as Simpson scored six, while Hedgecock dropped an additional clay, putting the pair level, with Thorrold a further two back.

Plenty of drama unfolded on the last stand. Simpson missed his first pair, before hitting the remaining eight targets to give him an overall score of 135. Hedgecock only managed to hit one out of his first four targets, which proved decisive. A final stand score of five gave the teenager a total of 132 to earn him third place and the Junior High Gun.

A late rally from Thorrold saw him drop one target through the first seven on the final stand and it looked as though we were heading for a shoot-off. However, when he missed the crucial eighth target, all hopes of victory were dashed as he eventually finished on 134.

Describing the closing stages, Paul said: "I threw caution to the wind. I was frustrated by missing the first pair and knew I had to get it together. I refocused and thankfully managed to score eight out of 10. It was a tense moment watching Philip shoot as he finished really strongly, but luckily I just did enough."

I HONESTLY CAME HERE WITH NO REAL HOPES OF SHOOTING WELL AND ENDED UP WITH THE TROPHY!

Having last won the trophy back in 2005, he reflected: "It's nice to have my hands back on it – this was the very first big Championship I won and I'm delighted to have won it this year. I really enjoyed the competition; I honestly came here with no real hopes of shooting well and ended up with the trophy!"

Georgia Moule completed a double across Ladies and Lady Juniors, shooting an impressive 100 ex 120. The Cambridgeshire shooter pipped Pauline Chapman by a single point to take the Ladies title, with Nadine Gilder completing the top three on 94 ex 120.

The Lady Colts category was equally competitive. The top three shooters were separated by two points. Annalise Evans took the honours with 88, closely followed by Evie Figliolini on 87 and Ami Hedgecock with 86.

Carl Bloxham scored 19 ex 30 in the Super Final to take the Veterans High Gun ahead of Steve Brightwell, who scored 15. Carl also claimed first place in AAA Class.

Jamie Gutteridge completed a hat trick of victories in Disabled Standing with his 95 ex 120 and Adrian Last retained the Disabled Sitting title scoring 89 ex 120.

Alongside the shooting prizes, there was a random prize draw from all the English Open entrants to win a pair of Pilla Panther X7 50RHC Lens, kindly supplied by Starkey Headsets. Ben Davies, who is an instructor at Bisley Shooting Ground, was the lucky name drawn.

Rounding up the week, CPSA Chief Executive Nick Fellows commented: "Simon Smith and his team have done a fantastic job hosting the English Open at Highwaymans Shooting Ground and many congratulations to Paul Simpson on taking the title.

"The great thing about the competition is that all week people have been round and said that they really enjoyed their day's shooting, regardless of how well they shot and we've had really good feedback from our members about it.

"Finally, we'd like to say thank you to our sponsors, Perazzi, Eley, Promatic and Starkey Headsets. It's been great to get their support, and we look forward to returning to Highwaymans Shooting Ground in the near future."

How to hit... the quartering away target

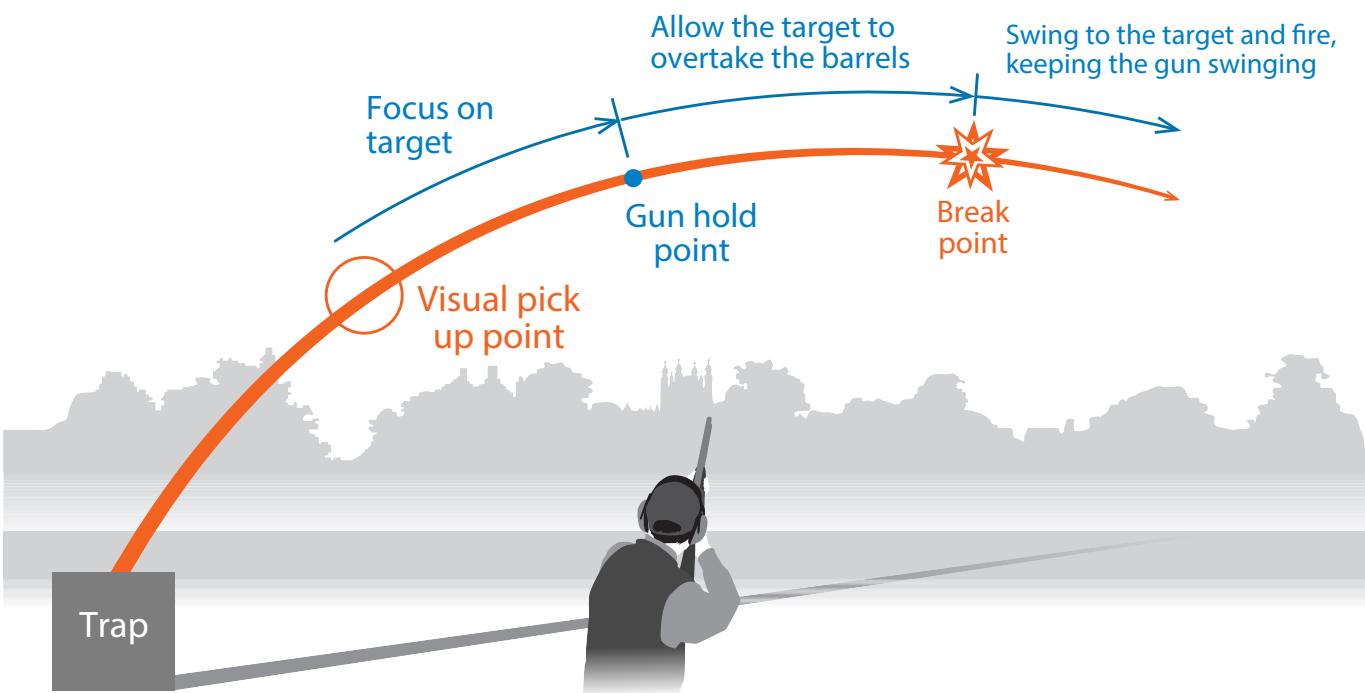

CPSA LEVEL 3 SENIOR
COACH SIMON ARBUCKLE
EXPLAINS THE RIGHT WAY TO SHOOT A CLAY THAT IS QUARTERING AWAY FROM YOU

IN THE third of our 'How to hit' series, we look at the quartering going away target. This target is commonly seen on a Sporting shoot. Typically, the trap will be quite close to the shooting stand, throwing the clay away and slightly across your field of view either left-to-right or right-to-left. As with most targets, the quartering away clay can be hit consistently if you approach it in the right way, but there are also common mistakes that make it a bogey bird for some.

This target is most often missed in front, for one of two reasons. Either the shooter is holding the barrels too close to the trap, or they are looking for the target too far back, near the trap. In both cases, the target quickly gets ahead of them and they chase after it. In their rush to catch up, they overshoot the target and miss in front.

If you apply the correct method, there is no need to rush things. Hitting a quartering away target should be as smooth and consistent as any other. I use a 'swing-to' method for this target. I let the clay get just ahead of my barrels, swing to it and fire at it, keeping the gun moving as I fire.

The key to this is using the correct gun hold point so that your gun naturally finds the target without you either rushing to catch it up, or checking your swing because you have got ahead.

As always, the first step is to decide on your break point – where you intend to break the clay. In this case, the target is being thrown from the trap a few yards to my left. Calling to see a target, I decide where I will shoot it and make a mental note of a landmark on the horizon – here my break point will be above the hedge, to the left of the two trees on the far side of the field.

Next I must decide on my visual pick up point. This is where you first see the target as a distinct, solid object, rather than as a blur or streak. In this instance, my visual pick up point is about one-third of the way along the target's flight, perhaps 10-15 yards out from the trap.

Now I have determined the break point and the visual pick up point, I need to decide on my gun hold point. As always it will fall somewhere between the other two points. Experience will help you to choose the right gun hold point from the start, but if the first clay shows you are holding the gun too close to the trap, or too far out, you can adjust for subsequent targets.

Conveniently on this stand there is a Browning banner on the bank which happens to be in just the right position to act as a reference for my gun hold point – I will hold the gun above the left hand part of the banner. If the banner wasn't there, I would be looking for a tree or bush on the horizon to act as my marker instead.

Having decided on my three points, I am ready to take my first target. I align my feet towards the break point, load, and mount the gun to that point.

Then I swing the gun back along the target's line of flight to my gun hold point. I let my head come slightly up off the stock and turn my eyes back to my visual pick up point.

Now I am ready to call 'pull!'. When the target appears, I pick it up with my eyes and focus on it. I let it go past the barrels, swing the gun smoothly to it and shoot at it, making sure to keep the gun moving rather than stopping my swing. As always, it is important not to stop the gun as you fire. We all know that of course, but it's a trap that many shooters fall into without realising, so it can be useful to have a friend watch you shoot and make sure.

If you are having trouble with quartering away targets, or any other target for that matter, don't let it become a hang-up that eats away at your confidence. Go back to basics and approach it in the correct way. If you still can't make it work, book a session with a CPSA qualified coach who is trained to analyse where you're going wrong and put you back on track. ●

GROUND

AT A GLANCE

Address: Primrose Farm, Broad Lane, Holmes Chapel, CW4 7LU

Opening times: Open for events (see list below) and lessons as required.

Website: www.holmeschapelsg.com

Facilities: A registered DTL shooting ground, lessons during the week on a variety of traps to cater for beginners through to small corporate events and the more experienced shooter, a clubhouse and car park.

Events: 100 registered DTL on the second and fourth Sunday of each month, recently held the West Midland Area DTL championships, special 10 target DTL in conjunction with Express cartridges in June, encouraging the Cheshire Juniors and Colts in DTL by putting on some extra instruction before the inter counties this year.

Q: How long have you shot for?

A: I have been shooting for 35 years.

Q: When did you start your ground?

A: The shooting ground is situated on our farm and has been running since the 1960s as an English Sporting ground when the late Clifford Norbury ran it. We closed it in 2004 due to family commitments elsewhere.

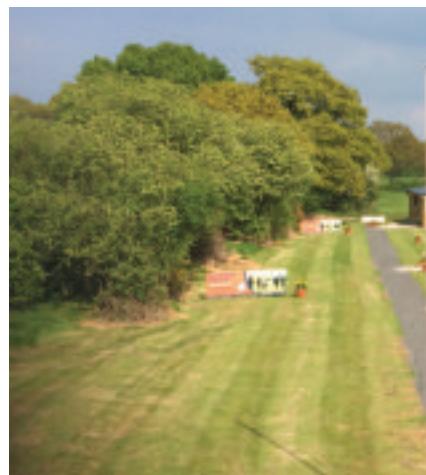

We reopened at the end of June last year with the aim of providing a competitive high-class DTL facility for the North West. The shoot is family run and we have had a lot of support and encouragement from the Cheshire CPSA. We have a small group of qualified referees who are invaluable to the smooth running of the shoot.

Q: How has the ground developed over the years?

A: At present we have two layouts for DTL and are in the process of submitting a planning application to enable us to shoot five days a week. We've also submitted an application to allow us to install a soil bund for noise retention and to collect the lead shot for recycling purposes.

Q: What is the clay shooting scene like where you are?

A: The clay shooting scene appears to have a really good atmosphere, with a lot of new faces and interest in Trap shooting.

During our time as a Sporting facility, we noticed the gradual reduction in competitors, but since opening as a DTL facility we have seen an increase in our numbers as our reputation has grown. We are concerned that the cost of cartridges could have an impact on the number of people taking up the sport.

Q: What are your current aims?

A: I retired from work due to ill health last year and aimed to set up a shooting ground again, funded by selling 10 acres of land, which provided the capital to set up the two DTL layouts. When the ground was in the process of being registered as a DTL facility, we received encouraging feedback from the CPSA. Our aim is to secure planning permission to enable us to shoot five days a week so we can offer more lessons and some practice sessions. I am due to complete the Instructor Training Course with the CPSA shortly and we are looking to provide some master classes for the more experienced shooters to improve their technique. ●

IN THE SPOTLIGHT LUCY HALL

Above: Lucy Hall

13-YEAR-OLD LUCY Hall has been shooting for just two years but is already making a name for herself, particularly in DTL. She comes from a family of shooters, and became interested in the sport when she began helping her dad Rob in his gun shops on Saturdays. Lucy says her dad's advice is simple, "See the target, move the gun. It's his number one saying!" And it seems to be working as she has already been selected for the Great Britain Talent Pathway for Olympic Trap Training. She considers herself 'very fortunate' to be sponsored by Beretta/GMK, Eley Hawk, Pilla and Manual Ricardo, and uses a Beretta DT11 gun "because I have been very lucky to have been offered the 2017 Beretta Young Shots from GMK. This is an all-round gun for me to shoot all the trap disciplines due to its weight and balance."

When asked for advice on shooting DTL, Lucy says that consistency is key. "And when you miss a target, put that behind you because you can't do anything about it, but the next target you can." She's also a fan of shooting at multiple shooting grounds, as "this will help improve your shooting due to different surroundings."

Lucy has continued to shoot a range of disciplines and says her long-term ambition is "to hopefully have the honour to represent my country at a Commonwealth and Olympic Games."

Her advice to other young shots is simple: "Just enjoy your shooting and to take each competition as it comes."

WHY I SHOOT

EACH MONTH we ask top shots for their thoughts, ambitions, and what they most love about their sport. This month THEO LING has his say.

GIVE US THREE REASONS WHY YOU SHOOT

I shoot because it runs in the family, I love the intense competitions and I love competing against Ed.

WHAT ARE YOUR AMBITIONS FOR THIS YEAR?

To hit as many clays as I can, work on my 'one clay at a time' routine and enjoy it as much as I can.

WHO DO YOU MOST ADMIRE IN SHOOTING AND WHY?

I would have to say either Ed or Giovanni Pelliello. Giovanni has won so much over the years and has shot so many huge scores. I admire Ed because he has also won a lot and also shot many huge scores including 200 straight at the European Championship. His Olympic bronze in Rio inspired me the most because it showed dreams do come true.

WHAT'S THE BEST SHOOTING ADVICE YOU'VE BEEN GIVEN?

Definitely by my coach and Dad Steve, which was to forget about the past and future and to focus on one clay at a time. This is the most important advice I have been given because it is so important to shooting big scores.

WHAT GUN DO YOU USE AND WHY?

I use a Perazzi MX2000/3 because I like the high rib and it patterns really well with my Cheddite Mach 3 cartridges.

WHY SHOULD OTHER YOUNG PEOPLE TAKE UP CLAY SHOOTING?

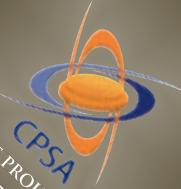

Because it is a great sport and we need more young shooters to get involved if we want to dominate the world of clay shooting.

IF YOU COULD HAVE ANY PIECE OF KIT IN THE WORLD, WHAT WOULD IT BE AND WHY?

Ed's gun would be quite nice as it has been taught very well and doesn't miss a lot! ●

ELEY HAWK DTL GOLD THE PERFECT 300 STRAIGHT

Trap shooting is a highly competitive discipline where total concentration and consistency in the delivery of shot is paramount. With this in mind, Eley Hawk has developed the new Eley DTL Gold cartridge, specifically designed for trap shooting.

Working closely with some of the country's best trap shooters, we have applied all their feedback into the product to deliver the ultimate cartridge for trap shooting.

With clearly reduced muzzle flip for that all important second barrel, high antimony hard shot for dense patterns, more consistent breaks and very low recoil to minimise fatigue during competitions, these cartridges are designed to keep you on target for the perfect 300 straight.

How much shot is enough?

AT A TYPICAL CLAY SHOOT, YOU COULD USE 28, 24 OR EVEN 21G AMMO - BUT IS LESS MORE? JAMES MARCHINGTON INVESTIGATES

CLAY CARTRIDGES come in a bewildering array of options, as a quick rummage through the bins at any shooting ground will confirm. There are different manufacturers, each with a handful of brands in their range, from 'budget' to 'premium' ammo. There's high velocity and standard, fibre and plastic wads, shot sizes from 6.5 or 7 to 9, perhaps with a few percent of antimony to make the pellets harder. The permutations are endless, but at least we can all agree on one thing: 28g, or 1oz in old money, is the only sensible load to shoot. Or is it?

DOES MORE LEAD MATTER?

Common sense dictates that the more lead you put in the air, the more likely you are to break the target. The maximum load permitted in CPSA competitions is 28g, so that's what the majority of people shoot. They would argue that there's no point handicapping yourself by shooting less.

If you're practising it must surely make sense to use the same cartridges you would in competition, just as you would practise with the same gun and wear the same clothing. You could save a few pounds a thousand by switching to 24g or 21g shells for practice, but, compared to all the costs of travel, entry fees and the rest, that isn't a significant enough saving to tempt many people.

So on the face of it, there is no reason to shoot anything less than 28g unless you are competing in the ISSF or 'international' discipline Olympic Skeet, where the maximum permitted load is 24g. In CPSA registered Olympic Trap competitions, 28g is permitted for C and D Class shooters (see www.cpsa.co.uk/news for clarification of this rule amendment made in 2012).

Of course if it was that simple, cartridge manufacturers would hardly ever sell lighter loads, other than a proportion of 24g shells for international disciplines. But they do, as that rummage through the bins will reveal. So who is shooting these lighter loads, and why?

The glib answer is that it's youngsters and ladies, who find the thump of a full-size 28g cartridge more than they can handle comfortably. There is some truth in that. All else being equal, a lighter load means less recoil. A smaller or more lightly built shooter may also be using a lighter gun, making a lighter cartridge more appealing.

Then there's the busy market for beginners' have-a-go days, corporate events, and a growing number of simulated game days, when each shooter may fire 400-500 shells in a single day. Do that with 28g cartridge and you will likely have the mother of all headaches!

Shooting grounds tend to use a very light, 21g 'trainer' cartridge for beginners. Using a light, low recoiling cartridge ensures the novice shooter has a gentle introduction to firing a gun, and can concentrate on hitting the target without worrying about the recoil. The instructor wants to send his clients away with smiles, not bruises, on their faces.

Probably no-one would consider shooting a competition with 21g loads, but there is a consensus that 21g has a particular magic about it. It is comfortable to shoot and the patterns can be exceptionally even and consistent. This is said to be due to the short shot column, which produces fewer deformed pellets on firing. As a result, 21g 'training' loads will give perfectly good breaks on all but the more extreme targets. Visit a shooting ground with a high tower and you will see the evidence all day long.

The general picture is that the vast majority of shooters use 28g for both competition and practice, a few prefer 24g for the lighter recoil, and 21g is almost exclusively used for training, novices and simulated game events.

David Thompson, marketing manager at Eley Hawk confirms that cartridge sales figures support this. He estimates that around 75 per cent of clay cartridges sold in the UK are 28g, 15 per cent are 24g, and the remainder 21g. But the split between 28g and 24g remains static and there's no sign of shooters moving down to 24g, whether in search of lower recoil or for any other reason.

USING A LIGHT, LOW RECOILING CARTRIDGE ENSURES THE NOVICE SHOOTER HAS A GENTLE INTRODUCTION TO FIRING A GUN

If you are looking for lower recoil, David says, there is no reason to switch from 28g. You can get what you want by moving to a cartridge with different powder. "Better quality powder means lower recoil," he says. Where you are able to use plastic wads, he recommends trying Eley's DTL Gold. "It has a very slightly lower velocity, at just under 1,300 feet per second. We use a really good powder, and the result is noticeably lower recoil with very good performance." ●

ENGLAND TEAM MANAGER RICHARD HUNTER REPORTS FROM THE RECENT WESP CHAMPIONSHIPS IN SAN ANTONIO WHERE THE ENGLISH SHOOTERS CAME AWAY WITH A CLUTCH OF SILVER MEDALS

O

VER 900 entries from 18 countries took part in the 2017 World English Sporting Championships in San Antonio, Texas, recently.

The main event was over two days, with 200 targets on two 100 target courses, Browning being one while Blaser – which seemed to suit team England better – was the other. The Brits struggled on the Browning while most of team USA excelled. However, George Digweed blitzed an unreal 97 ex 100 in windy conditions. Richard Faulds shot a 90 on the Blaser which was a decent score for that course. Bill McGuire for the American team shot 95 on the Browning while England's James Attwood shot a 90. England Captain Martin Myers shot 81, well below what he is capable of, while Chris Childerhouse shot a decent score of 87 although he was disappointed.

The start of the second day was chilly and with it was a fairly stiff breeze which made the two courses very different from day one, and some of the scores from the early rotation took some believing with Richard Faulds posting a 79! I doubt Richard can remember the last time he was anywhere close to that! George Digweed managed 92, giving him a total of 189 and progressing him into yet another Super Final, while James Attwood missed out by just one target.

FANTASTIC VENUE, FANTASTIC SHOOT, SHAME WE AS A TEAM WERE A COUPLE LIGHT. WE'LL BE BACK TO EVEN THE SCORE IN 2019! CHRIS CHILDERHOUSE

Team England's senior team did peg the team score back to 10 targets which is as close as I can remember over in the States. Martin Myers showed why he is in the team, scoring 94, while James Attwood (93) and Chris Childerhouse (90) did well, but sadly the damage was done on the first day.

A special mention goes to Junior Josh Bridges though, who scored 92 to finish on 179 and fourth overall in Juniors.

THE SUPER FINAL

Both George Digweed and Bobby Fowler Jnr had a four target lead so if either one could just keep the concentration going there would be a good chance of becoming World Champion. It was shot in the dark under floodlights which played into the hands of the Americans as they seem to shoot that way a lot, so George would have to be at his very best. It started well for most of the finalists with one pair of targets being hit with just one shot! But I believe George missed this pair with both barrels! As the final progressed everyone was missing targets but Bobby Fowler and Ben Hushwaite missing less proved costly for the others and Bobby duly became World Champion. I was in Texas four years ago when he also made the final but nerves got the better of him. However, he has clearly learnt from that and everyone would agree that he had shot the best over the weekend and deserved the accolade. England got silver in all team events, while John Bidwell got two individual silvers as did Georgia Moule.

My personal view is that this was a pretty tough shoot, made harder thanks to some changeable weather throughout the competition. We need to get team England into the right mindset; once that happens then I believe we will have a decent chance of bringing some gold medals back home next time. ●

ENGLISH OPEN

Defending champion John Lee scored 86 over the two layouts, 46 on the first round and 40 on the second, and nine points short of his winning tally from last year. It was several hours before the lead was challenged and it was no surprise who was piling on the pressure. The ever-present Paul Chaplow scored 41 on the first layout but pulled out all the stops and only missed another five targets on the second layout to tie the lead. He was quickly followed by Austin Coxhead who was back to championship shooting after a winter break. Austin showed his Class by mirroring Paul's score exactly and lining up a very familiar and rather tantalising shoot off.

John Lee had already left the ground so the two trap specialists squared off for the title. Austin missed an early pair which put him under pressure and Paul was able to see the shoot off out, winning by two points (41 to 39) and taking the English Open title. Always consistent with his K80/Hull combination, Paul said how pleased he was to win the first championship of the year.

Young Izzy Thurnell showed her dominance in the Ladies event, retaining her title on a 71 but she was pipped to the post in the Colt category by Skeet specialist Tom Tristram who was obviously used to having two targets in the air at once and scored a very solid 76. This was enough to give him the C Class win too.

The Veterans was very close with Ian Coley winning, Ken Rimington second and Bob Tucker third. They scored 78, 77 and 76 respectively. George Lewis beat his Notts team mate Jack Richards to win the Junior title on 82. The final two Class wins went to Marty Smith and Rob Denoon, Marty winning A Class on 83 and Rob winning B Class with 82.

BRITISH OPEN

Devon's Mark Venn set the target score with a 42 and a 43. Austin Coxhead mounted the attack, but 39 followed by a 45 left him one point short, much to his disappointment and Mark's amazement. Alan Palmer, a veritable double rise legend, duplicated Austin's score but was also unable to beat Mark, leaving him to claim the British Open outright. Austin beat Alan in the shoot-off to determine the runner up. Mark was absolutely delighted and shocked to win; it was his first national title and he only decided to shoot it as he was unable to make the DTL selection shoots this year. Although Mark has made the England team four times, he has made some big changes to his shooting over the last couple of years including shooting with both eyes open and changing his stock.

Izzy Thurnell, Tom Tristram and George Lewis all underlined their superiority in the event by collecting the same prizes as the day before on 70, 71 and 82 respectively, making it a Double Double weekend for the trio of youngsters. Austin also collected the same badges, second overall and AA Class but there is no doubt that it won't be long before he is collecting the High Gun trophies again. ●

Ben Llewellyn

SARAH DALY REPORTS ON THE ISSF WORLD CUP IN LARNACA, CYPRUS, WHERE BEN LLEWELLIN SHOT BRILLIANTLY IN THE SKEET MEN

International events round-up

LARNACA, CYPRUS, hosted the third and final World Cup of the 2017 series in April/May to some 365 competitors, considerably more than the previous 2017 World Cups. The competition was stiff and you needed to be 'on your game' to make the finals, never mind step up to the podium, with three new Finals World Records established despite some very windy weather making for some interesting targets!

GBR's best result was from world-ranked 17 (May 1) Ben Llewellyn, shooting brilliantly in the Skeet Men, achieving an international personal best of 123ex125 in the qualifying section, and staying within the top three scores throughout. To illustrate the standard, there were 11 athletes sharing sixth place on 97ex100 after the fourth of five rounds, finishing with 122ex125 being the lowest score to make the finals.

Ben Llewellyn

The second day was a marathon: three qualifying rounds, a shoot-off to establish the final's ranking placings, followed by the finals of potentially 60 targets. Ben posted +8 against Alexander Zemlin's (RUS) +7 in their shoot-off, achieving second place in the final's rankings.

Just missing out on a medal, Ben's final place was a very creditable fourth, behind the winner, Federico Gil (ARG) who was on fire in the finals, the very successful Georgios Achilleos (CYP) shooting on his home ground and Alexander Zemlin (RUS).

Ben, who is coached by Richard Stepney and GBR Skeet Coach Per Moen, said: "I was very pleased with my overall performance in qualifying, but very disappointed to just miss out on a medal." Being on the UK Sport World Class Programme and sponsorships with Edgar Brothers (Zoli), Noble Sport Italia and The Clay Pigeon Company makes a significant difference to his preparations: "I can now really get stuck into focussing on my training without the pressure of trying to earn a living; but I do still help out on the farm when I am at home, just to keep my hand in!"

Ben was the only GBR athlete to make the finals, however, all three of the Trap Men's team shot 116ex125, including Matt Coward-Holley who was shooting his first international event having moved from Double Trap. Matt's scores were very consistent, ranging between 22 and 24; a promising performance for the future.

Elena Allen posted the best GBR score in the Skeet Women; Caroline Povey was just one target off the Trap Women's finals score and James Dedman pipped Calum Fraser by one target in the Double Trap.

Mar 26: English Open Compak and GB Selection Shoot – South Down

A warm spring day welcomed 142 competitors to this shoot, with 16 North Region shooters making the long journey south.

Glenn Hunt made it worthwhile by taking the Veterans gold with an excellent 92 ex 100. Following on from his win at the World Championships last year, Glenn now holds World, British and English titles in Compak Sporting.

Josh Bridges also started the season with promise, taking bronze in Juniors with 90 ex 100.

Congratulations to all of the northern shooters who took part. May your strong scores continue for the rest of the season.

Apr 9: GB Compak Sporting Selection Shoot – Orston

This glorious April day saw the team selection for the European Championship in Poland. A total of 101 shooters took part on the four layouts – a well thought-out course with a good use of speed and angles.

Once again, Josh Bridges put in an excellent performance to take joint High Gun and Junior High Gun with 98 ex 100. Glenn Hunt put in another great performance, shooting 94 ex 100 and securing his place in the Veterans team. Another Yorkshire shooter who secured his place in the Seniors team was Paul Foster who shot 95 ex 100. Coach of the Year and Yorkshire shooter Linda Grayson also put in a great performance with 85 ex 100. This secured her a place in the Ladies team for the fourth consecutive year.

Well done to everyone who took part – we wish everyone good luck in Poland.

Apr 16: North Region Selection Shoot – Park Lodge

Thank you to Tom, Sharon and the team at Park Lodge for hosting this year's first North Region Selection Shoot. They welcomed more than 160 shooters on what was a wet and blustery Easter Sunday. The course designed by Tom and David Long was set to challenge the shooters, consisting of 12 stands of English Sporting with a mixture of speeds and angles that even included a flying rabbit.

Park Lodge would like to give its sincere apologies as, due to technical issues, five transponders all failed at the same time. Thankfully, Tom and Dave Long were at hand to hard wire the traps. Pro Matic is currently investigating why this issue occurred.

Some strong scores came in early on but the overall winner was Tim Webster with a phenomenal 98 ex 100. He missed just a single rabbit and one Skeet bird. Well shot Tim.

Apr 9: S Hope Memorial Trophy DTL – Penrith Gun Club

This turned out to be a lovely sunny and busy shoot, just like we like them. Everyone shot very well.

John Titterington achieved a great score of 100/298, winning High Gun and the lovely S Hope Memorial Trophy. Well done John. Russ Holden came in with 100/296, Tom Robinson shot 99/296 and Chris Hanson shot 100/296.

THE HEART AND SOUL OF COMPETITION SHOOTING

A number of other shooters came in with scores over 290: Tony Common with 295, Les Elwell 295, Bob Singleton and his son both shot 293, Jeff Cole, Garry Sayles. Graham Taylor, A Orchel and T Peel shot 290. Lesley Macbeth

Apr 22-23: English Open FITASC – Valley View

More than 150 entries shot on the course over this two-day event. At the end of day one, topping the leader board was Yorkshire's Kevin Jobling who had shot a great 73 ex 75. Also in close contention was Jess Wright with a 71 ex 75.

By the end of day two, Kevin had taken the Veterans title, five targets clear of second place with 141 ex 150. He also won A Class. Mark Winser, who has adopted Yorkshire as his home, put in a good performance taking third overall and third in A Class with 140 ex 150. Jess Wright also continued strongly and won B Class. Well shot all!

Apr 22-23: Northern Sporting Weekend – Bywell

This was also the England, Scotland and North Region Selection Shoot. Bywell did a great job of setting a 100-target, 13-stand course to test and challenge all abilities. The event was sponsored by Hull Cartridge Company and Browning who provided guns, cartridges and cash prizes. Shooters attended in large numbers, travelling from as far as Surrey and Inverness.

Saturday's result saw Andy Beal post a strong 92 ex 100 and Steph Meachin won Colts with 71 ex 100. Sunday saw Tim Webster shooting a stunning 95 ex 100 which was enough to take High Gun. Stu Dawson took the Veterans with a great 89 ex 100 and D Mcveigh took Juniors with a solid 73 ex 100. Well done also to Tom Brown who won the Winchester semi-auto on the Auto Pool shoot. Congratulations to all North shooters who either won or placed in a class.

Apr 23: 50 DTL Murray Trophy – Penrith

Deryck Ridley is back on top form, achieving High Gun and the Murray Trophy in the 50 DTL with a score of 49/146. Well done Deryck.

Ronnie Chapman and Tony Common both scored 48/143. Ian Johnstone and Mervyn Turkington were close behind with 48/142. Ian Douglas, Jim Bentham and Andy Hayhurst came in with 141 and David Fisher was close behind with 140.

Good shooting everyone. Bob Bolt and his lovely wife joined us for the shoot which is always a delight.

Apr 23: 50 ABT John Norris Shield and Cumbria County Championship – Penrith

This was enjoyed by all and climaxed with a shoot-off between Cameron Penny and Gordon Branthwaite having both shot 47 ex 50. Cameron won the day gaining High Gun and the John Norris Shield. He also won the Overall Champion Badge, Champion Badge and Veteran Badge.

Jayne Fisher won the Lady badge with 36 ex 50, just beating Caroline Whitehead by one point. Dan Taylor won the Colt badge. Overall, the day turned out well with good weather and enjoyable shooting.

Thank you to everyone who helped with the shoots. Your help and support makes the sport worthwhile. Lesley Macbeth

County News

Doug Pinnegar will be continually updating the County's Facebook and webpage. Do try to use these mediums as they will be the first place to find current news.

All-Round County Championship – Brook Bank

For a number of years, the All-Round has been the first County Championship of the year. Once again, we were grateful to all the staff at Brook Bank for hosting us. I hear it was quite a late finish; so much so that Lee and Steve drove home under a full moon!

Steve Burnham won the Seniors, adding yet another title to an impressive haul of late with 86 ex 100. Steve was chased to the end by Mark

Thomas who took second with 83 ex 100. Third was Lee Newman on 81 ex 100. Veterans was won by Cliff Gardner on 81 ex 100. Sue Tippet won ladies with 76 ex 100.

A number of suggestions have been made for next year's event. These will be passed onto the Committee.

Sporting

As I write, there have been two Selection Shoots and a third will have been shot before this hits the printers.

In the Seniors, Chris Biddlecombe has shot superbly in both events. Other big scores have been posted by Steve Clarke, Nick Portlock, Matt Turk, Ernie Wilkins, Mark Thomas, Joe Hale, Clint Warren, Lee Newman, Rob Wise and Steve Burnham. In Veterans, the current order is Terry Beard, Kevin Childs, VW LePrevost, RC (Gnarly) Potter and Mike Peppard. In the Ladies, Jenny Young leads the field with Sue Tippet, Judith Gilder Lyn Partridge and Joanna Herbert in the chasing pack.

It is pretty tight in all categories and it will be down to the final shoot at Longridge to decide who makes the teams.

FITASC

The County FITASC will take place at Longridge on August 11-12, shared with Hereford and Worcestershire. There is a limit on entry numbers so please book in with Steve Nutbeam early. If you book late, the shoot will probably be sold out and you won't be able to attend. As there are fewer FITASC shoots than Sporting, it's likely that the scores from this event will influence those asked to form the County teams.

Personal Best Corner

This month, I'd like to congratulate the following shooters on their personal bests: Lee Newman (98 ex 100 at Ian Coley's), Nick 'Chipper' Portlock (98 ex 100 at E.J. Churchill's), Jenny Young (73 ex 100 at Gunsite) and Zea Purnell (74 ex 100 at Ian Coley's). Please let me know of your own personal bests.

Keep an eye on the West Midlands Region website for the latest news and dates of all our shooting events. An increased presence of our County's shooters would be very welcome.

Apr 2: English Sporting County Championships – Longridge SG

Steve Nutbeam and his team set a challenging course which was enjoyed by no less than 46 Hereford and Worcester shooters. The weather conditions were favourable for early April and it was good to see a big turnout.

The Senior and County Champion was Phil Smith on 93 ex 100, closely followed by Julian Morris on 91 ex 100. Ladies champion was Jane Taylor on 73 ex 100 (shooting ever better with her new gun). Brandon Smith won Juniors with a good, solid 84 ex 100. Will Goodman is our County Colt Champion with 68 ex 100 and, last but not least, Tim Smith is our Veteran Champion still shooting well on 86 ex 100.

Thank you to Longridge and to everyone who supported the County with their attendance.

Wes Harris

Fauxdeglia DTL Grand Prix

Two Hereford and Worcester DTL members took part in this major two-day event. Lee Kirby took High Gun and Senior trophy with a score of 200/596. Jack Ruane took first place in the Junior competition with a score of 200/590 (his first major title). Jack also came joint second in A Class.

I'd also like to congratulate Jack on winning the Juniors in the Gamebore Winter series at Mid Wales. Jerry Ruane

Apr 14: Easter Challenge Championship 2017

This year's Easter Challenge drew a good entry of more than 230 shooters. The layout started in the plantation with some gentle targets – including the not so easy 'rat' – then through to the main ground, with the Basin and Skeet stands acting as score breakers.

Thanks to all those who entered, we hope you enjoyed it. Congratulations to all the winners, especially Phil Gray who won the £2,235 prize and to Matt Sheppard who was runner-up.

LEADING SHOOTING PERFORMANCE

OLYMPIC BLUES
WHEN YOU NEED BREAKING POWER

Feb 19: Ian Clifton Trophy Round One – Sporting Targets

This new knock-out competition got under way using the scores for the first qualifying round of the County ESP Championships.

Round one consisted of 16 head-to-head matches where a match is shot over 13 stands against the other shooter you are drawn against. The highest score wins the stand and gets one point. Equal scores score zero points., unless you are a lower classification than your opponent where the lower classification gets one point. After 13 stands, the points are added and a handicap applied.

Tied matches are broken by countback (the last shooter to score a point on a stand wins). Complete ties where both shooters are the same classification are broken by coin toss.

Mar 19: Ian Clifton Trophy Round Two – Sporting Targets

Round two was shot using the scores for the second qualifying round of the County ESP Championships. Round three will be shot at Sporting Targets on April 14.

Although the number of shooters in the sport increases each year, in Bedfordshire only some 20% of those who are CPSA members resident in Bedfordshire shoot in CPSA-Registered competitions. We can do better. For more information or if you are able to help, please contact us.

Apr 2: County Olympic Skeet Championship – Priory Shooting Ground

This was the first time this event has been held at Priory Shooting Ground, Sutton Bridge in Lincolnshire.

It was not a shoot for the faint-hearted – like most Olympic disciplines, Olympic Skeet requires a special type of dedication. However, we have just that type of person in Cambridgeshire: Freddy Killander.

There was a very good entry with 10 Cambridgeshire shooters (11 if you count me but I didn't feel up to it so called off) – 21 shooters in total. It was also the East Midlands and Nottinghamshire Championships. However, the Nottinghamshire shooters found something else to do on the day and didn't attend.

Some Cambridgeshire shooters shot early and had already left by the time I arrived at the ground. However, I was there in time to watch Freddy which was well worth the journey. As expected, Freddy shot very well, not just taking the Cambridgeshire Championship but the East Midlands too.

Freddy's squad had four other Cambridgeshire shooters including this year's Skeet manager Don Green. I doubt we would have had such a good turn-out without Don as he worked hard to get people to attend.

The next squad out included Philip Smith who took the County Veterans title as he did last year.

Apr 15-16: Cambridgeshire All-Round Championship

This is the second Championship of the year, closely following on from the Olympic Skeet. As expected, this one was the more popular of the two.

The All-Round, as per its name, consists of some of the most popular CPSA disciplines: Single-Barrel (derived from DTL but only one shot is permitted), ABT (two shots are allowed but only scored as one point whichever shot hits the target), English Skeet and English Sporting. The total score is out of 100.

Despite the windy and cold weekend, Taylor Hedgecock scored 88 ex 100 and became the County All-Round Champion. Close behind, with 87 ex 100, was last year's champion Philip Barnard. The Ladies went to Elizabeth Cook (last year's champion) and the Colts went to Archie Bowman (also last year's champion). The Veterans was won by Gordon Webster and the Juniors by Taylor Hedgecock. David Hewitt-Hulin won AA Class, Phil Barnard A Class, Matt Bedford B Class and Mark Adams C Class.

Thank you to Cambridge Gun Club for making this a very enjoyable day.

ABT County Championship

This event attracted a very good entry as everyone was keen to get going with our 2017 championship season. The day produced some very good scores.

John Stephenson took both the Overall and Veteran titles with a phenomenal score of 96 ex 100. John was chased all the way by fellow Veterans Norman Smith (whose score of 94 ex 100 gave him C Class), Dick Owen (who won D Class with 91 ex 100) and Brian Wilkinson (who won A Class with 89 ex 100). It was good to see both Dick Owen and Graham Elkington taking up the challenge once again. Welcome back!

There was a tie for B Class with both Norman Eaton and Nigel Salmon finishing on 93 ex 100. The final result was decided by the toss of a coin so Nigel picked up the glassware. The Ladies winner was no surprise because this discipline is one which Jackie Houghton shoots well as her score of 85 ex 100 demonstrated. Junior winner was newcomer Joe Tune who also scored 85 ex 100. Joe, who is a Colt, is keen to do other disciplines so I expect him to feature again in my reports this year.

Team selections will be made from this event but potential clashes of dates mean that those selected on the day may not be able to take up their team places. Therefore, the announcement of the teams will be delayed until the position is clearer. However, I can confirm that the Junior team will be Joe Tune, George Cheer, Ali Collishaw and Tom Mead.

Many thanks to Georgie Wilkinson who did a sterling job with the raffle. It raised £102 for County funds.

FITASC County Championship – Grimsthorpe SG

I hear that this course was testing. However, the ever-consistent Paul Wilkinson was a clear winner on 84 ex 100. Not far behind was Super Veteran Dave Whyte who once again proved that there is life in the old dog yet, with his score of 80 ex 100. Top Veteran was Phil Watson on 75 ex 100. The top Junior was Ollie Zaitschenko whose score of 71 ex 100 also beat his Dad.

The FITASC teams will be:

Seniors: Graham Bell, Phil Watson, Paul Zaitschenko, Gary Taylor, Stewart Burton and John Miller. Veterans: Dave Whyte, Stewart Chester, Eric Cundall and Paul Briggs. Juniors: Ollie Zaitschenko, George Cheer and Ali Collishaw.

Universal Trench County Championship – Beverley CTC

A busy bank holiday weekend was rounded off with our Universal Trench Championship. The new traps at Beverley CTC have now levelled out any inconsistencies between layouts so targets were thrown to everyone's satisfaction.

It was a nail-biting finish with two veterans, John Winn and John Stephenson, leading the field on 87 ex 100 and 86 ex 100 respectively. However, both were outdone by Steve Parker whose score of 88 ex 100 won the day. Joe Tune was once again top Junior on 62 ex 100. Top Ladies scorer was Jan Stennett on 72 ex 100.

Good morning to all our readers, I hope that all is going well and that you are shooting straight – well, almost straight anyway!

This month, I have only one set of results for you because of an unavoidable change to the fixtures and print deadlines. The results of our other shoots will be in next month's issue of Pull!!.

Skeet Doubles – Nottingham

There was a disappointing turnout of just six entries from our County. The weather was a little breezy and the targets were moving around. While rain threatened at times, everything went well.

The Team Manager thanked the shooters who attended and the results were as follows: County High Gun, Ladies and Senior Champion was Joy Hiron who shot 93 ex 100. The other shooters were all Veterans: Loll Barr and Bob Tucker shot 92 ex 100, R Billett 81 ex 100, S Clark 80 ex 100 and D Pigg 72 ex 100.

England Skeet Selection Shoot

We send our congratulations to Joy Hiron for a successful first round in the England Skeet Selection Shoot at Doveridge. She shot 198 ex 200 and was only bettered by GM Cooke on 199 ex 200. Joy's score also included 150 straight. We wish you the best of luck in the second Selection Shoot.

Shoots

At the time of writing, we are looking forward to a busy weekend of shooting. We have the Olympic Skeet at Northampton on April 29, the second Sporting Selection at Kegworth April 30-May 1 and, also on May 1, the English Skeet at Nottingham.

Apr 9: East Midlands Double Rise Championship – Nottingham and District

Norfolk's very own Russell Houghton travelled all the way to Nottingham and District Gun Club and won against some of the best Trap shooters in the East Midlands.

Russell has been shooting Trap disciplines for many years and he is, dare I say, one of the best Trap shooters in the country. Russell managed to shoot 50 out of 50 on his last layout to secure the title by a single target over Nottinghamshire Trap legend Ken Rimington. This title has never been held by a Norfolk shooter. Russell finished on 90 ex 100.

Trap shooting is normally very close with often just a single point separating the top scores.

However, it is still incredible to achieve a 50-straight in Double Rise.

Apr 15: Double Rise – Priory CTC

The Double Rise Norfolk Championship was combined with the Suffolk Championship. There was an entry of 21 shooters, with 10 from Norfolk, all keen to win the first of this year's Norfolk Championships.

This year's champion was Russell Houghton. Russell said there was a slight bit of wind which caught a lot of shooters out but he still managed to secure the title with 84 ex 100. Close behind was Joe Green with 73 ex 100.

The Veterans title was won by Audrey Smith with 49 ex 100. Mike Eales was only four targets behind with 45 ex 400. Audrey also managed to secure the Ladies title.

We would like say thank you to Priory CTC for holding this championship and to all the shooters who attended.

Apr 17: FITASC – High Lodge

This event attracted 74 shooters to this venue in Suffolk. It was a joint County event alongside Suffolk with a total of 21 entrants from Norfolk.

This year's Norfolk FITASC County Champion is Richard Bunning with 93 ex 100. Richard did just enough to hold off the 2016 Norfolk Supreme Champion, Duane Morley, who managed 91 ex 100.

The Veterans was won by John Dyson with a great score of 90 ex 100 – five targets ahead of nearest rival David Pointer. Heather Pointer managed to win the Ladies with 63 ex 100. In Juniors, Archy Stannard won the Norfolk title with his impressive score of 84 ex 100 over Charlie Soanes' 77 ex 100.

The Norfolk Committee would like to thank High Lodge Leisure Ltd for running this year's championship and to all the shooters who attended.

Chalk Farm

Chalk Farm Clay Ground held their very first registered Sporting with an impressive entry of 120 shooters. Visitors travelled from as far away as Leicestershire and Essex!

The High Gun was won by D Hughes from Wales with a score of 96 ex 100.

'Have a Go' day

We will be holding a youngsters' 'Have a Go' day at Mid Norfolk Shooting School during half term on June 2. This will be a free opportunity for those aged 12-16 to try out clay pigeon shooting. Please call 01603 860436 to confirm a place.

East Midlands Regional Universal Trench Competition

Northamptonshire shooters had a strong start and, when the results were finalised, County shooters were in many of the places. Joe Smith was third overall with a score of 88 ex 100. Emma Nelson won the Ladies with a score of 72 ex 100 and Kirstin Vogel was third in the same category with 55 ex 100. Kirstin was also runner-up in the Juniors. Well done to all the County shooters.

Apr 28-30: FITASC – Sporting Targets

As I type, the county FITASC competition is currently underway. This year, the event has been held over three days to enable as many people as possible to take part. The County's website and Facebook page will hold the results – Roy works hard to ensure that both are kept up to date.

The Golden Ticket

This has been a popular competition to win free, birds-only entry into two of this year's County Championships. The winner for the 2017 season, drawn at the end of March, is Matt Perkins. He was over the moon at the idea of trying some different County Championships this year. We wish him the best of luck.

County Supreme Champion

Last year, the Supreme Champion in the Senior category was a very close competition, with just six clays between Mick Russell (461 ex 500), the winner, and Leon Gill (455 ex 500). Simon Vogel was eight clays behind Leon in third place. The Veteran and Ladies competition was more clear cut but no less exciting and the Juniors was won by Kirstin Vogel. I am sure that everything will be to play for this year.

The championship is calculated from the best five scores from seven disciplines. The categories are: All-Round, English Skeet, English Sporting, Automatic Ball Trap, Skeet Doubles, Down the Line and Double Rise. The targets hit from ABT and DTL are counted, not the points. Why not give it a go?

Mar 26: FITASC Championship – Orston SG

The County FITASC Championship took place on a cool spring day. A total of 26 shooters from the County took part in the long day of shooting including Seniors, Veterans and Ladies but unfortunately no Juniors.

The title went to Simon Davis who shot well, finishing on a score of 83 ex 100. He was just ahead of Rob Denoos who shot 81 ex 100. The Veterans and Ladies titles went to Andy Cooper and Becky McKenzie respectively.

Thanks to Emily and the team at Orston for hosting the event. The Inter-counties team can be found on the County website.

Apr 2: English Sporting Championship – Orston SG

The weather was great considering the time of year, with some pleasant spring sunshine and no wind to speak of.

Simon Davis almost made it two Championships in two weeks, but Tom Gibson matched his score of 89 ex 100. A future shoot-off will now need to be arranged in order to establish the winner as neither stayed until the end.

The layout proved to be challenging for many of the 138 shooters but Barry Coleman took the honours for Veterans with an excellent score of 88 ex 100. Becky McKenzie scored 73 ex 100 to win the Ladies title. The C Class winner was A McKay with a score of 73 ex 100. Unfortunately, no Juniors or Colts entered the event.

A total of 47 Nottinghamshire shooters took part and our thanks must go to Dan, Emily and all the staff at Orston for organising the shoot. The team for the Inter-counties can be found on the County website.

Apr 16: Skeet Doubles Championship – Nottingham and District

Luckily for everyone, the weather forecast of heavy rain proved to be very wrong, with the day being virtually dry throughout. In the end, a very enjoyable day was had by everyone who took part.

A total of 20 Nottinghamshire shooters entered the competition and the Championship was finally won by Tom Tristram with an excellent score of 97 ex 100. Tom also took the Junior title.

John Miller won Veterans with 93 ex 100 and Hayley Denoon won Ladies with 87 ex 100. Neil Orr took the AA Class with 94 ex 100, Granville Hodgkinson won A Class with 96 ex 100, Dave Price won B Class with 90 ex 100 and Jenny Hilton took the honours in C Class with a score of 86 ex 100.

Many thanks to Carl and the team at Nottingham and District Gun Club for organising and running the event.

Apr 1: Sportrap Championship – High Lodge

The first Suffolk Championship of 2017 saw entries reach full capacity with 84 shooters attending the event. Suffolk also had a record entry with 45 in attendance.

Everyone agreed that High Lodge had staged a superb championship. The Committee would like to thank the High Lodge team for setting the standard for the year.

The Lady Champion was again Pauline Chapman, maintaining her Sportrap dominance following the British Lady Champion 2016. While the Veterans title has regularly been won by Eric Chapman, this year Eric was overthrown by a single point from John Sparrow on 86 ex 100. The Suffolk Champion and Junior Champion was Arron Harvey with a stunning score of 96 ex 100. Arron dropped three targets on the first layout, had straights on layouts two and three, then just one clay slipped past him on layout four giving him a single-clay advantage. Stuart Smith was runner-up with 95 ex 100.

Apr 15: Double Rise Championship – Priory Target Centre

The outright champion was Barry Randall with a score of 73 ex 100. Dick Hails and Alistair Whitehall tied after 100 targets, so a shoot-off was arranged. Dick Hails finally secured the Veteran title. Sadly, there were no Juniors or Ladies at the event.

The County would like to thank Natasha and Arron for their excellent hospitality.

Apr 16: Suffolk Skeet Championships and Mike Bradley Memorial Trophy – Eriswell Lodge

There was a larger Suffolk entry this year, up seven to 32! Perhaps the entry in Pull! or the big raffle draw at the AGM (see Suffolk CPSA website for details) encouraged the increase.

The early pace was set by Stuart Smith and Paul Simpson who both shot 98 ex 100. Peter Bloomfield scored a perfect 100 ex 100 which, although matched by Chris Morris (Cambridge), did not affect the Suffolk result. A last squad challenge by Darren Parson failed by just one target.

Pauline Chapman posted a 93 ex 100 and retained the Lady Champion title. Melissa Smith finished runner-up. The Suffolk Junior Champion was Josh Ling, scoring 88 ex 100 in his first registered competition.

The Committee would like to thank the management and team from Eriswell Lodge for this excellent shoot. Darren Parsons (Skeet team captain) will contact the Suffolk members to establish the Inter-counties team in due course.

Apr 17: FITASC – High Lodge

This shoot was held with Norfolk County as an Easter extravaganza! Suffolk made up 27 of the 74 entries – a significant increase from the 18 of last year. Also, those 27 members have now added a raffle ticket to their names for the big draw at the AGM, and the chance of selection for the Inter-counties competition October 7-8 at Sporting Targets.

Pauline Chapman retained her Lady Champion title and Lady High Gun with 85 ex 100. Simon Smith took the Veteran title with 88 ex 100. Arron Harvey added to his championship title collection with a 94 ex 100. Arron was not only the Champion and Junior Champion, but also the High Gun!

The Committee and Suffolk members would like to thank the High Lodge management and team for hosting this excellent Championship. Andy Coppen (FITASC team captain) will contact Suffolk members to establish the Inter-counties Team in due course.

Further photos and reports are available on the Suffolk CPSA website.

Avon DTL Grand Prix Championship

The Avon DTL Grand Prix Championship is to be held on July 9 at Cornwall Clay Target Club (satnav postcode PL15 9SS). The ground, formerly known as 'Jays', has been developed in recent years to become excellent for DTL. It is the best-attended DTL ground in the South West and is used by Avon shooters on a regular basis. Competitions are held over four fully covered terraced layouts that offer all-weather shooting, each newly constructed within the last couple of years.

A sponsor has been found for the event and there will be cash prizes for Avon shooters in all classes of AA, A, B, and C as well as High Gun. This is in addition to the generous cash payouts for the usual competition prizes. All this will supplement the winners of Avon GP Champions Trophy. Prizes will be presented by charismatic ground owner Jethro – a nationally recognised comedian, entertainer and TV personality. The prize-giving will be quite an occasion delivered with humour and enthusiasm.

Shooters of other disciplines who fancy their chances but do not hold a CPSA classification in DTL will be classified on the day. Even if you don't usually shoot this discipline, you still have a chance of winning!

Champions

Martin Taylor won the Avon All-Round Champions title on Good Friday with 76 ex 100. He will be presented with his trophy shortly.

In the Avon English Sporting Championship (for further results, please see the last issue of Pull!), trophies were also awarded to J Stott (winning B Class) and J Hosken (winning C Class).

County Championships

Championship venues and dates are yet to be arranged for Single Barrel and Double Rise as several shooting grounds are interested in hosting these events. Dates for these will be posted as soon as they are available.

If you have any additional news, please contact me for inclusion next time. Don't forget, the Avon website is hosted on the main CPSA website, accessed via the County tab.

200 DTL Grand Prix

This was a competition not to miss for the DTL lover.

Fareham CTC member Perry Leamon first suggested running this event some months ago. He was given the task to create what would be the first 200 DTL Grand Prix in Hampshire for years.

A 200-target, two-day event takes some organising. However, Perry was not put off by the challenge; he and several other DTL members helped to rein in some well-known sponsors to tempt the DTL shooters to enter.

The event was well attended – 16 squads made up of members from all over Hampshire and beyond made the trip. Many thanks to the sponsors GMK, Eley, La Porte, The Gun Shop Botley, Perazzi, Hunters Inn, Mercury Hearing and Greenfields of Salisbury for their generous support. The prizes were worth around £4,000.

Day one ran like clockwork, proving this club can really put on first class competitions. The sun shone on the four immaculate layouts; two of which had been specially created, complete with new traps.

As the scores started to come in, several shooters knew they had blown their chances of winning early on. However, several others were still on the ball, Dave Toomer being one.

Day two saw even more sun and higher scores with several top-end competitors returning a perfect 25/75. There was a definite buzz around the scoreboard.

Tim Rowe did a great job of making sure the squads were at each of the layouts on time and keeping track of the scorecards. The GMK and Eley stands, plus two five-stand Pool shoots, kept the waiting guns occupied.

Dave Toomer's score of 586/600 proved to be unbeatable. He won a £500 Perazzi watch. Veteran winner was Tony Dore who won £100 with 584/600. Colt Karl Miles won £50 with 501/600. The Junior winner was Stephen Ayshford with 565/600 (won £50). Ladies winner was Sharon Morris with 481/600 (won £50). AA Class winner was Shane Smith on 581/600 (won £100). A Class winner was Martin Crow with 580/600 (won £100). B Class winner was Steve Tarrant on 577/600 (won £100). C Class winner was Kev Jenkins with 552/600 (won £100).

The competition made close to £1,000 which went to aid the Deaf Children charity.

Apr 23: Hampshire All-Round Championship – Fareham CTC

It was a glorious Sunday for this event. Hampshire competitors were required to shoot the ABT, Sporting, Skeet and DTL. An additional bonus was that all the winter series winners were able to shoot for free.

The morning began with ABT and Sporting. By midday, the combined scores were close. Ron King hadn't missed a target in Sporting. The afternoon saw the DTL and Skeet. Roger Deacon posted a 94 ex 100 which put him on top of the podium. However, all was not lost for Ron King who took the Fareham CTC members President's Cup.

Apr 14: All-Round – Brook Bank

There was a great turnout for this Good Friday shoot, with 17 squads competing for the available titles.

For those that are unsure of the format of the All-Round, it's a round of English Skeet, Single-Barrel, ABT and English Sporting to bring you to 100 targets. The format draws a wide range of shooters from all disciplines and previous Somerset County Champions have been Trap and Sporting shots.

There was some serious competition for the title this year between Martin Howe, Rob Eggin and Dennis Stepney. After three rounds, Martin and Rob were both tied on 70 ex 100, with a single target advantage over Dennis. However, the English Sporting made the difference with Martin taking the title with a well-shot 89 ex 100. Rob finished on 88 ex 100 and Dennis finished on 84 ex 100. This is not the first time that Martin has held the All-Round title having previously won both in 2010 and 2011.

Apr 17: Double Rise

The Double Rise was shot on Easter Monday and was well attended with 11 Somerset shooters competing to win. Gerald Sweet returned to defend his title, which he did with remarkable ease posting a score of 83 ex 100. The next nearest Somerset shooter to this was Gerald's son Chris who posted a score of 71 ex 100. Chris is making a return to shooting after an absence of a few years and it's good to see both of them shooting together.

Other news

As I write this, Emma Stacey is shooting for England in the World English Sporting Championship at the National Shooting Complex, San Antonio, Texas. I hope to have more to report on this next month.

In other news, Abbey and Ed Ling are fully back into the swing of things after the recent birth of their daughter Amy. They shot the Universal Trench Selection Shoot at Nuthampstead Shooting Ground and had great results. Ed took High Gun with 197 and Abbey was the top of the Ladies with 186. There were a few other notable Somerset shooters in attendance as well: Theo Ling took third place in Juniors, Ellie Seward took first in Junior Ladies and Wesley Hann took first in Veterans.

Finally, more County Championship dates have been confirmed. The Single Barrel will be held at Brook Bank on June 18 and the English Sporting will be held at Podimore Shooting Ground on August 6. Further dates and venues will be published on the Somerset CPSA Website and Facebook page.

This championship was held jointly with several other counties and, of the 77 entrants, 17 were from Wiltshire. The weather held out, although it wasn't as warm as last year.

The targets did not disappoint and Jamie Deadman became Overall County Champion with a score of 84 ex 100. Sarah Locke took the Ladies with 54 ex 100, John Fry won Veterans with 80 ex 100 and Mickie Bluett took Juniors with 48 ex 100.

Team events

We are starting to get some interest in the forming of County teams for some disciplines. However, we still need more people to volunteer – please get in touch if you are interested. There are no entry requirements for team membership this year; you just need to be a Wiltshire shooter. Please contact Jamie Campbell or Josh Brown if you are interested. We will also put up entry sheets at the local grounds.

Wiltshire Sporting Challenge

This year's Sporting Challenge will consist of four competitions; one at each of Widdington (July 23), Barbury (August 27), Urchfont (September 24) and Gunsight (October 8). We are still looking for more sponsors so please get in touch if you or someone you know is interested.

Other news

On April 16, Urchfont held its annual Teal flush. Two teams tied for first place on 26 ex 30 consisting of Ade Joyce and Mark Carpenter tied with Steve Bosson and Jamie Campbell.

Apr 22: Essex Helice Championship – A1SG

With contestants in every category except Juniors, the Essex Helice shooters were joined by several GB Team members and others for a tough competition. Claudio and his team put on a brilliant event and some great scores were achieved.

Essex Champion Graham Woodman and GB Junior Fletcher King didn't miss a thing all day and achieved two straights. Graham was joined by Peter Hoare who was crowned Essex Veteran Champion, Bill Logan Snr who was Essex Super Veterans Champion and Jessica Byard who won the Lady and Colt categories.

The Essex Helice Team was selected and is now: Graham Woodman, Lee Byard, Troy Petherbridge, Conner Logan, Phil Dyer, Peter Hoare, Bill Logan Snr and Jessica Byard. They will go on to compete at the ZZ Inter-county shoot in September.

Apr 23: Essex DTL Championship – Mayland GC

There was some tough competition for the Essex Championship and the final Selection Shoot for the Essex DTL Team. Leading the charge on an early squad with a 99/292 was Troy Petherbridge. Troy could not be bested and was eventually crowned Essex Champion. He was joined by Dave Lewzey (Veteran), David Argent (Junior), Eve Groom (Lady) and Jessica Byard (Colt).

Following this event, the team selection was announced as follows: Lee Byard (Captain), Troy Petherbridge (Senior), Bill Logan (Senior), Roger Seeley (Senior), Shane Maynard (Senior), Dave Lewzey (Veteran), David Argent (Junior) and Jessica Byard (Colt). The Ladies Category will be finalised at a later shoot due to holiday commitments on this date.

Apr 23: South East Double Rise Championship – Mayland GC

The first squad posted a 97 ex 100 and a 94 ex 100, leaving a tough target to beat for the remaining contestants in the Senior category. It proved too much and Troy Petherbridge took his second championship of the day with 97 ex 100. Vidas Zilionis put in a very respectable 95 ex 100 to take second place and Lee Byard took third with 94 ex 100. Peter Hoare secured his second Veteran title of the weekend while Bradley Faulkner took Juniors and Jessica Byard secured her fifth title of the weekend as Ladies and Colt Champion.

Thank you to all the staff at Mayland for running a brilliant day of shooting.

Apr 9: Essex Universal Trench Championship – Nuthampstead Shooting Ground

It was a beautiful, sunny day but with enough of a breeze to flatten some of the targets a little. Once again the Barker Family put on an excellent trouble-free shoot that was enjoyed by all.

The champion was David Izzard with a score of 90 ex 100, while the Veterans trophy went to Chris Wright who shot an 86 ex 100. The Ladies trophy was taken by Emma Ralph with 76 ex 100. Richard Boutcher

Apr 2: Universal Trench – NCSC Bisley Camp

It was sunny and warm at the National Clay Shooting Centre for the first of 2017's Greater London Championships. As usual, Greater London had the highest turnout, despite a clash of dates with Olympic Trap at Nuthampstead. The targets were good and the company was excellent. Everyone had a great time.

The Champion and Veteran Champion was Carl Burrow who shot an excellent score of 91 ex 100. The runner-up was Robin Dand with 88 ex 100. The Lady Champion was Dorothy Fleri with 70 ex 100.

Sadly out of the 13 entries, we again had no Juniors or Colts competing.

DTL Championship – Dartford CSC

We had a great turnout and the weather was exceptional with not a cloud in the sky. Thank you to everyone who attended.

The Senior Champion was Simon Groomebridge, Ladies Champion was Natalie Childs, Veteran Champion was Gary Westwood, Junior Champion was Bradley Ballantyne and Colt Champion was Louis Rayment. Well done all. K Hockey

Apr 16: Olympic Skeet – Dartford CSC

It was a fine and sunny day with the targets as good as the weather. Just 10 Kent shooters attended the event but the numbers were boosted by attendees from other counties.

Jack Goodhew won the Junior and Overall Kent titles with a great score of 89 ex 100. Sarah Wright took the Ladies title with a score of 80 ex 100. Daren Wood won the Seniors with 73 ex 100 and Nigel Barnes the Veterans also with 73 ex 100.

Congratulations to all the winners, and thank you to Dartford for hosting the event.

Apr 23: Inter-counties Olympic Skeet – NCSC

It was another fine day with sunshine and cloud. The targets were good but the Bisley breeze caused a few problems, particularly with the low bird. That said, there were some good scores and Kent was second to a strong Surrey team.

I would like to thank Daren Wood for his contribution to our team. While he is normally an English Skeet shooter, he has turned his hand to Olympic Skeet on several occasions. A special thanks also goes to Nigel Goodhew for stepping in at the last minute to complete our team. He helped in no small measure towards the team's second place.

Sarah Wright won the Ladies South East Region title. Well done Sarah, well done team.

Shoots at E.J. Churchill

We had the 100 registered on April 6 hosted by E.J. Churchill which pulled in a great entry of 177. The number was boosted by the Essex Masters being held at the same time.

The scores were impressive and the targets were challenging. The shoot was won jointly by N D Portlock and H R Hajilou with great scores of 98 ex 100.

Two days later, also at E.J. Churchill, we had the Premier League shoot. The weather was kind and the targets were tricky. However, the numbers were less than expected because the Essex Masters was still running – 249 shooters took part.

Can you afford to pay for a damaged stock or barrel blowout?

It's a question we hope you never have to ask yourself but it is one that you should consider now, rather than after the event.

Many shooters rely on home insurance but the hard fact is that many home insurance products exclude guns from contents cover, whilst others may have restrictions in policy cover.

Premiums start from £35 a year (including IPT) for £1000 cover on guns and you can even extend cover to outside the UK. For CPSA and BASC members only.

We recommend that you take the time to consider what cover you have on your guns. To discuss your requirements or to request a free quote, please call Newmoon Insurance Services Ltd on:

Martin Myers was the first shooter to complete the course. He put in a score of 96 ex 100 which remained High Gun all day. Richard Faulds came a close second with a score of 95 ex 100.

Shoots at Weston Wood

During the same week, Steve Lovatt hosted two shoots at Weston Wood. Firstly FITASC on April 5 then English Sporting on April 9. Steve managed to juggle all this work and support the Premier League on the Saturday – how do you do it Steve?

The FITASC saw 49 shooters take part and the scores were of a high standard. A number of Oxfordshire shooters took part; a few to mention are Henry Young and Matt Hance. They both finished with matching scores of 91 ex 100 – well done to you. A big congratulations must also go to B Krummins who won C Class with a great score of 89 ex 100. Brilliant shooting!

The English Sporting saw many Oxfordshire shooters finish well within their classes. K Field took High Gun with a good score of 95 ex 100. In B Class, first was G Davis with 89 ex 100, second was Dave Currell with 87 ex 100 and third was P Ricketts 82 ex 100. Well done to you all.

If you would like me to mention a specific win or achievement, please email me you scores and I will be sure to mention them.

Stay safe and happy shooting.

It has been a quiet month in the DSG. Sadly, our Cloudside shoot was cancelled due to a fire at the ground. We wish our friends at Cloudside a speedy fix.

May saw us have another Olympic Trap Selection Shoot at Beverley (May 7) and an All-Round at Kibworth on May 17. Reports of these shoots will be in next month's magazine along with results from the Disabled categories of the English Open Skeet and Sporting.

We continue to hold regular training Olympic Trap camps at Nuthampstead and Griffin Lloyd.

Guns and AccessoriesAG Adjustable Gun Stocks

If your scores are inconsistent it may be because your gun fit is incorrect, most factory stocks are made to standard measurements, you may not be 'standard'. A fully adjustable comb which allows you to have consistent mounts may be what you need.

I also fit recoil reducers and adjustable butt plates.
Prices start from £150. Cheaper than changing your gun.

ON TARGET

AARON HEADING, BRONZE MEDALLIST IN THE MEN'S TRAP EVENT AT THE RECENT WORLD CUP IN MEXICO, TELLS PULL! ABOUT HIS SHOOTING AMBITIONS AND THE CHALLENGES OF OWNING A SHOOTING GROUND

WHAT ARE YOUR DEFINING MEMORIES OF MEXICO?

I can remember making the final and thinking "God, it's been a while since I've felt this feeling". I was excited and nervous all at the same time. To come away with bronze was a good feeling but it wasn't gold. I came home and evaluated how I performed and how I can improve. Next time I will make sure I don't feel rushed when I'm in the final three. The timing does change when fourth place drops out and all of a sudden you're stepping on the peg and calling for the target. There is a lack of preparation so next time I will go in having learnt from what happened in Mexico and make sure I'm calm, composed and ready.

WHAT ELSE DO YOU WANT TO ACHIEVE IN 2017?

This year is a busy one for me but my main aim is to qualify for the 2018 Commonwealth Games in Gold Coast, Australia.

WHAT GUN DO YOU USE AND WHY?

I shoot a Beretta DT11 that I trust with my life! I was sponsored by Gamba for 15 years and in 2013 I won the World Cup in Al Ain. I had five sponsorship deals waiting for me the minute I landed back in the UK so I had a lot of options. I had guns made for me to demonstrate and knew as soon as I picked up the DT11 that I wanted to shoot it. I then went over to the Beretta factory in Italy and spent a week with them, talking in depth about what I wanted from the gun and what they wanted from me. I signed the contract and the rest is history!

HOW DID YOU COME TO OWN THE PRIORY CLAY TARGET CENTRE?

It's always been a dream to own a shooting ground. In the summer of 2015 I was approached by the land owner and asked if I wanted to take Priory over. I didn't actually believe I'd just had the phone call. I got off the phone, spoke to my fiancé Natasha and within six weeks we were up and running with a fully fledged CPSA registered shooting ground.

WAS IT SOMETHING YOU'D ALWAYS WANTED TO DO?

Yes. Myself and my family have spent many a rainy and cold day sat in the car waiting for me to shoot and wondering how different we would make the ground if I ran one. I always looked at grounds thinking how they could improve and whether the owners knew what shooters wanted from a ground. I have most definitely ticked it off the bucket list!

WHAT ARE THE CHALLENGES OF TAKING ON A SHOOTING GROUND?

Not pleasing everyone is a hard pill to swallow. I am a perfectionist and am a big critic of targets that aren't set properly everyday. There is no excuse for it. A lot of people may say my targets are fast; however, the CPSA has inspected them several times and say they are spot on for registered competitions.

WHAT CAN PEOPLE EXPECT WHEN THEY VISIT PRIORY?

A very warm welcome. Natasha and I try our best to make people feel welcome and valued when they come to our ground. They can expect good regulated targets that I set every day, reasonably priced clays, good food and a clean and tidy facility. ●
