To pastures new...

A

FTER SEVEN years as Chief Executive of the CPSA, this is my last Pull! column. I've greatly enjoyed the vast majority of my time here and am proud of what's been achieved by an outstanding staff team in that time.

Over the past few years, we've gradually turned around the Association so it is now pointing in the right direction and relationships have improved immeasurably within and without the sport.

I remember going to my first DTL weekend, held at Southern Counties, and having to go into the Sportsman's gun shop with the Chairman and purchase some prizes; we had no sponsors. Seven years on and we not only have three sponsors in tow for the same event but had two vying for pole position in one category.

As a membership Association we need to focus not just on the competition shooters, who number about a third of our membership, but on the breadth of supporters, volunteers, officials, grounds and others who put so much into the sport so that others may enjoy themselves or newcomers feel welcomed into a sport they can continue for life. Our Annual Awards, which saw their seventh edition this February and you will see featured in the pages of this month's Pull!, are a perfect example of how we've been able to raise our sport's profile and also give recognition to everyone involved, from volunteers and county committees to emerging shooters, coaches and, of course, our top shots. This is another example of a first class event we stage and is again supported by a host of sponsors with more lining up to be involved next year. Our presence at the major Game Fairs has also improved significantly.

The quest to attract new shooters will carry on but we are also fortunate to have an emergence of county committees keen to bring the sport to the grass roots at county shows and similar events, with a range of new materials we have supplied to assist them. Our ongoing development of technology will see further benefits and tools available to grounds and committees over the course of this year which should add significant value, in return for which we would expect to see greater engagement with the Association by ground owners, for example, to join up new members.

Member engagement is expected to increase significantly now we have our long-awaited new website functioning effectively and we expect to see improved retention of members partly as a result of this. It is already more welcoming to new shooters as well as offering greater functionality to existing members so we are pleased to see the extended wait now begin to yield some of the eagerly anticipated benefits.

Our communications and grounds liaison have improved significantly in recent years as we introduced new posts to bolster our position in these fundamentally important areas. Courses are flourishing at the moment following a very successful year last year and we have finally been able to introduce a range of beginners courses that encourage newcomers to the sport in a safe and supported way, with the confidence provided by the CPSA wrapper.

One objective I had when I joined the CPSA was to have our championships return to the top of the pile, to be the number one 'must attend' events of the season. This year we'd had more bookings by the second week in February than shot in all of our championships in 2012 (another World Sporting year). The way the World Sporting is shaping up at EJ Churchill this year epitomises our ambition to raise our standards significantly five years ago and we have already taken more than 2,500 entries for that festival of shooting.

Further challenges still lie ahead for the Association, and indeed the sport, but these need to be tackled head on and progress and change embraced if the organisation is to capitalise on the opportunities before it. We need a system of governance whereby the Board operates effectively at strategic level with suitably skilled, knowledgeable and experienced directors recruited to drive it forward and allow the staff to get on and do the job they were recruited for. The sport needs quality facilities that will encourage new shooters to return and bring others with them and it needs a membership that is proud to belong and promote it to others. These are no small tasks but there are already some fabulous examples out there; I hope others will not be far behind.

I often wonder how many members read this column each month, I know some do and some tell me so (thanks Chris!) but I would like to finish by saying thank you to the many, many members I've met over the years and who so obviously love their sport, to the grounds, instructors, officials, volunteers and in particular partners and sponsors without whom we would not have anywhere near the success we've had. As I move on, I will look back fondly and with pride to have worked with a great team of staff and many volunteers who have played such a significant part in turning the organisation around. May I wish all members many more happy years of shooting. ●

Nick departs for pastures new

HEAD OFFICE NEWS

I AM sure most of you will know by now that our CEO, Nick Fellows, is leaving us shortly to take up the position of CEO with the British Equestrian Federation.

Nick joined us in 2011 and has worked effectively and diligently since then to enhance the association in a variety of ways, many behind the scenes and not immediately obvious to the membership at large. The flipside of that are the high-profile events that are largely down to Nick's drive and desire to raise the profile of the CPSA. I think of the World English Sporting held so successfully at E. J. Churchill in recent years where we have increased the number of entrants out of all proportion to previous events and which draws competitors from many overseas countries. The other event that springs to mind is the Awards evening, an idea of Nick's back in 2012 which has grown in stature every year since. The event this year, in early February at The Belfry, was attended by over 200 members, guests and sponsors and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. It has now become the go-to event on the industry shooting calendar and started with Nick saying back in 2012 "why don't we run an evening giving awards to various deserving categories".

It has been a pleasure working with Nick over the last seven years and I am sure everyone will join me in wishing him good luck and good fortune in his challenging new role.

*Terry Bobbott
Chairman*

All the team in the CPSA head office would like to express their sincere thanks to Nick for his excellent leadership and inspirational drive over the last seven years. He has led us to all aspire to exceed in our job roles, whilst remaining the consummate gentleman. We would like to wish him all the very best in his new role.

Students get ready for World University Championships

COMPETITION

THE WORLD University Championships are set to take place in Kuala Lumpur on March 14 to 16 this year.

The selection process required eligible students to shoot a MQS of 115 for Trap (119 for Skeet), after which athletes were selected by a panel. There were eight chosen in total, including seven rifle and one shotgun.

The ISSF supported event which is now in its 15th year will feature pistol and rifle disciplines along with Trap and Skeet.

Student Connor Gorsuch (pictured left) is one of the shooters selected to attend the games this year. A second year student at Oxford Brookes University where he is studying International Business, Connor trains mainly at Bisley and Nuthampsted shooting grounds although the university team practises mainly at E.J.Churchills. Connor aims to get out to train as much as possible with coaches Chris Dean and Kevin Gill. He says, "It's great to have been selected for my first University World Championships. The continuous support from my sponsors including Laporte has been great, allowing me to train more while I'm learning the ropes of OT! A special thank you also goes to the sports department at Brookes for their generous support in the build up to the games. I'm really looking forward to getting back into the competition season, as well as seeing friends and competitors on the international circuit. It will be great to see Malaysia too."

CPSA at The Northern Shooting Show

EVENT

THE CPSA are delighted to be attending The Northern Shooting Show for the third successive year during the weekend of May 12 and 13 at the Yorkshire Event Centre, Harrogate. As part of our efforts to introduce new people to clay shooting, we will have four stands on the clayline offering everyone a 'have a go' taster under the guidance of our qualified instructors and coaches in a fun and safe environment. There will also be a CPSA exhibitor stand inside the main hall offering membership deals, information and the chance for you to come and speak to some of our staff about anything which may be on your mind.

Sam Riddington, CPSA Events Executive comments, "We are really looking forward to attending and supporting the Northern Shooting Show for the third year in a row. It is a show which has grown tremendously and continues to support not only the people involved in all disciplines of the sport but the future of our sport as well."

For 2018 the Northern Shooting Show is set to get even bigger with the addition of another exhibition hall. Many of the leading manufacturers will be showcasing their latest shotguns and products available on the clayline, providing visitors the opportunity to 'try before they buy'. Exhibitors already confirmed this year include: Beretta, Benelli, Betinsoli, Blaser, Longthorne, Marocchi and Perazzi, with more big names to be added shortly.

Northern Shooting Show organiser Richard Stokoe adds, "Now into its third year the show boasts one of the biggest show claylines in Europe, stretching over 550 metres long and sponsored by Eley Hawk Ltd.

We have something to offer everyone and pride ourselves on catering for all abilities. Run by Hazel Bank Shooting Ground we have our popular 50 target Sporting and 20 target Flush competitions, both offering fantastic prizes for all categories. We also provide 'have a go' and instruction areas with the Clay Pigeon Shooting Association, BASC and Muzzle Loaders Association of Great Britain."

CPSA Championship Income and Expenditure 2017

FINANCES

THE TABLE (right) gives a summary of each major championship held last year, with an indication of the overall financial position for the Association at the year end. The aim with championships is simply to cover costs, as we recognise all income comes directly from members and the Association operates on a not for profit basis. The small proportion of entry fees taken by the Association as a levy covers all the essential elements as outlined below, including badges, medals, scorecards and director and staff attendance at the events, which again is kept to a minimum. The surplus shown, which is entirely dependent upon entries, represents just 0.6% of revenue.

*CPSA Admin levy (included in entry fee) covers: Score Cards, Metal Pin Badges, Cloth Badges, Medals, Tankards, Goblets, Flag/Banner Setup, Back Numbers, Glass Trophies, Director/Staff Attendance

ICTSF Sporting extras: Stage and dressing, Sign boards, Lanyards, National flags and poles, ICTSF Council meeting, ICTSF levy= 10% entry fees (£8380)

Loading in the game shooting field

INSTRUCTION

THE INSTITUTE of Clay Shooting Instructors (ICSI) will be running two one day courses on the role of the loader in driven game shooting this summer.

The course includes classroom modules on the many facets of the loader's roles/responsibilities covering both single gun and double gun loading, and techniques/practices of all aspects of loading, including etiquette in the game shooting field. Practical loading is undertaken, commencing with 'dry-firing' practice using dummy cartridges, then progressing to live firing with single gun 'stuffing' and double gunning, using clays for simulated high pheasant shooting, together with grouse and lowland partridge targets.

The challenges of instructing whilst acting as a loader are addressed.

The cost is £150 for ICSI members and £200 for non-members.

The minimum entry qualification for the course is Level 1 CPSA Instructor or equivalent. The courses will be held at Doveridge Shooting Ground, West Midlands, on Friday June 1 and Friday June 22.

Closing dates for applications are May 4 and June 8 respectively.

Wartime RAF trainees learning to shoot

IN THE SECOND PART OF OUR SERIES CELEBRATING THE CPSA'S 90TH BIRTHDAY, JAMES MARCHINGTON LOOKS AT THE DEVELOPMENT OF CLAY SHOOTING'S GOVERNING BODY FROM 1939 TO 1948

Clay targets were used to train gunners for combat

CPSA HISTORY

THE TIME was of course dominated by the Second World War. When war was declared on September 3 1939, sports and pastimes were put on hold unless they served a serious wartime purpose. The British Open Sporting, for instance, would not be contested again until 1948. The International Shooting Sport Federation suspended operations, and in 1940 the situation looked so dire that the secretary general of the Swedish shooting federation took the ISSF's records from Paris to Stockholm for safe keeping.

There were no Olympic Games in 1940 or 1944, and even when they returned, with the 1948 London games, there were just four shooting events – held at Bisley – with rifle and pistol only and no shotgun competition.

During the war years, many shotguns which might have been used for clay competition were co-opted into the war effort. An appeal quickly produced 20,000 sporting shotguns for use by the Home Guard, and in January 1942 there were 33,623 recorded as being in Home Guard service. Today, mention of the Home Guard conjures up images of the comedy TV series Dad's Army, but of course at the time the threat of enemy invasion was very real and deadly serious. Eley Kynoch manufactured special cartridges which were issued to the Home Guard. They came in 2½" paper cases suitable for standard sporting guns, marked with the WD arrow and loaded with either a 16 gauge spherical ball or large 'lettered' shot in sizes such as SG – examples are prized by collectors today.

Clay shooting as a sport all but closed down through the war, but its value was recognised by the military as a way of teaching fighter pilots and machine gunners the principles of hitting a moving target. Official wartime photographs show a ground-based rig that was used to train bomber gunners. The trainee would sit in a mock-up turret, while a colleague released a clay target from a hand-cocked clay trap. Contemporary accounts say it was excellent training for the gunners in acquiring a moving target and applying lead.

The Royal Air Force also used more conventional clay shooting as part of its training. One such account appears in the detailed story of Ken Fenton, a 19-year-old Yorkshire lad who enlisted in 1940 and went on to pilot a Blenheim bomber (see www.kenfentoninwar.com). The story, recounted by his son, relates how Ken was taught "the art of clay pigeon shooting... anticipating a target's flight," and adds that he maintained his interest long after the war, becoming a keen shot.

With the end of the war in 1945, life began to return to normality and clay shooting started to pick up once again. It still had a long way to go – the first accurate records of the CPSA show that in 1946 its membership stood at 100. But the sport was building momentum, both at home and worldwide. The ISSF held its first post-war World Championship in Stockholm in 1947, and the following year the British Open Sporting Championship was revived. Before long, shotguns would return to the Olympic stage... but that's another chapter in our story.

Do you have any old photographs or records from the early days of the CPSA? We'd love to see them. Drop us a line at info@cpsa.co.uk or write to the address on our letters page.

LETTER OF THE MONTH

I hope you can publish this letter as notice of my sincere and heartfelt thanks to Stuart Smith, Phil Moss and all their staff at Eriswell Lodge. On Sunday November 5, I was shooting a 100 Reg. Sporting. By stand six I had pain going down my left side which intensified into chest pain, difficulty in breathing and nausea. If the targets hadn't been as good, I'd have probably given up by stand two! By this time I thought I was having a heart attack, but I was in good hands. Within seconds, the referee called Phil Moss on the radio and a well-rehearsed emergency plan kicked in. In less than a minute an ambulance had been called and a 4x4 arrived to take me to the reception office.

Throughout, Stuart Smith and Phil Moss's teams acted with true reassuring professionalism. Two of Stuart's staff waved the ambulance down as it got close, even though it wasn't the one destined for us! My friends, Rose and Nigel who were with me were in awe of the reaction of all of the staff at Eriswell and the ambulance crew.

Once at hospital it was found I had a bad lung infection that was brought out by physical movement. I can honestly say I have been humbled by the professionalism and human kindness shown to me by Eriswell Lodge, the ambulance crew and all the staff at West Suffolk Hospital. Matt Sheppard, CPSA No 99919

Distant markers

Scores of 100/300 are commonplace at Reg. DTL shoots now. Is it because the guns that shoot them are better shots, because the targets are easier or because the angles and distance are different? I think all grounds should have angle and distant markers in place so that shooters and the referee can see if the targets reach the correct distance at Reg. shoots. The CPSA should also run spot checks to make sure that grounds are applying that rule. This will make sure all grounds are throwing targets the correct distance and angles so that all shooters are shooting on a level playing field.

WHAT ARE YOUR SHOOTING AMBITIONS AND ASPIRATIONS FOR 2018?

MICHAEL J MORETON

To promote clay target within the Royal Logistic Corp, establishing an association for members to enjoy shooting progress through CPSA courses, shoot different disciplines and to grow talent for the Army team

SIMON EDMOND

My goal is to hit the magic 100/300 in DTL and be in AA; that would be my inspiration

MATT LEE

After narrowly missing out on AA last time, that is my main goal. More High Guns would be nice too and of course a cartridge sponsor to top it off

SAM NUNN

Shoot well enough to get in the @GBParaTrap team, medal in Disabled categories that I enter

IAN PRICE

To continue to improve and to enjoy the process. Only been shooting since April 2017. Enjoying the sport is one thing, enjoying the banter with good pals along the way makes shooting clays even better

MICHAEL HEWITT-HULIN

Shoot Sporting again for the County team, progress to shooting with the Army Clay Shooting Development Team including CPSA courses

ALISTAIR HISCOCK

To try and move from C to B Class and enjoy the journey...even the bad days!

DEBBIE HISCOCK

To learn as much as I can and become more consistent... and ENJOY!

NIGEL TUBB

To be as good as Brendan Colm O'Brien. A true super star in this fantastic sport

WENDY SPACKMAN

Fun fun fun. To try as many disciplines as possible and to visit more grounds

CPSA AWARDS 2018

JAMES MARCHINGTON REPORTS ON A
TRIUMPHANT EVENING AT THE BELFRY
HOTEL AND RESORT ON FEBRUARY 3

TEAM GB Trap shooter Abbey Ling was crowned Clay Shooter of the Year at the CPSA Awards 2018. It was a fitting climax to a glittering evening at the Belfry Hotel and Resort near Birmingham on Saturday February 3, which saw 10 awards presented in front of more than 200 guests, including many of the top names in the sport and the shooting industry.

The annual Awards provide an opportunity to recognise the hard work and dedication of people throughout the sport, from ground staff and committee members to coaches and, of course, the shooters themselves. The winners are voted for by CPSA members, so there is the added accolade of being acknowledged by their peers.

This year's event was a special one, coming in the association's 90th year. It had all the glitz and glamour that has come to be associated with the CPSA Awards ceremony, with a prestigious venue and professional staging adding to the sense of occasion. The event's sponsors play a significant part in making that possible. This year's headline sponsor was Fellows Media, the incoming publishers of this magazine, with Longthorne Gunmakers supporting the drinks reception and a raft of top industry names sponsoring the individual categories.

CPSA Chief Executive Nick Fellows commented: "Following the success of the Awards dinner last year, it was an easy decision to return to The Belfry, but I think we have managed to further grow the event from 2017. I would like to thank our sponsors for their support in helping to change how we recognise the many achievements of our members and for contributing to the success of the Awards."

Comedian Jarred Christmas was Master of Ceremonies, and quickly had the audience in stitches with his robust brand of humour. Then it was on to the serious business of the evening – announcing the winners of each category. The excitement in the room was palpable and, as in previous years, proceedings were live streamed to Twitter and Facebook. Social media lit up as each winner was announced, with shooters far and wide joining in the excitement.

The crowd clapped and cheered as each award was announced until finally a hush descended as we waited to hear who would take the top award, the coveted Clay Shooter of the Year. It could have been any of the five nominees, all popular shooters with impressive achievements to their credit: Abbey Ling, Arnie Palmer, John Bidwell, Joshua Bridges and Martin Myers.

But the members had spoken, and it was Abbey's name pulled from the envelope. First to congratulate her was husband Ed, winner of last year's Clay Shooter of the Year accolade, who was left quite literally holding the baby – their daughter Amy – as Abbey stepped up to accept her award.

The evening wasn't over yet, with a fun casino laid on as entertainment while guests mingled and chatted with the winners. All in all the event was hailed as a great success, supporting the North West Air Ambulance as well as providing a memorable and fitting occasion to acknowledge not just our high profile shooters' achievements but also the invaluable contribution of those who work behind the scenes to make our sport what it is.

WINNER: ABBEY LING

The Clay Shooter of the Year crown rounds off a memorable 2017 for Abbey which saw her become a mum and still win the World and European Championships as well as the English, British and UK titles in Universal Trench. Abbey was thrilled to receive the award, which came the year after her husband Ed had won Clay Shooter of the Year in 2017 – Ed and daughter Amy were there with other members of the family as Abbey accepted her award.

Taking the stage, she thanked everyone who had voted for her, saying: "I really wasn't expecting to win the award – this one's for the girls!" She thanked her grandad who first got her into the sport, and her sponsors, as well as acknowledging the Ling family and her mum for their support and help with babysitting, making it possible for her to compete, both at home and internationally.

"2017 was an amazing year," Abbey commented afterwards. "I didn't expect things to go as well as they did." She is looking forward to another busy year, "juggling family life and shooting, including the Commonwealth Games in Australia – we're flying out on the 25th March. I'm really looking forward to competing on the international circuit again."

YOUNG SHOT OF THE YEAR SPONSORED BY LAPORTE CPC

WINNER: LUCY HALL

Lucy Hall rounded off a hugely impressive 2017 by collecting the Young Shot of the Year award. Having started shooting in 2015 she was quickly selected to join British Shooting's Talent Pathway for Olympic Trap. Since then she hasn't looked back, achieving her first GB cap in 2017, winning Junior Team bronze at the UT European Championships, and narrowly missing the final at the Junior World Cup in Porpetto.

"I'm over the moon. I was not expecting that at all," she said after collecting her award. "It was a surprise even to be nominated." Lucy commented it means a lot that the award is nominated and voted for by the members: "There are lots of Sporting shooters out there so it's good to see Trap getting recognition, and it's good that the CPSA sees things in young shots."

The Emerging Shooter of the Year is a brand new category for 2018, introduced to recognise a shooter, of any age or discipline, who is starting to show exceptional talent. COACH OF THE YEAR SPONSORED BY BROWNING

WINNER: JOHN BELLAMY

John Bellamy was clearly humbled when he was named Coach of the Year, commenting, "I'm overawed. It's unbelievable, especially when I was up against David and Simon, two vastly experienced coaches."

John has worked with Double Trap shooters for several years, so it was a blow to hear the news that the discipline was being dropped from the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games. "2017 has been a challenging year for the athletes to transition into other Olympic disciplines, but we're getting there," he said.

The British Open English Sporting at West Midlands Shooting Ground was widely hailed by Sporting shooters as the best shoot of 2017, so it came as no surprise to many when the ground's owners, Tom and Deb Jones, collected the Ground of the Year accolade.

The award caught Tom himself unawares, however. "I was shocked," he said. "I hadn't even prepared a speech!" Of course he was proud too: "Yes, there's a lot of work gone in over the past 12 months, and there will be a lot more in the future too – we've got a lot of plans. But we're overwhelmed. COUNTY COMMITTEE OF THE YEAR

WINNER: CHESHIRE

It was a bittersweet win for Cheshire in the County Committee of the Year Category. The Committee are still reeling from the loss of their vice chair, Kevin Howarth, who passed away suddenly in October. Chairman Miles Machin said it was fantastic to win the award for the second year running, adding that clay shooting in Cheshire continues to go from strength to strength, and the county won two national championships in 2017.

"Losing our vice-chairman put the stops on things for a bit, but we got together again and decided let's do it for Kevin – and here we are again, so our members appreciate it," said Miles. Gareth Owen added: "Kevin would be so proud. For us to pick up the award two years on the trot would mean so much to him."

He continued: "We have examples now of people who have come into the Talent Pathway having never shot, and within three or four years they are winning medals internationally. He had recently qualified as a coach, and was keen to pass on his passion to others, Karen said. Young shots

AT 19, EMILY HIBBS WILL BE THE YOUNGEST SHOOTER REPRESENTING ENGLAND AT THE COMMONWEALTH GAMES IN APRIL. PULL! CAUGHT UP WITH HER TO HEAR HER STORY

How and when did you hear about your Commonwealth Team selection?

I received a letter stating qualification just after the test event I'd competed at in October. When it was officially announced in a CPSA press release, it all started to become real! I was overwhelmed but excited at the same time.

What are you most looking forward to at the Games?

The atmosphere is going to be something else all together, not just when competing, but being around all the other athletes within the multiple events. As to my hopes for the competition, I need to think my chances are fair otherwise what is the point in being selected for the team? There are a LOT of good shooters that are going to be there putting up stiff competition just like at any other event.

How long have you been shooting?

Four years. I started off with Sporting and FITASC. I've been shooting Olympic Skeet competitively for just over a year.

What does a young shot have to do to replicate what you've achieved at such a young age?

Make sure you take the right route for you from the word go by investing the time and money in the right places, especially where equipment and coaching is concerned. Get a coach that you get on with and trust, and listen to them! Make sure your shooting equipment is right for you: gun, ammunition, eye protection, ear protection, vest, etc. If you're comfortable and you get the basics right, then you can give the best performance.

Also, experiment. Try out different disciplines and see which you like the best. You can dip in and out of multiple disciplines so the focus is not entirely on one.

What sacrifices have you had to make along the way?

This list certainly starts with time. For me, shooting has taken over my life, and there is rarely time for anything else other than that. My education has taken a backseat in order to help fund my shooting, by me jumping straight into work after my AS levels. But all the sacrifice is worth it!

Who inspires you?

My coach Graham Brown, without whom I would not be where I am today with my shooting career. He has dedicated a lot of his own time and effort into helping me develop, with his rewards simply coming from watching the success of those in whom he has invested.

Emily Hibbs

Tell us what you want to hear about, whether it's competitions aimed at young shooters, motivational stories from around the country, or simply the best guns our top young shots use. Let us know what you want to read about by tweeting us @CPSAuk #youngshots

SHOOTING HAS TAKEN OVER MY LIFE, AND THERE IS RARELY TIME FOR ANYTHING ELSE

What does it take to get picked to represent your country?

Technically, the only things you have to do are shoot the selection shoots and achieve the scores for consideration; easier said than done, trust me. Getting there in the first place is certainly not an easy ride, so having a bit of resilience and determination wouldn't go amiss.

What are your long-term ambitions?

At the moment my main focus is on the Games. After that there are smaller goals for me to work towards like improving my GB ranking and potentially reaching a podium at an international event. Long term, I want to develop my skills further over the multiple disciplines, not just focusing solely on one.

What advice would you pass on?

This sport is one that can make you feel as high as a kite when you are at the top of your game, but it can bring you crashing down just as easily, so sticking with it is the key to improvement and progress. ●

EARING PROTECTION is part of everyday life for Chris Childerhouse. A regular member of the England Sporting team, he has worn hearing protection for shooting since he first picked up a shotgun 20 years ago. As a self-employed landscape gardener, he needs to look after his ears at work too – he regularly uses noisy equipment such as brush cutters.

Chris's go-to solution for work and shooting has always been the simplest and cheapest option: disposable yellow foam plugs: "They do the job, and I forget I'm wearing them." He agreed to try out a selection of ear defenders and plugs for our test. Here's what he thought.

1. PELTOR BULLSEYE 1 EAR MUFFS

The Peltor Bullseye 1 is a popular choice with shooters. It's a passive muff with no electronics. The cups have a cut-out shape to accommodate the gun stock, and they fold up so you can pop them in your bag or a cartridge pocket.

Chris likes them. "They cut down the noise of the gun very well, but I can still hear someone talking. They're comfortable to wear too." He wondered whether the gun stock would catch the muffs when he mounted, but in fact he mounts the gun easily without knocking them once. "Yup, I'd be happy to use these," he declares, so that's a vote of confidence for the Peltor Bullseye 1.

2. BISLEY ACTIVE ELECTRONIC HEARING DEFENDERS

Next up it's the Bisley Active Electronic muffs. These cost between £85 and £90. The electronics allow normal sounds to come through, but cut out loud sounds that could damage the ear. The cups work independently, with each volume knob operating its own side.

Chris finds them comfortable to wear, and they keep out the noise of the gun effectively. On the con side, he says, it's fiddly to insert the batteries: "They go under the foam inside the cup," he explains. He likes the idea of an electronic muff that allows you to hear conversation, but he finds the sound quality a bit harsh. Voices have a crackly, clipped quality that sounds unnatural.

3. PELTOR SPORTTAC

These muffs have an air of ruggedness about them that's lacking in the less expensive models. You feel they would shrug off knocks and bumps, and still be working years from now. Chris finds it much easier to insert the batteries – the compartment is accessed from the outside by taking off the outer cover. The covers can be swapped for a different colour – this pair came with green and orange covers, but they're also available in black and red.

The SportTacs give great protection against gun noise, and the sound quality of the electronics is on a different level to the others. Voices and ambient noise sound clear and undistorted, even with the volume turned up to amplify them beyond what you'd hear with unaided ears.

All in all, it's an impressive package. Chris likes them a lot but feels he probably wouldn't get enough benefit from the more sophisticated electronics to justify spending the money – he'd probably stick with a cheaper, passive muff.

4. CENS PROFLEX DX5

Cens Digital www.censdigital.com

The Cens ProFlex DX5s are in a whole different league to the other hearing protection tested here, and that's reflected in the eye-watering price of almost £700. You're getting a lot for the money, though, Chris says, pointing to the impressive case full of accessories and spare batteries.

The plugs are moulded to fit precisely in your own ears. That means a session with a trained technician who takes the impressions. The really clever bit is the electronic modules set into the plugs. These do the same basic job as electronic muffs – allowing normal sound to pass through but reacting in an instant to cut off the blast of a gun firing. On the outside of each unit are switches that control not just the volume but, on the DX5 model, the mode as well. There are five different modes, each one optimised for a particular situation including game, clay and range shooting.

Chris took the Cens plugs on a couple of shoots to give them a proper trial – and he was very impressed with their sound quality and comfort. He found them a little fiddly to set up and insert in his ears but felt he would quickly get the hang of it with a bit of practice.

Overall he liked them a lot – enough to splash out several hundred quid? "Probably not for me," he says. "It's a personal choice, but I don't think I'd get enough benefit to justify the money. They are very good though." ●

Having a bad day?

KATE GATACRE SPOKE TO FOUR TOP COMPETITORS TO FIND OUT HOW THEY GET THEMSELVES OUT OF A SHOOTING RUT

O

NE OF the greatest frustrations of any sportsman can be hitting a sour note during a competition – and, as we all know, with shooting it can be all too easy that a great run turns into a serious rut, with scores dropping and little or no sign of improvement. Plenty of shooters will make changes to their guns, cartridges or techniques, but is that really the way to solve things? Often, it is the shooter who is at fault, rather than their kit, but there may be other things in play, too. We spoke to four of the UK's top shooters to find out how they get themselves out of a bad run and turn their performance around.

A bad score in a single competition is one thing, but having a bad run can be devastating, as BECKY MCKENZIE found out when she injured her neck. "I wasn't performing as I should be in 2016 and I got into a bad frame of mind. I started picking up bad habits, which of course made things worse. I hadn't realised how seriously I had injured my neck, and that I wasn't connecting with the stock properly as a result. It forced me to take a break from shooting for three months and when I got back into it, I started with Skeet and Down the Line training. I'd recommend it for all Sporting or FITASC shooters – it forces you to slow things down, to perfect your swing rather than jabbing at the targets. It gets you back to the basics of your shooting technique and has given me a far stronger basis for my shooting." And it is, says Becky, all about maintaining those basics when you aren't connecting during a competition: "I stop and force myself to focus on what I know: routine, steadiness and the basic techniques that I trust. If you can reconnect to those things, you'll find your scores return to where they should be."

It's all too common to compound a bad run by forgetting your technique, but sometimes a change of technique is just what is needed, according to English Sporting shooter JAMES ATTWOOD. "If things are going wrong on a certain stand, you sometimes need to change the way you are tackling that clay – it's important not to be scared of shooting something later or quicker, as sometimes that is just what that stand needs." Having said that, James does rely on the "back to basics" method, like Becky: "It's important to stick to what you know works. The other thing I find helps is approaching each target as though it is the first, the most important. By doing that, I can let go of what's gone, and focus on the clay I'm shooting, rather than getting frustrated by what I've missed."

Down The Line (DTL) shooter PAUL CHAPLOW says it's also important not to dwell on a bad day: "Sometimes that is just the way it goes and you have to forget it. Having said that, you should always look at the scoreboard – it can be that circumstances, the weather, or the light, have affected everyone and you are beating yourself up about nothing. If your scores are within range of others in your class, you shouldn't lose faith. In the winter, for example, you'll notice that a lot of shooters' scores do take a dip. The targets are harder to see, the weather can have a dramatic effect and you may be wearing more layers than usual which will change your shooting. I think experience tells when you hit a rut – you have more confidence that you can recover and you're more likely to understand why you aren't shooting at your best and be able to correct yourself, rather than making it worse." Paul goes to the US in late winter to get ready for the competition season and back into training, "It's warm, there's great visibility and we are shooting around 3,000 targets over two weeks, so it's a fantastic way to do some winter training and break your winter rut."

“IF YOUR SCORES ARE WITHIN RANGE OF OTHERS IN YOUR CLASS, YOU SHOULDN'T LOSE FAITH”

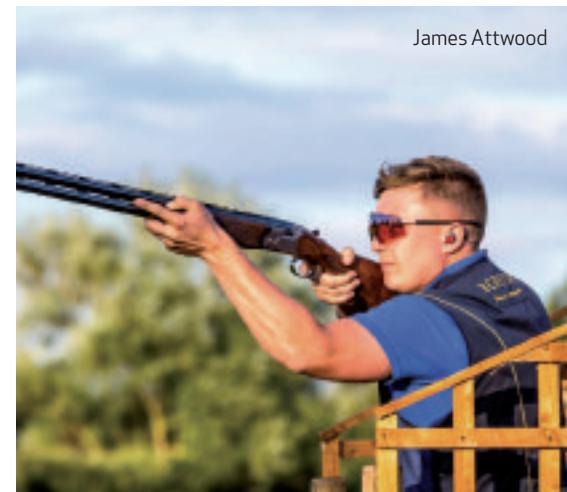

Paul Chaplow

Austin Coxhead

While for some, going hard at the practice is the best way to get their scores back in the range they expect, for others, the opposite is true. AUSTIN COXHEAD, another DTL shooter, says that for him, too much shooting can affect his performance adversely: "I lose focus and interest if I shoot too many targets, and I find coming at it fresh is by far the best way to keep my scores good." Like all the shooters we spoke to, Austin says that during a competition, a few missed clays means he'll go back to the basics. "I find starting with my footwork the best. Work from the ground up to get yourself back into the right frame of mind and stance." DTL is of course a rather different prospect to Sporting or Fitasc, for example, as "You know where the bird is going. So don't dwell on missing one or two, but aim to dust the next one and you'll soon find your confidence is on the up again." The worst thing you can do, Austin says, is "tinker with your kit. Your gun is better than you, your cartridges are better than you, and try to remember that you've got good scores with your kit in the past, so the fault is with you, not it. If you've got an adjustable gun, I recommend giving the Allen keys to a friend, so that you don't start tinkering. You're on a hiding to nothing if you do that!"

Austin agrees with Paul when it comes to checking out fellow shooters' scores: "You can think you've performed well or badly, and find the scores are not what you expected, so have a look at others who you are normally in range of and see what their score is. If you're in the same ball park, you know that you aren't doing badly. Having said that, I don't engage with others when I'm practising or competing. I like to focus utterly on the job at hand, and I can't do that if I'm trying to socialise. I think everyone just has to develop their own methods for keeping focussed and regaining confidence if they have a bad few shots." ●

Fit for purpose

KATE GATACRE DISCOVERS WHY GOOD GUN FIT IS ESSENTIAL FOR COMPETITIVE SHOOTING

UN FIT is all about comfort," says firearms dealer and specialist gun fitter Bob Barrett. "If you're comfortable shooting, the rest will follow. It's also about the individual: not only what discipline they take part in, but also their size, shape and shooting style." It's immediately clear from speaking to Bob that he is particularly fascinated in people's shooting styles: "When you watch good game shooters in action, it always strikes me how balanced and poised they look, but also how naturally they move and how good their swing is. A lot of clay shooters could learn a thing or two from watching them."

Bob always asks clients coming for a gun fit to bring a video of themselves shooting, so that he can observe their style. "While height, shape and weight are vital parts of the equation, gun fit needs to take how someone moves into account." Each discipline has a distinct style for shooting, Bob believes. "Take Sporting – they move very deliberately. Trap shooters hardly move at all, and both of those things affect how your gun should be fitted."

Above: Stock length is the starting point for every gun fit
Right: Comfort is paramount, and fitting a gun is all about the individual

So does that mean that you can't use the same gun for different disciplines? "Of course you can, but your shooting won't improve from it! Of course it is best to have a different gun, with different dynamics and fit for each discipline. But I do understand that not everyone can afford that." While Bob will help to fit second-hand or used guns, he is a big believer in buying the most up-to-date model you can afford. "It makes fitting so much easier. Not only that, but the guns can be adjusted in myriad ways, so your gun fit can be changed as you progress or your shooting style changes, or even if your eyesight changes."

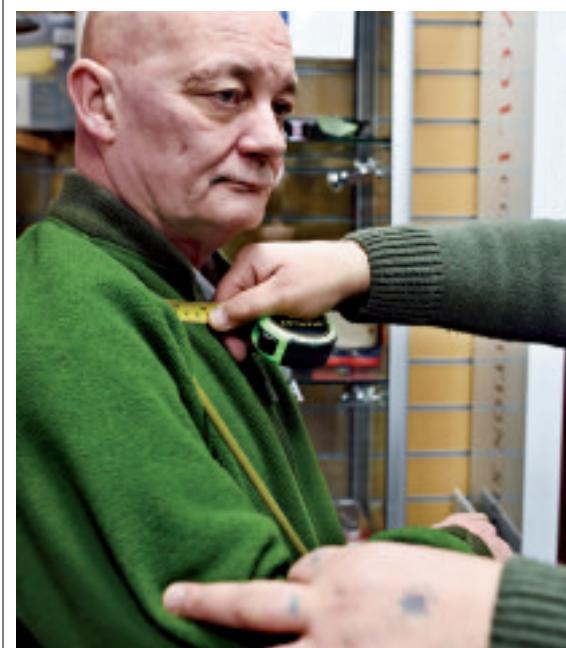

So with modern guns, on which the comb, stock, drop and cast can all be adjusted, does that mean that gun fit by professionals is no longer a necessity? "You'd be amazed at the number of clients who I do a fitting for who then return, saying their shooting is not going well. It then turns out that they have done some adjusting themselves. It's not something that you can do yourself."

START SMART

Bob explains that the starting point is always the stock length, and everything should follow on from that:

"Once you get the stock length right, you look at how the gun balances between the hands, the cast, drop and comb. We can do an awful lot with an older model that isn't adjustable, but by buying an adjustable one, we can really fine-tune things. I think of it like buying a car: every car can have its seat moved forward and back, and the mirrors adjusted, but a newer model will allow you to change the seat height, the angle of the steering wheel and so on."

One of the most frequent issues Bob sees is that people's hands are too outstretched on the gun, which, he explains, "Means they get bitten by recoil, and that will have a very negative effect on their shooting. Apart from getting some video footage of the client shooting, I also believe that not enough shooters make use of pattern plates. It tells you a lot about your gun fit if it is done properly, as you'll immediately see whether your shot is going high, low, left or right, all of which can be corrected by fit." The top shooters today, Bob says, know the importance of gun fit: "They are fitted to perfection, so much so that a top shooter would rather get hypothermia than wear an extra layer and throw the gun fit off.

"No two people are the same, and gun fit reflects that. It can be affected not only by your height, but also by your weight – a short person who is heavy will have a very different point of gravity to a tall, light person, for example." It's not just the big measurements that matter, however: "Cheek bones and the shape of someone's face, or the size of their hands can have a big impact." Eyesight, too, is an important thing to take into account, and linked to that is someone's age: "As you get older, your eyesight changes, but so do your reflexes. You notice with many clay shots that as they tire, their dominant eye will take over, and that can affect their shooting. All of those things can be helped by fit – not just ensuring the optimum eye line, but also ensuring a good balance, which will be far less tiring and allow the shooter to maintain a good swing and good hand-to-eye co-ordination for a prolonged period."

Above: Many modern clay shooting guns are now provided with adjustable stocks and combs

Below: Bob outside his gunshop in Surrey

Below right: According to Bob, the size of someone's hands can have a big impact on gun fit

Recently, Bob visited the Zoli factory in Italy, where he was impressed by the lengths the manufacturer went to in order to ensure good fit. "But I also learned something new there – they are really emphasising the dynamics of their guns – so how they move. I think that is going to give Zoli a real edge, and it's something I'm looking forward to exploring more when it comes to gun fit. After all, shooting is all about movement, which is why I insist on seeing a video of someone shooting before I can help them." ●

Orston shooting ground

DAN MARTIN TELLS PULL! ABOUT HIS SHOOTING GROUND

Q: How long have you been running Orston?

A: We bought the ground on May 6 2016, so nearly two years.

Q: How has it developed since you took over?

A: We have implemented many changes both on the ground and within the clubhouse and shop. On the ground we have replaced all Sporting, Skeet and DTL traps with new Promatic traps and have also implemented the clay mate system on Skeet and Sporting. We've added a Game Shooting Arena which consists of a secluded area of the ground where shooters can wander around underneath two towers shooting varied angles of driven type targets. There's a grouse butt for simulated grouse targets and a Promatic Huntsman trailer, which can be incorporated into a flush sequence if required. We now have 15 Sporting stands permanently on from Wednesday to Sunday on a pay and play system, which are changed weekly. We've also introduced a new cycle of competitions each month where each Sunday we have a CPSA registered competition of either FITASC, Sport Trap or Sporting. We also introduced a mid-week registered Sporting once a month on a Thursday and a DTL registered shoot once a month on a Saturday. We plan to increase our Trap disciplines in the near future with more DTL ranges to be opened up in the next 12 months and potentially some more disciplines.

Q: What are the aims for Orston?

A: We aim to make Orston Shooting Ground a centre of excellence in the Midlands for all Sporting and Trap disciplines. Being blessed with a fabulous central location we have excellent road links, which helps to attract a national clientele base.

Q: What makes Orston stand out?

A: I think we offer the full "package" both as a facility and its infrastructure. We like to be innovative and hope to move the sport in general to a more "professional" standard. Whatever your ability or shooting discipline, we aim to provide the best shooting experience for all shooters and non shooters alike. We have excellent facilities making us a Premier Plus ground. We also have great accessibility throughout the site enabling disabled shooters to shoot across all disciplines.

Q: What CPSA events do you have planned for 2018?

A: We have the National Inter-Counties Sporting in October, which we are very excited to host and make a real event of, and of course our weekly registered competitions throughout the year, including many county and regional shoots throughout 2018.

Q: Do you have a background in shooting?

A: Yes. I've shot since I was old enough to hold a gun. I started competing for my county in Sporting as a junior, competing all over the country most weekends. At the age of 18, I decided to look into the Olympic Disciplines. I took a trip with the GB Manager Ian Coley to Bisley where I tried my hand at Double Trap. I managed to qualify for Team GB as a Junior and competed at the Europeans alongside Peter Wilson MBE. ●

FINANCIALS

We achieved an income in the last year of £1.897m against £1.933m in the previous year. Our surplus was £24k against £43k last year and will be added to our reserves in line with our auditor recommended policy. The year ahead holds what is sure to be a very successful week of competition at the World English Sporting which always increases our income considerably. Unfortunately, in this context increased income also means increased expenditure and, as can be found elsewhere in this edition of Pull!, the surplus is minimal. The objective is to cover our costs and, contrary to a misconception held by some members, we do not extract huge surpluses from this, or any other, of our events. A further misconception held by some members is the idea that head office staff attending major championships are on something of a jolly. The reality is they work long hours, often in excess of 12 per day, do not stay in five-star hotels and take time off in lieu rather than be paid high rates of overtime. So please let us hear no more of this fallacy.

SPONSORSHIP

We are very fortunate in having many organisations, mainly from within the shooting sports industry, willing to support us at major competitions and other events. We would like to offer our sincere thanks to these organisations and ask our members to remember this and support them when buying products.

IT.

By the time you read this we will have launched (at last!) our new website, which replaces the one introduced nearly a decade ago. Whilst I am sure everyone was comfortable with the old one and knew their way around it, the replacement has a much more modern look to it and will be further developed going forward. I would like to acknowledge all the work our IT Manager, Peter Tomlin, has put in on this project which, due to external factors, has been a gigantic task, and Pete has certainly risen to the challenge over what turned out to be a much longer project than we envisaged at the start. The next IT task will be a replacement for Shoot08 which, as its names suggests, has been with us since 2008.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Our association could not function without the assistance of the many members throughout the country who give up their spare time and, often with little or no reward, contribute so much to the running of our association. Sincere thanks go to County and Regional Committee Members, Team Managers, referees, safety officers, coaches and instructors, my fellow directors and anyone else who I may have missed! I would also extend my thanks to the head office staff for their loyal and diligent service over the last 12 months.

Finally, I would like to wish all members good luck and a successful shooting year.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES STATEMENT

The directors are responsible for preparing the Directors' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice), including Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland'. Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies for the Company's financial statements and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

RESULTS AND REVIEW OF BUSINESS

Membership fee income increased in the year by 1.9% through a combination of an increase in fees and membership numbers. The major variance on income in the year is in respect of Major Championships. In 2017 the World Sporting Championship was held in the USA (2016: England) and as a result the company received less event income during the year, although this was in part offset by an additional event held on behalf of the ICTSF and increased courses income.

The surplus for the year, after taxation, amounted to £23,972 (2016: £42,956).

DIRECTORS

The directors who served during the year were:

W A Heeks (Deputy Chairman)

J H Offord
V Knowles-Lacks (resigned 25 March 2017)

RESERVES POLICY

The Clay Pigeon Shooting Association aims to keep free cash reserves for four to six months of core activity expenditure, therefore giving a target range of £500,000 to £750,000 of free cash reserves.

Free cash reserves at 30 November 2017 were £530,630 (2016: £543,622). We continue to be mindful of the need to improve the free reserves whilst making appropriate investments in the organisation.

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO AUDITORS

Each of the persons who are directors at the time when this Directors' Report is approved has confirmed that:

- so far as the director is aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the Company's auditors are unaware, and
- the director has taken all the steps that ought to have been taken as a director in order to be aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the Company's auditors are aware of that information.

AUDITORS

The auditors, haysmacintyre, will be proposed for reappointment in accordance with section 485 of the Companies Act 2006.

SMALL COMPANIES NOTE

In preparing this report, the directors have taken advantage of the small companies exemptions provided by section 415A of the Companies Act 2006.

This report was approved by the board on 3 February 2018 and signed on its behalf.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF CLAY PIGEON SHOOTING ASSOCIATION LIMITED

OPINION

We have audited the financial statements of Clay Pigeon Shooting Association Limited for the year ended 30 November 2017, set out on pages 42 to 47. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

This report is made solely to the Company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter three of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the Company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an Auditors' Report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Company and the Company's members, as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs as at 30 November 2017 and of its profit for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the United Kingdom, including the Financial Reporting Council's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

CONCLUSIONS RELATING TO GOING CONCERN

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the ISAs (UK) require us to report to you where:

- the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is not appropriate; or
- the directors have not disclosed in the financial statements any identified material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting for a period of at least 12 months from the date when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, other than the financial statements and our Auditors' Report thereon. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

OPINION ON OTHER MATTERS PRESCRIBED BY THE COMPANIES ACT 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- the information given in the Directors' Report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the Directors' Report has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

MATTERS ON WHICH WE ARE REQUIRED TO REPORT BY EXCEPTION

In light of the knowledge and understanding of the Company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the Directors' Report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or

- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or

- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made; or

- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit; or

- the directors were not entitled to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the small companies regime and take advantage of the small companies exemptions in preparing the Directors' Report and from the requirement to prepare a strategic report.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS

As explained more fully in the Directors' Responsibilities Statement on page 40, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

AUDITORS' RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an Auditors' Report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at: www.frc.org.uk/ auditors responsibilities. The description forms part of our Auditors' Report.

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

Clay Pigeon Shooting Association is the national governing body for clay pigeon shooting in England. The company remains committed to promoting excellence in the sport.

The company is a private company limited (registered number: 3146770) limited by guarantee and was incorporated in England and Wales. The company's registered office is Edmonton House, Bisley Camp, Brookwood, Surrey GU24 0NP.

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1 Basis of preparation of financial statements

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention unless otherwise specified within these accounting policies and in accordance with Section 1A of Financial Reporting Standard 102, the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and the Republic of Ireland and the Companies Act 2006.

The following principal accounting policies have been applied:

2.2 Income

Income is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the income can be reliably measured. Income is measured as the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, excluding discounts, rebates, value added tax and other sales taxes.

2.3 Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets under the cost model are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management.

Depreciation is charged so as to allocate the cost of assets less their residual value over their estimated useful lives, using the straight line method.

Depreciation is provided on the following basis:

Freehold property	- 0% straight line
Property improvements	- 10% straight line
Motor vehicles	- 25% straight line
Furniture, fittings and equipment	- 25–33% straight line
IT development	- 20% straight line

The assets' residual values, useful lives and depreciation methods are reviewed, and adjusted prospectively if appropriate, or if there is an indication of a significant change since the last reporting date.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing the proceeds with the carrying amount and are recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

2.4 Stocks

Stocks are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value, being the estimated selling price less costs to complete and sell. Cost is based on the cost of purchase on a weighted average basis. Work in progress and finished goods include labour and attributable overheads.

At each balance sheet date, stocks are assessed for impairment. If stock is impaired, the carrying amount is reduced to its selling price less costs to complete and sell. The impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

2.5 Debtors

Short-term debtors are measured at transaction price, less any impairment. Loans receivable are measured initially at fair value, net of transaction costs, and are measured subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment.

CLAY PIGEON SHOOTING ASSOCIATION LIMITED

A COMPANY LIMITED BY GUARANTEE

2.6 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash is represented by cash in hand and deposits with financial institutions repayable without penalty on notice of not more than 24 hours. Cash equivalents are highly liquid investments that mature in no more than three months from the date of acquisition and that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash with insignificant risk of change in value.

2.7 Financial instruments

The Company only enters into basic financial instruments transactions that result in the recognition of financial assets and liabilities, like trade and other debtors and creditors.

2.8 Creditors

Short-term creditors are measured at the transaction price. Other financial liabilities, including bank loans, are measured initially at fair value, net of transaction costs, and are measured subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.9 Operating leases: the Company as lessee

Rentals paid under operating leases are charged to the Statement of Comprehensive Income on a straight line basis over the lease term.

2.10 Pensions

Defined contribution pension plan

The Company operates a defined contribution plan for its employees. A defined contribution plan is a pension plan under which the Company pays fixed contributions into a separate entity. Once the contributions have been paid, the Company has no further payment obligations.

The contributions are recognised as an expense in the Statement of Comprehensive Income when they fall due. Amounts not paid are shown in accruals as a liability in the Balance Sheet. The assets of the plan are held separately from the Company in independently administered funds.

2.11 Interest income

Interest income is recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income using the effective interest method.

2.12 Designated reserves

Designated reserves relate to allocated future costs associated with designing and implementing a new membership database. Funds are released from the reserve as and when the costs are incurred.

The Regional Committee is well on the way to organising the Regional and County Championships and team Selection Shoots for 2018. Details of which are below. Bear in mind that circumstances can dictate changes of venue, dates etc. Every effort will be made to notify members of any change, but please double-check with grounds before travelling or whether you need to book on.

Where a North Region team has been selected for a major championship (e.g. British Open Sporting), team members should be aware that it is their responsibility to book a place at that championship. The Committee does not book or reserve places – they simply ensure the team has been selected fairly and has been properly notified to the CPSA. Book your place(s) early to avoid disappointment.

DTL Selections

The team will consist of 10 Seniors, three Ladies, three Veterans and three Juniors. Team members will be selected using their best two scores from the below five Selection Shoots. The date and venues for this year's Selection Shoots are as follows:

Mar 11: Spennymoor and District GC
 Mar 18: Bywell SG
 Apr 29: Beverley CTC
 May 13: Penrith and District GC
 Jun 3: North of England CTC

The North of England team will be expected to represent the Region at the English Open DTL at Bywell Shooting Ground on June 17. Selection forms will be available at each of the Selection Shoots. Any queries, please contact Emma Holden or Charlotte Kitchen.

English Sporting Selections

Team Size: 10 Seniors (three reserves), three Ladies (two reserves), three Juniors (two reserves), three Veterans (two reserves).

Complete the application form with your three lowest point scores from the five 100-target Selection Shoots below. Points are calculated from the North Region High Gun of the event, with one point being incurred for every target less than the winning score. Selection will be decided by points scored – the shooters with the lowest point scores making the team. In the event of a tie, we will use your score from the last Selection Shoot on the calendar.

To represent the North Region team, you must reside in the North Region and be a fully paid CPSA member at the time of the British Open and throughout the selection process. Application forms will be available at the Selection Shoots and online at the North Region website.

Mar 31-Apr 1: Park Lodge

Apr 21-22: Bywell

May 27: Blackpool

Jun 17: Beverley

Jul 22: Oak Lodge

English Skeet Selections

The North of England Skeet Team will consist of 10 (five) Seniors, three (two) Ladies, three (two) Veterans and three (two) Juniors. Selection procedure consists of best three scores to count from the following four shoots:

Apr 8: Beverley

May 6: Bywell

Jun 3: NOE CTC

Jul 15: NOE CTC

You must also be available to shoot as a member of the team at the British Open, Northampton GC on August 17, 18 or 19. Successfully selected team members are required to book and pay for their own entries. They will also receive a cloth badge and polo shirt courtesy of Steve Smiths Shooting Ground, Newcastle. An application form will be available at the Selection Shoots.

National Inter-counties Skeet Selections

The individual County teams will consist of six (five) Seniors, three (two) Ladies, three (two) Veterans and three (two) Juniors. Selection procedure consists of three 100-registered scores shot from any ground between October 1 2017 and June 30 2018.

Please complete your details to be considered for a team place for either or both of the above events. For any further details or to forward your registered scores, contact Liz Shanks (N of E Skeet Manager) on liz.skeet@is86731.plus.com. Scores must be received no later than July 8 2018 (signing-in form available at all four North of England Team Selection Shoots).

You must also be available to shoot the event at Nottingham GC on October 21 2018. Successfully selected team members are required to book and pay for their own entries with the ground.

ABT Selections

Please contact Ian Ainsley for further information. Contact details can be found on the North Region website. The date and venues for this year's Selection Shoots are as follows:

Mar 25: Beverley

May 6: Bywell

Please visit the North Region website and Facebook page to keep up to date.

Insurance

Can you afford to pay for a damaged stock or barrel blowout?

It's a question we hope you never have to ask yourself but it is one that you should consider now, rather than after the event.

Many shooters rely on home insurance but the hard fact is that many home insurance products exclude guns from contents cover, whilst others may have restrictions in policy cover.

Premiums start from £35 a year (including IPT) for £1000 cover on guns and you can even extend cover to outside the UK. For CPSA and BASC members only.

We recommend that you take the time to consider what cover you have on your guns. To discuss your requirements or to request a – North Wales Shooting School

NWSS has recently re-registered with the CPSA, so it was with great pleasure to be able to hold the English Skeet 2017 County Championships so locally for the Merseyside members. NWSS has really put some effort into bringing the ground up to a top-notch spec.

Eight Merseyside members took part, including team GB shooter Karl Price and England ABT shooter John Lucy. It was good to see people trying their hand at something new and different to their usual disciplines. Everyone remarked what an enjoyable day they had.

The weather was... well, it was January. The best of the light was around 11:00. Light winds did affect some targets, but the rain stayed away for most of the day. It could have been a lot worse.

The County Champion was Dave Walker. The Veterans winner was Les Howard and the Colts winner was James Southwood.

We look forward to holding the 2018 championships later in the year. Many thanks to the referees and staff at NWSS, and to all those who bought raffle tickets.

Hopefully by the time you read this, we will have this year's calendar complete and also some exciting sponsorship news.

Until next month, shoot straight!

The AGM has been set for 6.30pm on February 24 at Gloucester Skeet Ground, and a brief summary of the matters raised and aired will be available to you all via our web and Facebook pages. I for one hope that a number of new brooms will feel able to rise to the challenge of helping the County go forward. The glory days of the past need to be with us again, so I would ask that you give our County volunteers your full support and assist where you are able.

The County and its shooters had a good year, with Adrian Johnson, Paul Tudge, Matt Panter and Shaun Porter all representing their country, our FITASC team winning the Inter-counties and a silver medal for the Ladies and a bronze medal for the men in Sporting.

Our County Champions for 2017 are Steve Burnham and Sue Tippett (All-Round), Gareth Marfell and Sue Tippett (ABT), Matt Panter (OT), Matt Panter and Sue Tippett (UT), Paul Tudge (Olympic Skeet), Richard Webb (FITASC), Steve Clarke (Sporttrap), Nick Portlock winning three County titles in English Skeet, Skeet Doubles and Sporting, Jenny Young taking the Ladies English Skeet and Joanna Thomas taking Ladies Sporting.

While our Trap boys and girls are all fairly quiet in the winter, Sporting carries on apace. Our very own Steptoe lookalike Sean Foley braved blizzards and the like and shot a 92 ex 100 to win B Class at Meadowcroft. Stephen Hughes shot an 83 ex 100 to win C Class at EJ Churchills. Nick Portlock shot 94 ex 100 at Owls, 94 ex 100 at Hornet and 96 ex 100 at AGL in a day and a half to win High Guns aplenty. Please do tell me where and when any of you reading this have also fared well.

The 100 straight club 2018 Championship is being held at Northampton Shooting Ground on Sunday March 25th.

Following the unfortunate death of the Clubs founder, Organizer, and Driving force - Vallance (Val) Fraser the event will also be a memorial shoot. Special Medals have been cast to be presented to all winning team members and to all individual Class, Category and trophy winners.

All entries to the ground on 01604 642252, please give CPSA membership numbers and categories (junior, Lady Veteran Colt) to the ground.

For team registration email derek_pw@yahoo.com

This year sees Westfield entering the CPSA Premier League and, if you can, do support it. Elsewhere, Ian Coley's Summer Series starts in early March. This mid-week shoot was a slow burner in its early years and now is well attended. That's despite the weather, as there have been a few horrid days there over the years despite it being 'summer'. Gloucester soon starts opening on Wednesday evenings, as does Stroud SG in Bisley. One will catch up with Longridge events soon enough.

We are looking to run a full calendar of County Championship shoots for 2018. Please do all bear in mind that, due to ground restrictions, most of these events will be shot out of the County. Our kind hosting grounds may have to double up to ensure viability and, with an ever-increasing calendar of various selection and major shoots, we cannot ensure that some events won't clash.

Selection Shoots

As most of you know, this year the Sporting Manager has decided to run the Selection Shoots throughout winter and spring, instead of cramming everything in over summer. So far this has worked out brilliantly, with no clashes with other events. This has allowed many other shooters to try out for the 2018 team, making team places much more interesting and difficult to secure. This year is turning out to be a very different Sporting team, but one Team Manager is very interested to field.

Newcomers

Shropshire has suddenly received a boost in new shooters. Right at the end of 2017, a number of shooters decided they would try their hand at making the County teams. This is a massive boost for all categories and the County as we move forward. We wish you all the best in 2018!

Juniors

2017 was a fantastic year for a number of our Junior shooters, with both Arran Eccleston and Rebecca Ferguson smashing through British Shooting in OSK and OTR. The hard work they have to put in on a weekly basis makes the County very proud. We wish you both all the best for 2018 – the County is right behind you both.

Josh Sargent and Tom Davies both had a nice finish to 2017 with some good results in Sporting. They have both started 2018 off with a bang and are looking as though they will both have a very successful year. All the best lads and enjoy yourselves!

Dates for your diary

Two further English Sporting Selection Shoots will be announced for April and May. Please keep a sharp eye out for these. The Sportrap County Championship will hopefully be held in June. This will be announced via Facebook, the website and in the next edition of PULL!.

On behalf of the East Midlands CPSA Committee, I would like to wish you all a successful year in 2018.

I'm pleased to say the fixtures have been finalised for the season and it's going to be a very busy year. Looking later into the year, I'm sure Cambridgeshire will be keenly defending the Directors Trophy in the Inter-counties series of shoots.

We have yet to host our AGM, but I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the County representatives who have sat on the Regional Committee over the last year on behalf of their counties. We are very lucky to have so many dedicated and committed individuals who bring a wealth of experience to the region.

Our first meeting of the new season, to be held in March, will be devoted purely to planning the season ahead. Many suggestions will be discussed with a view to continually moving the region forward and giving you, the East Midlands shooter, the best we can.

I would also like to thank all those grounds that have hosted shoots for us in 2017 on behalf of the region. We look forward to working with you again in the coming season.

We look forward to seeing you all soon, but you can keep up to date by going to the regional website that can be accessed via the CPSA website main page. You can also like and follow us on the popular Facebook page.

The region will once again host a number of training courses for referees, safety officers, coaches and instructors. Full details of venues and dates can be found on our website.

The Committee hopes you all had a lovely Christmas and New Year, and that you're looking forward to the 2018 shooting season.

Listed below are the draft fixtures for the Bedfordshire County Championships. These fixtures have been planned to avoid as many clashes with other fixtures as possible, but inevitably some may occur. Please be assured that we have done our best when making these selections. If major changes occur in CPSA Regional or National events, there may need to be changes to Bedfordshire County events. We will post any changes as soon as practical on the Bedfordshire CPSA website (see above) and at Sporting Targets Shooting Ground.

Please note: a minimum of five Seniors, three Juniors, Veterans or Ladies is needed before medals are awarded in each of these categories. County Trophies will still be updated.

Well, another year is upon us and another AGM has passed. For my sins, I will be with you for another year at least – hopefully. I have had some bad luck with my health in 2017, but I should be on the mend now. Many thanks for all your messages of good wishes over the last couple of months; they were very much needed.

The AGM went very well. We held it in a new venue, purely to spread over to another part of the County, although it was previously held there many years ago. It was a bit tough for me because I had to walk the 200 yards from my house. It was nice to see a sprinkling of our Champions at the meeting, and it's always nice to present them with the keepsake trophies to celebrate all their hard work during the year.

Also, we have our Supreme Championship – the winner being the top person over all our English disciplines. This sorts the men and Ladies out from the others and it's very exciting thanks to there being just a couple of targets between the top shots for most of the year. But, at the end of the day, our Chris Morris took the title and not for the first time. If you have seen him shoot, you will know why. He hates every single target – as do I when I miss.

Supreme Champion: Chris Morris

Senior Champion: Richard Morris

Veteran Champion: Malcolm Collins

Lady Champion: Hazel Whiten

Junior Champion: Taylor Hedgecock

Colts Champion: Archie Bowman

The next most important prize is the Directors Trophy. I did touch on this in the last report, but we will no doubt be letting the other seven counties know of our achievements in the coming year. Thanks to the super Cambridgeshire shooters across the board; all contributed in a big way to this achievement. It was rounded off with Sarah Christensen turning in an 81 ex 100 in the Intercounties ABT. This was a genuine Cambridgeshire win and all categories saw wins. This was a super effort by all.

Having said that, our top 'prize' winner in 2017 was 13-year-old Ami Hedgecock. She won a car in the Schools Challenge after a shoot-off – what about that! Can any other Cambridgeshire shooter top that? Perhaps they can, I don't know, but well done Ami! When I saw her shoot 23 at the ABT the year before last, I guessed it wouldn't be long before good prizes came along for her. And well done all of you – more of the same this year, please.

Jan 22: AGM

The AGM is the event which winds up the previous year with the presentation of the 2017 Supreme Champion awards. It then sets the stage for the coming season with the announcement of the 2018 Committee members and the outline of planned events for coming season.

The election of Committee members for 2018 was dealt with fairly quickly, with the current Chairman (Paul Stennett), Vice-Chairman (David Shepherd), Secretary (Vanessa Harrison) and Treasurer (Janet Stennett) all being re-elected for 2018. Existing Committee members, Brett Aisthorpe, Paul Briggs, Chris Bone, Donovan Jenkins, Nigel Salmon and Steve Parker agreed to continue and are now to be joined by two new Committee Members Elena Taylor and Iain McIntyre.

The Chairman thanked all of the Committee for the work they do and for their continuing support for 2018. Membership in Lincolnshire continues to show a steady increase, now standing at over 600 members. We hope that all will find something of appeal in the County events we have on offer, which this year will include a Lincolnshire ZZ Helice Championship. For those who haven't tried it, now is your chance.

The battle for the title of Lincolnshire Supreme Champion was very much a family affair, with Norman Smith beating his son, Steve (the 2016 winner), by just two points. All our winners had competed in all five of the qualifying disciplines, except Steve who missed the DTL. As Steve is a very competent DTL shot, it's a possibility he could have accumulated the missing points at that event. I dare say Steve will be seeking revenge in 2018.

George Cheer was the very worthy winner of the Junior title, beating his nearest rival, Tom Mead, by two points. George gained the maximum points for All-Round and Skeet, second place in ABT and DTL added another eight points, with a good enough showing at Sporting to give him the winning score.

The Veteran winner for the second year in succession was Mike Burton. Mike excelled in DTL and Skeet, did a very creditable job in the All-Round and did enough in Sporting and ABT to ensure the title.

The Ladies title this year went to Jan Stennett who, out of the five disciplines, enjoyed a particularly good run in DTL, Skeet and All-Round.

The idea of this competition is to find our best All-Round shots so, while it is great to excel at your own discipline, this competition encourages members to have a go at everything. For 2018 give it a whirl, you all have a chance. The rules are published in the Lincolnshire handbook and on our website.

The issue, brought up under 'any other business', which is concerning members most at the moment is in relation to the provision of medical reports in support of applications for firearm/shotgun certificates. A recent (January) report on Countryfile dealt with some issues, but it was not clear whether some of the statements made were actually to be implemented or whether they were just an opinion. Variations in charges for such reports is also a matter of concern to members. Over the coming months, we would hope for more clarity.

The free raffle for the hamper was won by Mick Taylor. The meeting concluded with a splendid buffet supper.

At the time of writing, fixtures dates are still being finalised. Please consult the website for the latest updates.

Hello to all the Norfolk shooters out there. It only feels like a week or so since the last article. It has been very quiet on the home front shooting-wise. Christmas and poor weather appears to have kept a lot of shooters at home.

As a keen supporter of young shots, I would like to include a young shots section for Norfolk young shooters. If you know a Norfolk young shot, please send me a brief report and photos of them competing and I will include them in these reports.

The winter has been quiet in Norfolk with only a few venturing out and about. However, a few of the Juniors have been active despite the cold weather. Elise Dixon travelled to Nuthampstead to take part in a 50 target re-entry Olympic Trap competition only days after Christmas to be met with several inches of snow. This meant a quick cup of tea and back on the road to Norfolk. Elise then travelled the three hours and 45 minutes to compete at Beverley Clay Target Centre in their winter Universal Trench series. She finished with a 67 ex 100, even though temperatures were close to 0°C, if not colder. Despite the cold, there was an excellent turn-out of shooters young and old doing everything they could to stop their teeth chattering as they took each shot. It was a good practice competition for Elise ahead of her first international Olympic Trap competition – Norfolk is proud to say that she came home with a bronze medal.

William Gilbert has been making the most of the winter, preparing for the new season and practising a variety of disciplines at the local grounds. We look forward to reporting how he progresses through the CPSA ranks this year.

If there are any Norfolk shooters who have been competing in CPSA-registered shoots, please send your photographs and stories to me.

I would like to welcome a new Norfolk Junior shooter to the fold: William Nicholas. At 11 years old, he has just entered his first CPSA-registered event at the Priory CTC's DTL winter series. William shot a very respectable 41/118 using a 20-bore in bright but very windy conditions. Well done William. I look forward to shooting with you again.

2017 season round-up

The County was lucky to have six Committee members, in addition to three officers, meeting eight times this year. The fixtures group set and published the fixtures from the end of January, with changes promptly published on Facebook and the website. Competition winners' names were also published on the County website and Facebook pages. This year, badges will also be available for Colt winners.

We'd like to thank local businesses Northampton Gun Co and FMJ, which have kindly offered class prizes for three competitions.

Director's Trophy

We entered every discipline of the CPSA Regional Director's Trophy, with differing levels of success. In Skeet, the Ladies won and the Seniors were runners-up. In All-Round, both Ladies and Seniors won. In Sporting, the Seniors were runners-up. In FITASC, the Ladies won, with Henry Collins Junior High Gun. In ABT, the Juniors were winners and Henry again took the Junior High Gun title.

Inter-counties All-Round

County shooters competed in the National CPSA Inter-counties All-Round competition. Both our Lady and Senior teams won. The Junior and Veteran's teams were runners-up. Henry Collins and Alex Banning were the Junior and Colt High Gun respectively.

County news

In 2017, the County reverted to the usual PULL! magazine reports. While the word count had increased to 600 words, the number of photos had been reduced to two. Roy Tyler also published news and events through the County website and Facebook. Thanks to him, the County CPSA Facebook page has 177 followers, with around 90 people engaged with each post.

The Committee continues to review subsidising CPSA County team shooters half the cost of a shooting jacket in the County colour. Work is currently being undertaken to investigate clothing such as T-shirts or fleeces. Progress towards a solution is hoped to be completed by the start of the Inter-counties competition season.

The County purchased a flag banner for use by the Region and an additional flag and banner for use in County CPSA competitions and for promoting the CPSA at external events.

Achievements

County shooters made a fine showing in Regional CPSA events, with the following achievements:

ABT: Kirstin Vogel was Ladies and Junior runner-up.
Sporting: Emma Nelson won the Ladies, with Kirstin Vogel third in Ladies and runner-up in Juniors.

Universal Trench: M Rowley won the Ladies and Alfie Thompson was third in the Juniors.

Skeet: Dave Morgan was the winner, Neil Faulkner was runner-up and Mick Russell was third. Izzy Russell was Ladies runner-up and Ollie Main won the Junior title.

Skeet Doubles: Neil Faulkner was third in Seniors and Izzy Russell third in Ladies.

Olympic Skeet: Kirstin Vogel was Ladies and Junior winner.

All-Round: Kirstin Vogel was the Ladies winner. The Regional Senior Supreme Champion was Simon Vogel and Regional Junior and Ladies Supreme Champion was Kirstin Vogel.

In national events, George Owen won the CPSA Junior English Open Skeet Doubles title and Henry Collins won the Junior title in the CPSA British Open All-Round.

Leon Gill gained his first cap this year. Neil Faulkner was the Home International Skeet Team Captain and Andrew Lea OSK Team Captain. Also shooting for England were Henry Collins and Mick Russell. The Junior CPSA Shooter of the Year was Henry Collins, Senior CPSA Shooter of the Year was Neil Faulkner. Well done to all.

So the competition season is about to start and all the dates have now been finalised. Our first County Championship will be the English Sporting at Orston SG on Sunday March 25, which is also the team Selection Shoot and a Supreme Championship fixture. Please check the website for the rest of the County's dates.

We also have two other County events in March: the annual Help for Heroes charity matches at Nottingham Gun Club. The DTL event will be March 4 and the Skeet on March 18. The top 10 scores will count towards the total County score. This is the only time we get to directly compete against our rivals Derbyshire in these hugely competitive (and good-natured) events. It's also a great opportunity to raise a fantastic amount of money for the Help for Heroes charity.

Supreme Championship 2018

It would be great to see winners in all of the categories this year. You only need to shoot four of the seven events listed below to automatically qualify for the Supreme Championship. Trophies, clothing and free entry to 2019 County shoots are the prizes up for grabs in every category (Colts, Juniors, Ladies, Seniors, Veterans, Super Veterans and the Overall County Supreme Champion).

Mar 25: English Sporting – Orston

Apr 2: ABT – Nottingham

May 13: All-Round – Orston

Jun 9-10: Sportrap – Orston

Jul 1: DTL – Nottingham

Jul 15: English Skeet – Nottingham

Sep 16: Skeet Doubles – Orston

Orston

The DTL and FITASC Winter Series were the first series held at Orston SG. Both have been very well received. This summer, Orston will be introducing a Sportrap and FITASC series, starting in May. Also new to this year, Orston Club 50 shoots open to Orston members. Prizes will be broken down between class and category. Don't forget the Annual Open Day on May 26.

Finally, I would like to wish you all the best of luck – particularly to Nottinghamshire's Jack Richards who will represent England in the World DTL Championship in Australia at the end of the month.

Jan 23: Suffolk AGM 2018 – Eriswell Lodge

Attendance to the 2018 AGM was very disappointing, with just 17 Suffolk members present. The Chairman thanked John Martin, East Midlands Director, for attending while on his way back to Nottingham from Bisley. Thanks also to Eriswell Lodge for allowing its venue to be used and the fantastic buffet which so many members missed!

The 2018 Committee is as follows: Richard Hails (Chairman), Darren Parsons (Vice-Chairman), Martyn Beverley (Treasurer) and Graham Cave (Secretary). Other members elected: Chris 'Puff' Baker, Adrian Cook, Andy Coppen, Dennis Meekings, Karl Patten (new), Barry Randall, Paul Romaine, Melissa Smith (new) and Stuart Smith.

The Chairman and Committee wish to thank Eric Chapman and Phil Moss for their past services and support.

2017 Supreme County Champion

The 2017 Supreme County Champion was announced at the AGM with the trophy presented by Dick Hails, Chairman. Third place was Puff Baker (21 points), runner-up was Darren Parsons (26 points) and the Champion was Stuart Smith (39 points).

2018 Free Championship Entry

The draw for the six members to win a free entry to a Suffolk 2018 Championship took place at the AGM. If the winners could contact me using the contact details listed in this article, it will speed up getting the prizes to you. For details of the competition, please go to the Suffolk website.

The winners are: RC Butters, G Garnham, C MacKenzie, M Murphey, D Parsons and C Patten.

Visit the Suffolk website for more detailed reports, County news, updated Suffolk Championships and ground fixtures. You haven't heard from Cornwall for a while, so I thought it would be a good opportunity for a recap of last year. And what a year! There were some fantastic achievements, with Peter Mylam, Kelvin Walsh and Bill Moussalli being selected yet again for the England Team and John Dunne being selected for the Ireland Team. I can't talk about international achievements without mentioning James Rounsevell, who was selected to represent England for Olympic Skeet – well done James.

Kelvin Walsh, defending his 2016 title, won the All-Round English Open at Nottingham in June last year after having only dropped one bird! This fantastic result shows what you can achieve with a lot of hard work, practice and dedication.

Jackie Eley and I had the pleasure of attending the National Clay Shooting Centre at Bisley in October 2017 to shoot the National Inter-counties English Skeet. We were absolutely delighted to come home as Ladies English Skeet National Inter-counties Champions 2017, having won by 14 clays. Plus, Gareth Williams won High Gun, shooting the only 100-straight of the day. I have to mention our Senior team, who shot fabulously but who were pipped to the winning post by three clays. We are all still so proud of them; they had some very serious competition.

The Trap side of clay shooting in Cornwall has always been a bit of an unknown zone to me, but I had the pleasure of shooting a registered DTL and ABT competition at North Cornwall Shooting Ground a couple of weeks ago. Besides getting absolutely soaked, I came away with a greater appreciation for Trap shooters.

For a full list of the County Champions, please go to the Cornwall CPSA webpage.

I am proud to mention a fantastic up-and-coming Junior, Denzil Grose, who was recently awarded membership of the British Shooting Talent Pathway with a plan on the Regional Shotgun School Programme for 2018. Go for it, Denzil! You've got Cornwall's full support.

We've recently held the Cornwall CPSA AGM and a few new faces have joined the Committee. I would like to say a massive thank you to the Committee Members who have stepped off the Committee for their support and personal sacrifice. Without you, we would not have the strong Cornwall clay shooting spirit we do. The new faces bring with them an influx of new ideas, and I know one area which is close to all of our hearts is the desire to attract more shooters to our fantastic sport. Watch this space for exciting things to come.

DTL on March 18 at Fareham CTC, then the All-Round Championship, again at Fareham, on April 22.

There is a list of dates on the Hampshire website, so pencil these dates in if you wish to try and rack up the points and titles.

200 DTL Grand Prix

Due to the support Fareham CTC had with last year's 200 two-day grand prix, the club will be holding it again this year on April 7-8. The club has secured the support of many brand names, with quite an impressive prize fund. To book a place, you need to call Brain Coupe on 07778 815311.

There will be four layouts welcoming you but there is a 20 squad limit, so don't hang around. You can start shooting for £12.50.

Fareham CTC is now firmly on the map for learning our sport. If you have a friend or relation who would like to take up our great sport, your first lessons will be just £12.50 a session. With dedicated undercover Have-a-Go stands, several club guns and a structured learning system, you can go from beginner to C Class quite quickly.

Christian Huxon is just one of many who started on the HAG stands, going from never holding a gun to winning his class with a 46 ex 50 on the Sporting layout within a year. The club boasts a five-stand undercover HAG plus area too, where all the Sporting rules, scoring and much more are put into practice. The idea of getting new visitors and members up to C Class level, away from the experienced crowds on the competition layouts, makes sense.

The HAG area is a turn up, pay and play on any advertised fixture. Whereas the HAG plus requires booking. There is no let-up on the amount of people wishing to get into our sport.

Firstly, thank you to all those Somerset shooters who attended the AGM, including all the County Champions who collected their trophies. For those of you who were unable to attend, the Committee is making efforts to ensure that the remaining trophies end up where they are deserved. There have been a couple of people who have stepped down from last year's Committee and I'll take the opportunity to thank them for all their hard work over the last 12 months. We have also been able to establish a Committee for this year and, between us, should be able to ensure continued smooth running. Hopefully we will be able to enjoy another successful year as a County.

In other news, congratulations to three Somerset shooters for making the team for the 2018 Commonwealth Games in Australia. Ed Ling, Abbey Ling and Ellie Seward have all been selected to shoot Trap for England – we wish them the best of luck for April. Hopefully there will be some good coverage of the shooting disciplines on the BBC.

County Championships - Important information

The All-Round will be held at Brook Bank SG on March 30 2018 (Good Friday). This is always a popular event! No matter what the weather, it's a great competition and has been won by both Trap and Sporting shooters in the past. Martin Howe was the 2017 Champion, so we will have to see if he can retain the title. Additionally, it's a good chance to just catch up with old friends. I'm sure that Alison or Wesley will also be happy to take your booking for the competition!

As always, we will endeavour to keep the County shooters updated on the dates of forthcoming County Championships and any changes to those Championships. Dates will be published in forthcoming PULL! articles and will also be on the Somerset CPSA Facebook page.

As ever, I'm always on the look-out for content for our section of PULL!. If anyone wants to submit a report, please send it through to the email address above.

AGM

A lively Wiltshire CPSA AGM was held on January 15 at the George and Dragon, Potleine. The full minutes can be read on the County website (see above) or I can email you a copy if you wish. The County Championship trophies were awarded to Harry Hair (Supreme Champion), Pauline Stokes (Ladies), Dan Carpenter (Juniors) and Dave Smith (Veterans). Congratulations to all.

It was suggested that the County trophies could be presented at the AGM instead of at the end of each competition. When put to the vote, this was carried unanimously. If you currently have a County trophy, could you make sure you either bring it to next year's AGM or contact me at some point during the year and we can arrange a mutually convenient collection.

Congratulations to Berkshire shooter Dean Gibbs, who shot a perfect 100 ex 100 at English Sporting at Owls Lodge. This is the first time that Dean has carded 100-straight but, looking at the big scores he is achieving, there could be more to come. Watch this space!

The Supreme County Championship was a close affair, with Dean also featuring at the top, but he tied with stalwart Berkshire shooter Ken Harman, and it was Ken who came out on top this time. After they were both tied on points, it came down to the most County Championship wins and Ken had them in the bag.

It is Keith Kilvington's hope that, by the time you get to read this, there will be a new Committee in place and he will have stepped down at the AGM after keeping the chair warm for the last couple of years. I know everyone would like to say a massive thank you to Keith for everything he has done during his time on the Committee.

Please find the list of the County Championships for 2018 below. It must also be noted that these will only be relevant if there is a committee in place, so please check the website for more details. Dates are also subject to change.

November 12 2017 saw the Buckinghamshire County Championships, which were held at the Valley View Ground by kind permission of Adam Lund. Some great targets were set up by Kevin Gray and there was some equally great shooting. The results were:

County Champion: Ricky Draper (95)

AA Class: Jamie Gutteridge

A Class: Kevin Wharton

B Class: Steve Blackburn

C Class: M Cox

Ladies: first – Amy Easeman, second – Sammy Halsey, third – Jackie Vines and Jacqui Baker

Veterans: first – JRG Smith, second – R Adams and R Hawker

Juniors: Amy Easeman

Colts: Ollie Clifford, Lain Blamey

Our very own 'Spackers' has been busy organising events again, and the first was an introduction to FITASC. Twenty-two Ladies attended the event and shot FITASC for the first time, with four women signing up to do the Winter Series at Westfield. Amy and Hannah were a brilliant success, giving up their day to help groups of women on some of the harder targets on the Sporting. Thank you so much to both of you!

Steve Lovatt has finally recovered... and is off the meds!

In early January, the Bucks Bangers organised a registered shoot at EJ Churchills. Thanks again to Wendy for being the key contact, and she rounded the day off with a fantastic score and winning C Class. Thank you to everyone who came along and shot the course; it was great to see you all.

Our very own John Smith won the South East of England Skeet Championship at Bisley on November 26 2017. He tied with Sam Sylvester of Berkshire on 98 ex 100, so there was a shoot-off and John shot a 25-straight to take the title. Congratulations John!

We are looking forward to our AGM, which is to be held at EJ Churchills on February 21 at 19:30. A full report will be in next month's magazine.

Keep sending in the info and have a great month!

long before our first events commence for 2018. Our thanks to those who came to the AGM. A full fixture list of shoots can be found on our CPSA website, which you can print out. However, be careful to note that you are using the latest issue, as things are still in a state of flux. The issue date can be found on the bottom left-hand corner.

We are always grateful for photos and reports on every shoot, so don't leave it to others to send in material to the secretary. It is always appreciated and, let's face it, you all have cameraphones now! As always, we welcome any help – in particular discipline Team Managers to help the Committee and to pick teams for Inter-counties competitions. If you can set up a team, then let Sandie Buckler know in advance of the event.

Jan 28: Hertfordshire County AGM – Nuthampstead

We had a good turnout at Nuthampstead. There were no big announcements. The new 2018 County Champion medals were presented. Many thanks to all that attended. Hertfordshire Championship dates will be available shortly.

Election of officers: Derek Monahan (Chairman), Stuart Purser (Vice-Chairman), Dom Cherry (Treasurer) and David Tibbles (Secretary/PR and Comms).

Team Managers: Stuart Purser (Olympic Trap), Alison Nicol (Olympic Skeet), David Tibbles (Sporting), David Tibbles (FITASC), Stuart Purser (ABT), Stuart Purser (Universal Trench) and TBA (English Skeet).

Jan 20-21: Olympic Trap International – Club de Tiro Jarapalo, Spain

Two Hertfordshire young shots competed in the IV Grand Prix Olympic Trap competition in Spain. Maddie Purser finished with silver in Lady Juniors after a joint 102 ex 125 and a shoot-off (joint sixth in Juniors). Lucas Hyde finished ninth in Juniors on a 97 ex 125. Well done to both of them – impressive scoring for their first International OT shoot.

Young shots: Charlie Monahan, 17 years old

2017 was always going to be a challenging year for Charlie as he was competing in his first year as a Junior. Having gained experience in Texas at the World English Sporting, where he came 12th in

A Class, he returned home to compete in the British Schools Championship, just missing out on the top spot in the shoot-off. Summer saw Charlie win

Below: Hertfordshire CPSA Champion medal

Bottom: Charlie Monahan – Hertfordshire young shot

Juniors at the Royal Berkshire Challenge Trophy, take third at the Beretta World Sporting and become Junior winner at the South East of England Sporting Championships. Charlie had another successful year in the Premier League, winning High Gun in B Class and second in Juniors. As the season drew to a close, Charlie became the Junior County FITASC Champion and was also placed third in the Rizzini Series Final.

Charlie's aims for 2018 are to gain more experience in FITASC and Sportrap/Compak, and to move up through the classes. Having moved up a class for FITASC in December, Charlie gained his first C Class win at Southdown in January. Charlie will be competing in all the major Sporting championships this year, as well as the England Team Selection Shoots for FITASC. He hopes to be able to represent Hertfordshire again this year and maybe even England! Charlie is currently sponsored by Laporte and Wallers Ash Gun Club and trains with Ken Rist for FITASC and Guy Franklin for Sporting and Sportrap.

A rather wet, cold and wintry start to the shooting year doesn't appear to have stopped the hardened clay shooters among you.

Weston Wood

Weston squeezed in a couple of shoots in January, the first breaking previous attendance records. More than 260 shooters turned out to shoot some testing targets. A couple to mention are Graham Ferguson (third in A Class with a healthy score of 82 ex 100) and Charlotte Allen (who shot a very respectable 66 ex 100, finding herself third in C Class).

Two weeks later saw a very brave handful of shooters battle through the horrendous weather conditions – first sun, then rain, then snow, then heavy snow! Well done to the 50 or so who managed the journey.

Westfield

New Year's Day saw many turn up bright and early for the Westfield shoot. Matt Hance won the shoot with an outstanding performance. He finished on 98 ex 100. I presume Matt wasn't partying the night before. If he was, I want some tips! Well done – brilliant shooting.

Well done to Percy Bradley who finished third in Veterans, with a strong score of 76 ex 100. Congratulations must also go to Jane Robbins, third in Ladies and third in C Class with a score of 57 ex 100.

I have spent a lot of time trying to negotiate the new CPSA website. It looks great but sadly the early technical issues and trying to find results proved somewhat frustrating. Spelling mistakes on the site make it difficult to find simple things, like 'Reesults'. Hopefully, before the next issue is due, these difficulties will have been ironed out. It's like pulling teeth trying to get a report together.

Oxfordshire Cup Presentation Dinner and Dance

Please may I remind you that we have the Oxfordshire Cup Presentation Dinner and Dance coming up. It is being held at the newly refurbished Holt Hotel at Steeple Aston, OX25 5QQ on Saturday March 31 at 19:15. There will be a tasty three-course meal and a disco after. Tickets cost £25 each.

If you have awards to collect, please support the evening. A lot of time and effort is put into organising these evenings and it would be great to see some new faces attend. There will be some great raffle prizes to be won – rumour has it one of them is a gun! Chris Broomfield, make sure you are in charge of the raffle tickets – we don't want a repeat performance of last year!

Please email me if you would like any further information. Tickets are available from Banbury Gunsmiths or any of the Oxfordshire Committee, including myself.

Other news

All the news from the AGM will be included in the April issue as, sadly, this report is due just before the meeting.

Don't forget to email your achievements through, so I can include them in the April report. If you have any pictures, that's even better.

The Committee would like to thank the various grounds who supported the Surrey Championships last season. It would also like to thank the approximately 100 Surrey members who attended one or more Surrey Championships last year – either to compete for the Supreme competition, Surrey County team places or just for the fun and experience of entering a registered competition. We have again planned a full range of County events this year and hope for an even bigger turnout.

As for the other 1,000+ Surrey members, is there anything we can do to make your shooting more enjoyable? We would love to have your comments or feedback, either by email or via the Facebook page.

The Committee and I have exhausted our supply of new photographs, so if you have anything you would like us to submit to PULL! magazine – whether it is your own personal achievements, a family member or perhaps an up-and-coming Junior in your Club – please send us a brief report of the event and any photos you would like printed. To be published, any 'action photos' have to show shooters wearing eye and hearing protection (in line with CPSA guidelines).

The first championships of the year are listed below. The full list of the year's events is on the Surrey website (see above). Please have a look and add the events to your calendars. Don't forget to follow us on the Surrey CPSA Facebook page.

The First DSG shoot has been announced for Saturday April 7 at Kibworth SG, Leicestershire. It will be an All-Round shoot. In addition, we will be having a 25-bird Sportrap where there will be a cash or voucher prize. The reason for a later shoot is due to other grounds being booked up in March, and we didn't want to clash with the first Olympic Trap Selection Shoot on March 17-18 at Nuthampstead.

The second Selection Shoot will take place on May 19-20 at Fauxdeglia. We don't plan to have a Group May shoot due to this and other majors, so please support the shoots in April, June and July.

This year, the plan is to have fewer full Group shoots but more regular regional meets. The first one is planned at Eriswell Lodge, Suffolk for Saturday March 30. These regional meets will include Have-a-Go events and are being organised following a ground survey we completed in December.

Some of our members have recently been out in Spain shooting the Malaga OT GP. We proudly brought back some medals in the Sitting and Standing. A special well done to Allan Ritchie, who picked up a gold medal.

Please remember that all the CPSA majors have Disabled Entries, so start booking them up ASAP!

Guns and AccessoriesAG Adjustable Gun Stocks

If your scores are inconsistent it may be because your gun fit is incorrect, most factory stocks are made to standard measurements, you may not be 'standard'. A fully adjustable comb which allows you to have consistent mounts may be what you need.

I also fit recoil reducers and adjustable butt plates.
 Prices start from £180. Cheaper than changing your gun.
 Fast turn around usually 3 to 4 days.

AHEAD OF THE GAMES

CPSA CLAY SHOOTER OF THE YEAR ABBEY LING TALKS ABOUT HER AND HUSBAND ED'S RUN UP TO THE COMMONWEALTH GAMES IN APRIL AND THE THREAT TO SHOOTING AS AN INTERNATIONAL DISCIPLINE

HOW DID YOU AND ED HEAR ABOUT YOUR TEAM SELECTION?

We heard officially by letter – I found out before Edward because I always open my post before him! We were half expecting it because of the clear selection criteria needed to be achieved at the home selections. We'd both reached that; however, I was still excited and relieved to get a letter as that meant I was definitely going.

WHAT'S LIFE BEEN LIKE SINCE?

We started competitive shooting earlier than usual. The first international Grand Prix was in Malaga in January. Then we had a kitting out day with the rest of the shooting team in Preston so got to see all the new designs which I had secretly been a part of. We've got a couple more training camps and some overseas Grand Prix before flying out to Australia on March 25.

I TRULY BELIEVE OUR SPORT IS UNDER THREAT

WILL YOU BE TAKING BABY AMY WITH YOU TO AUSTRALIA?

We haven't decided yet, but the thought of three weeks away from her isn't nice, plus she's kind of my lucky mascot!

WHAT ARE YOU MOST LOOKING FORWARD TO AT THE GAMES?

For me, it will be competing on the international circuit again. Although this is a big competition, I deal with it the same as every overseas competition – getting plenty of sleep, adapting to the time difference, eating and drinking well, training on the range we will be shooting the competition on, and discovering the venue rest areas, etc. for competition day.

WHO'S YOUR BIGGEST THREAT?

My husband is the biggest threat – we have a little bet on beating each other all the time! He tends to win (laughs). But I don't mind being second best to an Olympic bronze medallist.

WILL YOU WATCH EACH OTHER SHOOT ON APRIL 13 WHEN YOU'RE BOTH COMPETING?

We both switch off and concentrate on ourselves. Only if we have finished our day's shooting will we watch each other.

DO YOU GET PARTICULARLY STRESSED IN THE RUN UP TO BIG COMPETITIONS?

Ed's more laid back than I am, but neither of us gets too stressed about it. Nerves are always around, but that's competition life.

WHAT ARE YOUR HOPES FOR THE GAMES?

To win of course, but with competition day being Friday the 13th I guess there will be one person who it's not unlucky for...

WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT THE FACT THAT SHOOTING HAS BEEN DROPPED FROM THE COMMONWEALTH GAMES FOR BIRMINGHAM 2022?

I'm gutted and I truly believe our sport is under threat because of this happening so easily. It was a total surprise to me. I wish the shooting world knew of this decision before it was publicly announced. Maybe as a community we could have done something about it.

DO YOU WORRY THAT SHOOTING WILL BE SQUEEZED OUT FROM THE OLYMPICS AND OTHER GLOBAL COMPETITIONS IN THE FUTURE?

Totally. This is what ran through my mind with Double Trap Ladies going now the Double Trap Men's discipline being dropped. There's talk of laser instead of live clay shooting. It makes me sad. ●
