WELCOME

SEPT

I'm sure you have all been enthralled by the Paris Olympics over the last month and congratulations to all the Team GB "Olympians" who gave their all on the World stage. Non more so than our Team GB shooters, Nathan Hales, Amber Rutter, Matt Coward-Holley and Lucy Hall and huge congratulations from all at the CPSA to Nathan and Amber, bringing home Olympic Gold and Silver in their respective disciplines – a phenomenal achievement indeed!

Back on home soil, the 15th ICTSF World DTL Championships took place at Bywell, incorporating the British Open, European Open and Home Internationals and our congratulations to 17-year New Zealander James Sullivan who was crowned World DTL Champion and vowed to try and defend his title when the 16th ICTSF World DTL heads to New Zealand in 2026.

Staying with Trap, perennial winner David Kirk once again secured the EO ABT title, his fifth in this competition and retained his 2023 title. The EO and BO Single Barrel followed with Richard Ryan winning the English Open and Paul Turner the British and we will report on this in the next issue.

Over the same weekend as the SB, Nottingham & District held the BO ESK and once the dust had settled following several shoot-offs, James Attwood secured the High Gun title. Congratulations to everyone above for some great shooting!

We also attended The Game Fair in July, back at Blenheim Palace after a ten-year break, and I'm pleased to report that our have-a-go clayline broke all previous records. We also held our Champion of Champions and Colts Challenge events, and you can read all about it in this issue.

WHAT'S GOING ON IN NOTTINGHAMSHIRE

7 JULY

Nottinghamshire's own Joe Turner and Liv Steven represented England, contributing to their team's victory in the DTL competition at Bywell.

The same day saw the Nottinghamshire & Derbyshire English Skeet Championships at NDGC. Despite unpredictable weather, with a mix of warmth, breeze, and rain, Allen Warren emerged as County Champion and Veteran High Gun with a score of 97/100. Tom Clifford secured the runner-up position overall with 96/100, followed closely by Neil Orr, who also scored 96/100. In the Veterans category, Kevin Holliday took second place with 92/100, while Andrew Nichols claimed third with 86/100.

21 JULY

A milestone was reached as Alix Gregory became the inaugural Ladies Champion in the first-ever East Midlands Super Sporting Championships.

On the same day, the NDGC hosted the 100 Straight Club Skeet Val Fraser shoot. With favourable conditions and a warm atmosphere, a perfect score seemed within reach. However, the elusive 100 remained unachieved, despite six competitors scoring 99/100. A shoot-off determined the top spots, with Kian Maher claiming first, Gary Cooke second, and Peter Chester third. Rob Denoon represented Nottinghamshire but stepped down after scoring 24/25 in the shoot-off. The event honoured the late Val Fraser, whose legacy continues to inspire the Skeet community. Special thanks went to Derek Wilson for taking over the 100 Straight Club Shoot, ensuring the event's continuation.

3 & 4 AUGUST

The British Open Skeet weekend was a spectacular success, attracting 176 entries and generating an electrifying atmosphere. Day one saw three competitors achieve perfect scores of 100/100, setting a high bar for those shooting on day two. The event concluded with intense shoot-offs across multiple categories, including Super Veterans, Juniors, Ladies, Colts, AA Class, and the overall top three. Eley was praised for sponsoring the event and supporting various shooting disciplines. Rob Denoon, having shot a perfect score on Saturday, participated in the shoot-off on Sunday and finished as the overall runner-up. James Atwood claimed first place, and Tom Clifford was part of the victorious five-person team. The Nottingham And District Gun Club team was lauded for their flawless execution of the event.

Meanwhile, Allen Warren competed at the World ABT Championships at Fauxdegla International Clay Shooting Centre, securing second place in the Veterans category with a score of 191/200.

Edward Armett also made headlines at the British Open Single Barrel Championships at the North of England. He clinched the English and British Junior titles with a score of 90/100.

ELEY HAWK AMBASSADOR SUCCESS AT THE 2024 PARIS OLYMPICS

In an electrifying display of athleticism and determination, Amber Rutter has captured the hearts of millions, winning an incredible silver medal at the Olympics. She is a beacon of inspiration and perseverance, stepping up to represent team GB just over 3 months after giving birth to her beautiful baby, Tommy. The Eley Hawk Ambassador's journey to the podium has been nothing short of extraordinary, reflecting the true dedication, hard work, and indomitable spirit that define her as an athlete.

From her early days she has exuded charisma, which is why Eley Hawk have sponsored her from the age of 12 and her winning commitment to excellence has been unwavering winning the women's skeet in the ISSF World Championships on her first appearance. The brand created a cartridge specific to her requirements the following year and the pair have been an inseparable partnership ever since. Her silver medal is not merely an accolade but a testament to the countless hours of preparation, the sacrifices made, and the relentless pursuit of perfection.

On behalf of team Eley Hawk, we would like to extend our heartfelt congratulations to Amber on this incredible achievement!

HOME INTERNATIONAL

The 89th ICTSC Home Nations

International Tournament, held at Bywell on 8 July.

Report by David Amos, England DTL Team Manager.

The start of this Golden week of DTL started on a sunny Monday morning, little did we know this would be the best day weather wise for the whole week. All the Home countries attended from Wales, Scotland and the 2 Irish countries across the water Eire and Northern Ireland. The captain this year although hadn't shot for a few years for England, certainly not because of his ability, was Tom Robinson out of Penrith and District Gun Club along with two other members David Whitehead and Daughter Ellie. Tom didn't know at the time but on the last compulsory selection shoot at the North of England club he posted a 100/300 and then to be asked to be captain of the overall squad was beside himself. For the new caps we had three Seniors, two Juniors, one Lady, and one Super Vet and they all posted good score to go towards the overall winning team (Top 30 shooters from each Country) which England won by a comfortable margin which gave them a very nice winners badge, over half the team were in the 290 plus and most of the other were in the high 280 plus.

Christopher Moule has a habit of posting a 100/300 at the right time and that's what he did on the HI day which as you would expect gave him the Prestige Accolade of High Gun of the match accompanied by a haul of trophies for the veteran class for the Match Event and England trophies.

The Ladies team Captained by Joanna Fairclough won the Ladies event with team member Emma Holden-Hardy taken the Ladies Prestige Accolade of High Gun of the Match with a fabulous 100/295 which included new cap Sarah Milroy in the team. The junior team captained by Cory Doble won the Juniors event with the young Edward Armett taking the Junior Prestige Accolade High Gun of the match with new caps Joe Turner and George Madden in the team. Captain of the veterans Edd Furber, back on the England set up, led his team to a very comfortable win to take the Veteran title. The Super – Vets captained by Mr Bywell himself Allen Henry, won their event with another convincing win over their nearest rival with new cap George Turnes. The Senior team, although posting really high score including the new caps Andrew Heywood, Stephen Petch and Jamie Marshman, was just 8 points away from Ireland, but the Captain Tom Robinson did win the Open Captain Cup. So, in all England won all the categories apart from the Seniors, 3 high guns of the match and individual awards. It should also be mentioned that Bywell pulled out all the stops to present the ground in spectacular condition and the referees were on the ball and fair, and Chief Referee David Robinson went out of his way to keep all things updated and clear with rules. The CPSA have a difficult job and knowing what work has been going into these events, they worked long hard days to make it successful so we congratulate them. After the event we went to Newcastle Football Club for the team photographs, the Banquet and Presentation of the awards which went well – it's a nice ending of the day! The last thanks goes to the Captain Tom Robinson (a little over excited at times for the right reasons) for his work and encouragement and gelling the team in good happy fighting spirits. Next year Scotland. ▶

BRITISH OPEN DTL

Held at Bywell Shooting Ground on Tuesday 9 July.
Report by David Amos, England DTL Team Manager.

The British Open DTL is a major open shoot which includes all the teams from the Home Internationals plus all the individual class categories with a third, second and first on the podium for Overall High Gun. The day started with a little wind and a light drizzle and then got worse and worse throughout the day making it very uncomfortable and shooters just got soaked to the skin. Our overseas teams from down under cleared the Bywell shop of wet gear as they were not expecting such severe weather, mind you we weren't either.

An early posting of 100/298 from Northern Ireland Nick McKeown a well-known successful shooter on the circuit followed by England's David Weston on 100/297 (2 halves dropped on the last round). As the day went on and the shooters soaked to their skins returned to the club house telling their stories of how bad they had done although in good spirits.

The main trophy for the seniors is the Governors General Trophy and with all the targets missed, England still won this lovely trophy and classy embroidered badge by 5 points. The junior team managed to pip the Scottish team by a point to take the winners team event along with the Super-veterans and Veterans' team. The Ladies were Runner-up to the Northern Ireland girls who shot well. So, in all the team events were dominated by the England teams with 4 wins and one runner up. We had over 450 shooters with only 8x100 the whole day, which shows how bad the scores were with the bad weather. We all thought it was Nick McKeown taking first place, but unbelievably the young Conner Harris posted a 300 which nobody thought possible. Conner has been an England Junior International in the past and is not new to winning major events.

So, Nick McKeown was Runner-up with England's David Weston Third. It should also be noted that Nick Haley shot a impressive 296 in all the bad weather to finish joint fourth. It was one of those days that everybody after the presentation were gone – we were all soaked and cold but all looked forward to the Europeans next day!

EUROPEAN DTL

100-target competition held at Bywell SG on 10 July. Report by David Amos, England DTL Team Manager.

The European DTL is normally 200 targets but with the build-up of competitions it was cut down to a 100-target competition to fit into this busy week. The Captain for the European squad was Nigel Chapman, definitely a great ambassador for the DTL discipline. We had eight countries competing including our friends from down under and France sent a full complement of shooters. The teams consisted of five members for the seniors and three members from all the other categories with all scores to count.

The first major score came in from the England Junior Cory Doble with a fabulous 100/299 only to be followed by England's ladies squad member Emma Holden-Hardy with another 100/299 with two more 100/299 one from the now British Champion Connor Harris and the young 16-year-old Australian Jack Brandt. So, the wait began to see if a 100/300 was going to be posted.

With Cory 100/299 and Toby Hurstfield 295 and Edward Armed 292 the juniors sealed their spot of team gold. The senior team also won Gold with team member's Dan Price on 100/297, and Robert Dietz 100/296 plus the other members all in the 290 plus. The Ladies just missed out on the silver and had to settle for Bronze. The super-vets also won Gold ahead of the French team.

There were no 300's, so the 4 shooters on 299 started their shoot-off. After the first round, the Title went to the Australian 16-year-old, Jack Brandt shooting out of Tambo Queen club in Queensland. Jack (he is now on the shooting pathway for Olympic trap in Australia) also won the Junior title with Cory Doble Runner-up and runner up in the Juniors. The next round went single barrel which was won by Conner Harris for bronze so Emma Holden-Hardy finished with the Ladies title and first in AA.

So, in all, the teams won three gold and one bronze, the ladies individual title, team member Cory Doble runner up in the main placing and runner up in the junior title, George Madden won B class, Gary Sayles an active shooter on the DTL circuit the Super-veterans title and colt George Dille on the podium. As ever Bywell ran this competition to perfection with over 450 shooters and from the England point of view it was very successful and the teams went about their business in a very professional way and thanks to the Captain Nigel Chapman on his help, input and encouragement to others. 🍀

THE REAL STOCK PROTM

2024 WORLD DTL

James Marchington reports back on the event held at Bywell Shooting Ground.

James Sullivan, a 17-year-old from New Zealand, came seemingly out of nowhere to beat the best Down-The-Line shooters in the world and take the ultimate prize, the ICTSF DTL World Championship, at Bywell in mid-July.

The World Championship was the culmination of a week-long extravaganza, following on from the DTL Home Nations International, British Open and European Championships. For the competitors, nearly 500 of them, it meant shooting another 250 targets over three days, 300 if they qualified for the final.

The ground at Bywell is always impressive, with 16 smart, tidy layouts stretching away from the clubhouse as far as the eye can see. Now, all dressed up for the World Championship, it was quite the spectacle, with a huge marquee, national flags, sponsors' banners and gazebos adding a riot of colour.

The Championship week was well supported by sponsors Browning, Gamebore, Eley Cartridges, Swatcom, Perazzi, Hull, Beretta, Blaser, Laporte and Krieghoff. A trade village was set up in the barn adjacent to the clubhouse, which together with the marquee provided plenty of space for shooters to relax and mingle when not actually shooting, as well as giving cover from the intermittent rain which was a feature of the week.

It all contributed to a warm and lively atmosphere, and it was great to see DTL enthusiasts from around the world getting together in a spirit of friendly competition – this was a truly world event, with teams from France, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, as well as the Home Nations and Ireland. Additionally, shooters from several other countries had come to compete as individuals, despite not having a national team. Indeed, during the competition the ICTSF admitted three new countries: Malta, Gibraltar and Latvia, bringing their total membership to 17.

“The weather throughout the week was less than ideal, but that is the one thing no-one can control.”

The World Championships have been run by the ICTSF since its formation in 2008. The 2024 event was the 15th; the Championships had been running several years before the ICTSF came into being. CPSA Chairman Dr John Martin, who is currently serving as ICTSF President, explains that with DTL being popular all around the world, the World Championships are normally held every other year, and usually alternate between the Northern and Southern Hemisphere, although the worldwide covid pandemic disrupted the schedule. The last World Championship was held in South Africa in 2023, and following this year's event the next will be in Christchurch, New Zealand in March 2026.

The weather throughout the week was less than ideal, but that is the one thing no-one can control. Everything else was run with characteristic efficiency by the Bywell and CPSA teams, supported by a veritable army of ground staff, referees and the rest. With the organising team well settled into their routine after the preceding competitions, the squadding and organisation ran like the proverbial clockwork, and the targets were everything shooters could ask for, flying flawlessly out into the glorious Northumberland countryside stretching out beyond the traphouses.

In theory DTL is shot the same all around the world, but one Australian shooter explained to me that due to differences in their traphouse construction and traps, our UK targets can present more of a challenge than they are used to at home. In Australia, he explained, the traphouse roof is lower, the traps are set lower into the ground, and the clays are generally spinning at a slower rate as they leave the trap. As a result, their clays are visible earlier in their flight, and break more readily when hit. This wasn't given to me as an excuse, more an explanation as to why the Australian shooters needed a chance to familiarise themselves with a different timing for the shot.

Following a welcome ceremony for the international teams on the Wednesday evening, the World Championship began on Thursday 11th July, with each competitor shooting 100 targets, in weather that was largely overcast and dry, with light wind. That was quite a contrast from earlier in the week, when much of the previous competitions had been shot in heavy rain and wind.

Top scorer on this first day was the recently crowned British Open Champion, Connor Harris, on 298 ex-300, calculated on the DTL scoring system of three points for a first-barrel hit and two for the second barrel. Tying with him at the top of the leader board were Phillip Morgan and Robert Dietz. Top lady shooter of the day was Kirsty Hegarty, just one point behind the leaders with a score of 297 ex-300. James Sullivan was already showing his form, leading Juniors with a score of 296 ex-300, ahead of Cory Doble with 293.

Day 2 dawned, and the competitors faced another 100 targets, once again in weather that was rather kinder than earlier in the week. Indeed the sun broke through the clouds intermittently. Shooters found the wind and changing light something of a challenge, but conditions could certainly have been a lot worse. Again the organisation was evident as the squads flowed through the system seamlessly, and shooters were full of praise for the Bywell ground team.

Connor Harris continued his excellent performance, leading the field at the end of Day 2 with a total so far of 200/595 – 200 out of 200 targets hit, and a score of 595 out of a possible 600. Daniel Price was close behind with 199/593, having let just one target slip away entirely. Snapping at their heels was New Zealand Junior James Sullivan on 199/592. The margins were tiny, but that is how it goes in DTL, where a single point dropped over 100 targets can make all the difference.

At this point in the competition the team positions were decided, scored over the first ► two days' 200 targets, although the teams would have to wait until after the next day's final for the prizegiving. Top spot in the open category was won by Northern Ireland, with the host nation England in second place. Northern Ireland Ladies won their category, while Australia won Juniors, Wales Veterans, and England the Super Veterans.

Day 3 brought the finals, with all competitors shooting 50 targets in the morning to complete their total of 250. Then the top 50 shooters, along with the top five in classes and categories if not already in the top 50, were called up to shoot another 50 targets to decide the final placings. The weather had reverted to type, with steady rain and a brisk wind, but that didn't prevent a sizeable crowd from gathering to watch the top shots battle for the title.

It was always going to be close. Connor Harris still hadn't let a clay elude him, with 250 targets hit for a score of 741 out of a possible 750. Daniel Price was one ahead on points, with 249/742, while young James Sullivan was closing the gap with 249/739. The tension in the air was palpable as they completed their two lines of 25 – and it didn't end there.

At the end of 300 targets, Connor had slipped behind by a single point, while James had crept up to tie in first place with Daniel on a phenomenal 889 ex-900. After that marathon effort by them both, it would require a further shoot-off to decide the world title. The rain kept falling but competitors and spectators alike barely noticed as James and Daniel stepped up for the big head-to-head decider. It could so easily have gone either way, but James kept his cool remarkably well for such a young shooter, scoring a perfect 75 in the shoot-off round, while Daniel dropped three points to fall into runner-up position.

"Yes it's pretty amazing," James commented, as he stood clutching the trophy with rain running down his face. I'm really happy, even though it's raining and windy it didn't affect me much." He was looking forward to shooting some Olympic Trap once he returned home, although as a committed DTL shooter he promised to defend his title in his home country of New Zealand in two years' time.

Then, with a splendid parade of international teams and full prizegiving ceremony in the barn, it was all over. The teams set off for what was for many a long journey home, hopefully with happy memories of friendships renewed and made, good shooting and great hospitality, and the less said about the weather the better!

ENGLISH OPEN AUTOMATIC BALL TRAP

The Hertfordshire hotbed of competitive shooting hosted another excellent championship, as Anita North reports.

Nuthampstead Shooting Ground hosted another championship in July and this time it was the English Open ABT, which was also the fourth and final selection shoot for the England team for this year's Home International.

With 117 entrants from across the country there were 20 squads shooting. A weekend of sunshine and gusty breezes made for enjoyable competition for everyone.

Day one saw a great start with lots of straights on the board. At the end of the day, two shooters were top of the leaderboard with superb 99s – Mark Robinson and Matt Panter. A group of five were two targets behind on 97: Adam Gutteridge, Andy Greenwood, David Kirk, John Lucy and Rob Bright. Cory Doble and Marcus Iddon were on 96 with Chris Tate, Dave Sipling, Richard Chapple and Will Gilbert on 95. Leanne Palmer led the ladies on 88 with Sue Bate on 87.

MOVING INTO THE SECOND DAY

On day two there were more good shooting conditions, and the competition continued in earnest. But David Kirk was on imperious form and a 24 followed by 75 straight gave him 196 to take the title, just one target ahead of Matt Panter's 195 and two targets ahead of Andy Greenwood who put in a second 97 to finish on 194. David was absolutely delighted to have his fifth win at this competition and to retain the title from last year.

In the Ladies event Leanne Palmer maintained her form and put in a great 94 to finish winner on 182 while Kath Bright shot 96 to finish on 179 for second place. Sue Bate's consistent 87 each day gave her third place. Leanne said: "I am over the moon to win my first major CPSA championship." She commended Kath on shooting a 50 straight to finish the competition and was pleased to keep her nerve in the light of such stiff competition.

HIGH STANDARDS ACROSS THE BOARD

In Juniors Cory Doble finished on an impressive 190 which gave him a clear win from Oliver Sampson and Will Gilbert was third. Oliver Clayton took the Colts title on 153. Dave Sipling won the Veterans with 191, ahead of Chris Tate in second place and Duane McCulloch in third place. In Super Veterans Richard Chapple that took the win ahead of Ray Sutton and Ted Phillipson. Peter Parker took the win in Disabled Standing with Michael Cooper second and Meghan Ryan third.

Congratulations to everyone and all the best to those who earned places in the England team for this year's Home International. 🏆

The Game Fair returned to Blenheim Palace in Oxfordshire after a 10-year break and it was very exciting to be at the home of the 12th Duke of Marlborough, Charles James Spencer-Churchill and the birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill! For those of you who haven't been to The Game Fair before, this is undoubtedly the largest fair of its type for countryside activities and well worth a visit when it returns to Ragley Hall in Warwickshire in 2025.

Our CPSA stand was located in Gunmakers Row and our staff, including Chairman John Martin and CEO Iain Parker were on hand to discuss the important topics currently affecting our sport, plus the opportunity for new members to join the CPSA and existing members to renew their memberships (and grab a free cup of tea!).

Over on the Clayline, we had our CPSA Have-a-go area with the two Sally's on check-in, and our team of qualified Instructors and Coaches providing a safe, secure and rewarding have-a-go experience for over 1,150 visitors to the show. This was a remarkable achievement over just three days, and I'd like to thank them all for a mammoth effort over the weekend!

On the Saturday of the show, we ran our Champion of Champions event, whereby our County Committee's are invited to nominate a Champion to shoot on their behalf and challenge for the Champion of Champions title, with free entry to the Fair and into the 50 ESP competition.

28 competitors took part in the 50 ESP qualifying round with Marc Ivey from Warwickshire top scoring with 49ex50, followed by Craig Boddice from Leicestershire & Rutland on 47ex50, Billy Greenwood from Surrey and Teddy Taylor from Devon both on 46ex50 and then we had a 3 way tie between Bob Blundell from Oxfordshire, Richard Hughes from Shropshire and Ian Mullarkey from Northumberland all on 44ex50 for the final place in the 5 man super-final in the Shooting Arena. The subsequent shoot-off saw Bob and Ian be eliminated and Richard progress through to the Final.

“ 28 competitors took part in the 50 ESP qualifying round with Marc Ivey from Warwickshire top scoring with 49ex50. ”

All five then tackled a challenging round of 25 Sportrap targets with Richard Hughes emerging as the clear winner on 21ex25 and Marc Ivey as Runner Up on 16ex25. However, all was not quite done yet, with a further shoot-off required between Billy Greenwood and Craig Boddice for the third spot which Craig secured by one target. Congratulations all on some excellent shooting!

On Sunday, we ran the Colts Challenge with the top 20 ranked Colts as of the 1st March 2024 invited to attend and compete for the Colts title. They took on the same 50 ESP course as the Champions did on the Saturday, with Benjamin Jordan top scoring on 46ex50, Aaron Christie on 44ex50, John Porter on 42ex50 and Cameron Bryan and Connor Davies both tied on 39ex50 to take the five places available in the Super Final. Some excellent shooting followed under the pressure of a good sized crowd of spectators and after the dust had settled, Benjamin and John both scored 21ex25 to tie for High Gun and Runner-up with Aaron Christie in third place with 18ex25. A shoot-off was then required to determine 1st & 2nd and both Benjamin and Jordan scored a impressive 9ex10 to force a sudden-death shoot-off with Benjamin emerging as the winner and securing the Colts High Gun title!

Our thanks go to Eley Cartridges and Sunglasses for Sport for sponsoring both competitions, Rizzini shotguns who provide our clayline guns and our fantastic Instructors and Coaches who give their all to ensure the future of our sport! 🍀

BRITISH OPEN ENGLISH SKEET

Some big names were involved in the multiple shoot-offs at the British Open Skeet, as Matt Kidd reports.

Over the weekend of the 3rd and 4th of August, Nottingham & District Gun Club hosted the British Open Skeet Championship, which was well attended by 179 shooters.

On the first day, under bright blue skies, some remarkable scores were set with three entrants shooting a perfect score of 100 ex 100, including James Attwood, Rob Denoon and Lee Downing. While these were not matched on the Sunday, a number of 99 ex 100 scores were set by Becky King, Richard Faulds, Blair Fletcher, Andrew Harvey and more. Most notable of the other 99s was the performance of young Connor Davies competing in the Colt's and C Class categories.

With little wind during the event, many placings were tied and as such, five hotly contested shoot-offs were held to decide final placings at 5pm on the Sunday, under gloomy, storm threatening skies.

The first was to decide Ladies 3rd place, won by Samantha Rhodes beating Megan Jones. A shoot-off for Junior High Gun followed, claimed by Charlie Faulds (97 + 24) versus Kian Miller (97 + 23); then Super Veteran 2nd Place, Doug Moore (96 + 25) beating Bob Tucker (96 + 24), Peter Stanton-Hope and John Ross.

Incredibly gripping for spectators – of which there were many – was the penultimate shoot off to decide AA Class High Gun, which included Becky King, Richard Faulds, Martin Walmsley and Tom Clifford, who were all tied on 99 ex 100. With Becky, Richard and Martin not dropping a clay after a full round of 25 on layout 4, a sudden death shoot-off followed taking it in turn to shoot two doubles on station 4 on the same layout. Becky missed one clay in her first round to take AA Class 3rd place, but Martin and Richard went on for eight rounds in total, both missing a clay in the middle stages, but eventually Richard came out on top with 100 + 25 + 31.

The final shoot off then took place between James Attwood, Rob Denoon and Lee Downing, with James and Rob also heading into sudden death. This lasted one round with Rob missing two clays and James calmly hitting all four, ending on 100 + 25 + 4.

The proceedings were not finished yet, though, as a customary cap shooting followed to celebrate Lee Downing's first 100 score. The prizegiving was held by Carl Smith, owner of Nottingham & District Gun Club, who thanked the team for their hard work in ensuring the event ran smoothly, and Eley Hawk for their sponsorship of the event.

ISSF JUNIOR WORLD CUP

The Junior World Cup (JWC) was hosted at Porpetto Shooting Range, Italy, with approximately 230 competitors from 37 countries.

Trap Women Junior:

Maddie Purser, Hollie Lumsden, Molly Hall (NC), Tegan Hart

Trap Men Junior:

Tom Betts, Will Canter (NC), Matthew Paley, Harry Poolman (NC)

Skeet Women Junior:

Maddie Russell, Sophie Herrmann, Phoebe Bodley-Scott, Jessica Hambrook, Bethany Norton

Skeet Men Junior:

Owen Lewis, Denzil Grose, Ben Cookson, Mack Kempton, Oliver Simons (NC).

NOTE: NEW CAP (NC)

“I was super pleased with that result, it is amazing to bring back gold.”

GOLD FOR MADDIE

Once again, Maddie Russell provided a big result in Skeet by taking the top spot on the podium in Porpetto; backing up her impressive performance at the European Championships.

Maddie finished the qualifying rounds on 115ex125 with five other competitors for the last three finals placings. Following quite a tussle with Kseniia Shuliak (AIN) in the shoot-off for the finals ranking placings, she went through ranked sixth from +1+2+4+6. Sixth is the toughest spot from which to take a medal, but Maddie had already learned from the Europeans that she could win silver from fifth and so the battle commenced.

What a demonstration of sheer focus, grit and determination: from the first stand Maddie stamped her authority, never out of the top two by the 20ex60 target mark, and by the 34 target mark she led the field to the end; finishing a massive eight targets ahead of her nearest rival, Arianna Nember (ITA).

Interviewed on the range post event, Maddie commented: “...winning gold today is quite a big deal!”

Speaking to Maddie later: “I was super pleased with that result, it is amazing to bring back gold.”

“I felt it really gets your adrenalin going in that close a shoot off, as there is so little between being in or out.”

Were you aware of the extent of your lead later in the final? “I was very much focussing on me, but had the feeling I was creeping ahead, but definitely did not realise I was winning by eight targets. Having some experience in finals now, I feel I have more control of the situation.”

Maddie expressed her gratitude to everyone that has supported her: Sponsors, Shooting Star/RC cartridges, personal coach Steve Scott, Nuthampstead Shooting Ground, British Shooting/UK Sport and definitely her parents.

Phoebe Bodley-Scott was just one target off the finals qualifying score.

Mack Kempton shot a 116ex125 in the Skeet, a 16 target improvement on his only other outing (last year), with Ben Cookson also improving on his 2023 outing.

TRAP MEN

Trap New Cap, Will Canter, put in a solid performance of 112 on his first out on the ISSF stage with Trap New Caps Molly Hall and Harry Poolman and Skeet New Cap Oliver Simons making an encouraging start to the international scene. ▶

CHRISTIAN SCHOFIELD

GOLD AND SILVER FOR GBR

It is 24 years since we have had such a successful Olympics: 2000 Sydney Olympics, Richard Faulds won gold in the Double Trap and Ian Peel won silver in Trap.

The shooting was hosted at Chateauroux Shooting Centre (approximately 200 miles from Paris) with an approximate total of 342 athletes from 82 countries.

Trap Women: Lucy Hall

Trap Men: Nathan Hales, Matt Coward-Holley

Skeet Women: Amber Rutter

Factoids from the entry list:

The youngest shotgun competitor: Mohammad

Beyranvand, Islamic Republic of Iran (IRI), born 25

August 2008.

The oldest shotgun competitor: Leonel Martinez,

Venezuela (VEN), born 18 September 1963.

The youngest rifle/pistol competitor: Diego Parra

Vergara, Chili (CHI), born 29 March 2008.

The oldest rifle/pistol competitor: Yusuf Dikec,

Turkey (TUR), born 1 January 1973.

GOLD FOR NATHAN

The last GBR Olympic Trap gold medal was won by Bob Braithwaite in Mexico, 1968!

In the Trap Men, at his first Olympics, Nathan Hales finished day one on 73x75, equal second with seven others, but a 50-straight on day two put him at the top on 123x125 with three others.

After a four-way shoot-off for the top ranking places, Nathan finished ranked two, with Qi Ying (CHN) ranked one.

Nathan looked absolutely focused and in control throughout the final, taking the lead by the end of the first line and never dropped down. Qi stayed within one target up until the 35 mark and by the last target Nathan had a four target lead on 48x50, winning gold and beating the previous Olympic Record (OR) by five targets – a huge result.

Nathan's OR is only one target off the World Record of 49, which he set last year in Lonato when Qi finished second on 48!

This was such a proud moment for Nathan as he watched the British flag being raised to the National Anthem. When interviewed on the range, just after the event, he was asked: "Nathan Hales, Olympic gold medallist, how does that sound?"

Nathan replied:

"It's absolutely amazing, can't quite believe it."

Question: "Your sport, more than most, is about staying calm when the adrenalin is coursing through your body, how do you manage to keep this composure?"

Answer: "It was quite difficult all the way through, especially when we knew who was in the medals, but I tried to stay grounded the whole way through and stuck to my routine, using breathing techniques which we do with our psychologist ... it is absolutely a dream come true, it's something I set out ten years ago to achieve ... I worked with Peter Wilson (London 2012 Gold medallist) which was a great help ... I came through the Pathway, it is an amazing opportunity for youngsters to get involved, and have the opportunity to work from the bottom to the top ... it wouldn't be possible without British Shooting, UK Sport and the National Lottery."

Sarah Daly's interview with Nathan on winning gold: "It's one of the best feelings I have ever had, apart from when Hattie was born of course!

"The psychologist, Oli Dixon, and I walked the ground and ranges before every round, and I think that was when I felt most nervous and excited, mixed in with some adrenaline. The moment I stepped onto each line with the gun everything felt more settled, I just stuck to my routine and process.

"I was aware of where everyone was during the finals because they were announced, but I just stuck to focussing on myself throughout the final, which is what we have been working on.

"I knew, with three to go, I had it, followed by a short wave of emotion" – which was not visible to the spectators – "then gathered my thoughts and carried on shooting. I didn't know what the Olympic Record was, so did not know I had broken it until I was told!

"When the last shot was fired I was completely overwhelmed, mixed with huge relief, as so much work had been put in over the years, it did not seem real. I still haven't had much time for it to really sink in."

Charlotte, Nathan's partner, admitted she struggled to contain herself throughout the finals, saying: "During the competition I felt more nervous than when I was competing, and I know how hard Nathan has worked, he was just amazing and I am so proud of him, I just gave him a big hug and kiss when he finished.

"Everyone puts in so much hard work and sacrifice, and sometimes it's hard when he is away, but the gold medal makes everything worthwhile."

Nathan: "Thank you so much to everyone who has been part of the journey: coach Marco Micheli, Ed and Nicky Barker at Nuthampstead SG, Beretta and GMK, Promatic, Clever Mirage Cartridges, SWATCOM, De.La.Ro Glasses, Charlotte, Mum (Stella) and Dad (Colin), Peter Wilson mentor/coach, Ugo Sabatti (Stocker), Chris Potter & Dionne Rogers at Chris Potter Country Sports, Kevin Gill and Martin Barker, British Shooting/UK Sport/ Lottery Funding.

From a very proud coach, Marco Micheli: "I was feeling a lot of emotion during qualification, I knew he needed to straight 50 on the second day to secure a place in the final avoiding the danger zone of a sudden-death shoot-off.

"We have been putting a lot of work into the final's process. Nathan was on 45-47 in training, so he excelled with a 48! I realised he was really going for it after the elimination for bronze, when he was guaranteed a medal, he stayed totally focused, it showed in his face, right to the last shot.

"There is not much more you can win in this sport – something to remember when we are old! "Lucy and Matt did their best, Matt qualified at the last minute so unlike Tokyo, when he had two years of time, he only had a month to prepare for this event. Lucy shot a great Olympics, just an unfortunate second round but finished in the top half of the field. She is still a Junior, so it was a good start for her Olympic career."

Nathan's proud parents, Colin and Stella: "Both of us are absolutely over the moon – we were so glad we went to see Nathan take gold and the Olympic Record, it was phenomenal.

"All credit to British Shooting, and particularly to Marco, who has a passion for the sport and the athletes; I saw that in training two weeks pre the Olympics, something had changed in Nathan, and I said to Stella, 'I think he is going to win' – so good to be proved right!"

Nathan's journey: he first shot for GBR in 2010 as a Helice ZZ Junior, he then went on to shoot Trap, in 2014 winning his first medal, bronze in the World Championship Trap Junior Men with many successes between then and 2024 Olympic Gold.

Unfortunately Matt Coward-Holley had a disappointing second round leaving too much of a margin to make-up.

Since 1900, GBR Olympic Trap have won:

Gold: 1968 Mexico, Bob Braithwaite. Silver: 2000 Sydney, Ian Peel. Bronze: 2016 Rio de Janeiro, Ed Ling. 2020 Tokyo, Matt Coward-Holley. ▶

SILVER FOR AMBER

Huge congratulations to Amber Rutter, who won the first GBR Olympic medal in Skeet (either men or women).

Amber ended day one on 74x75 with Nele Wissmer (GER), on 73: Austen Smith (USA), Gabriela Rodriguez (MEX), on 72: Emmanouela Katzouraki (GRE), Danka Bartekova and Francisca Crovetto (CHI).

At the end of the qualifying rounds, Amber was still joint leader, this time with Austen Jewell (USA) who won the ranking shoot-off, with Amber ranked two.

Amber looked on form in the finals. Francisca Crovetto (CHI), ranked five, had worked her way up to one, with Amber staying in the top two until the 40 target mark when she briefly dropped to three, but then rallied superbly to match Francisca by the 54 target mark, matching each other to the 60 target mark, creating a shoot-off.

Again, the shoot-off was closely matched and difficult to call until the fourth pair when Francisca hit the pair, but Amber was given a miss, although hotly disputed by Amber and with many of the spectators calling 'hit', the decision stood, and Amber won Silver.

Silver is an impressive performance, given such a short training period leading up to the event after having a baby!

I spoke to Richard Brickell, Skeet Coach: "For me, it was a privilege to be part of it, the Olympics are so special and what Amber has done for shooting.

"Amber stopped training in January and started back in the second week of June, so we did it our own way and it seemed to work as she shot brilliantly throughout the event.

"The dispute of the missed/hit target was brutal, leaving Amber very angry and upset, but James (her husband) and baby Tommy arrived as she came off the range which totally changed things for Amber.

"Amber has led and handled the whole situation extremely well, and I am very proud of her."

Amber's quote from the British Shooting website: "To come away with a silver medal is something I'm so proud of," said Amber following the final.

"I wish I could say it was easy, but it was really hard. Battling with the nerves for two days through qualification was a real marathon, to get to the end with a medal was a feeling like no other.

"To then turn around and see my son and husband was something I'll never forget.

"They totally surprised me! I told them to stay at home because I knew if I heard my son cry I'd be completely distracted. I hope my husband didn't bring him too close to the range because he was really playing with fire. But I am so pleased they did surprise me, to be able to celebrate with them is incredible and I can't wait to get back and celebrate with everyone at home.

"Thank you to everyone who has helped me get to where I am today, from British Shooting to the National Lottery players, UK Sport, my coach Richard Brickell, psychologist Paul Hughes and all of my friends and family who have been with me since the very beginning of this journey."

There has been a great deal of discussion and opinions voiced as to what various judges/referees/coaches should have said and/or done.

However, the bottom line is, the referee is the only official with the final decision as to a hit/missed target, and only the shooter is allowed to protest, the coaches or officials have no recourse, as per ISSF rule 9.17 Protests and Appeal.

Amber's journey began with her first appearance at a selection shoot at Southern Counties in about 2011, achieving her first team place in the Junior Skeet Women at the European Championships in 2012, winning her first gold medal at the Acapulco World Cup in 2013, and so the journey continues.

ELEY

THE PERFECT CHOICE

POWERED BY ELEY

A POSITIVE ATTITUDE

The winner of this year's English Open Super Sporting and Sportrap disabled sitting category at Barbury Shooting School, Dan Parker tells Alex Sayer about adapting after a life-changing injury, and why winning competitions is forming part of his CV.

There's no future with my legs working," says Dan Parker, a wheelchair user of six years and lifelong shooter. Born in the mid 90s and growing up on a shoot, Dan started off pigeon shooting and his passion for the sport has grown and grown. However, it is only since his motocross accident in 2019 that he has started shooting competitions. "I always used to shoot in the low 90s, but never competed." But the existence of the disabled sitting class has encouraged him to shoot competitions.

Being in a wheelchair means Dan is approaching the targets from a very different angle and this requires a different skillset. To further compound this, the extent of the injury means that Dan's window of shooting opportunity is much smaller, purely because he doesn't have the flexibility that others do. In addition he needs to shoot further back because of the side bars and that adds even more of a challenge, especially because the cages differ so greatly among the shooting grounds. "Sometimes the bar is at my shoulders, and I can't pick the target up until it's dropping," which as many of us know is often the hardest point.

Many people have helped Dan out during his competitions, especially at the Essex Masters which was wet and a 'slurry run' for the wheelchair. "A man whose daughter was also in a wheelchair took us both round that day and Matt King and Ben Fordham help me out a lot in the competitions." He goes on to say that he does feel guilty because Matt and Ben are also trying to shoot the competition themselves. "I'm probably interrupting their concentration, but everyone is so happy to help," although he does admit that his Mum worries about him at times.

Dan's father was a keeper but has now packed up and Dan has his own small shoot that hosts around three days a year with 70 to 80 birds. Whilst his father does help him out, Dan explains that heads can clash because people have different ideas on how to shoot and how to run a shoot. As for game shooting Dan 'back guns' on a shoot and pays for a couple of clear-up days.

Clay shooting is really where his focus lies, and Dan thinks more and more people will start to see the appeal of Super Sporting as he has since he tried it at the EJ Churchill challenge back in 2022. He explains that whilst your standard Sporting is: "An A bird and a B bird for four pairs, Super Sporting allows for different targets due to full use of the gun." Dan suspects this allows the course setter to put on more experimental targets without shooters and competitors getting disheartened.

COMPETITION SUCCESS

It makes sense that Sportrap is better suited to wheelchair users because there are only four layouts, whereas Super Sporting can be as many as 12. This year Dan won both the Super Sporting and the Sportrap English Open disabled sitting categories at Barbury Shooting Ground, with 81 on the Super Sporting, but admits he shot less well on the Sportrap.

Based in south Lincolnshire, Dan has an upcoming lesson on Sportrap with John Lee from East of England shooting ground. In the case of Sportrap, there are four other people on the layout, and he says this can have an impact on his concentration, but agrees it is also a big part of the fun.

Locally to him is the Disabled Shooting Group (Norfolk branch) and Dan has won their 100 Sporting trophy for the past two years which he says was lucky because he hadn't had it engraved last year. The Disabled Shooting Group also holds an all-round competition every year which is well attended.

Dan's dream is to become a shooting coach so that he can bring more wheelchair users to the sport and the sport to more disabled people. Speaking of his passion he believes: "It's easier for a wheelchair user to understand balance," and recognises that by winning competitions he can lead by example. He is committed to growing the sport by bringing new people into it. He loves everything about shooting and explains that when he's on the foreshore and sees the wigeon whistling by, miles out of range, it's not about the shooting, it's about getting out and appreciating nature and life.

Shortly after the accident - which Dan considers fortunate in that he broke his back and not his neck - he looked around the hospital ward and thought: "I really am one of the lucky ones, I've still got hands." 🍷

CPSA SPONSORS LE CHAMEAU

HAPPY FEET

Good footwork and comfortable feet are essential when shooting, and Le Chameau provides the perfect kit for you.

A good Wellington boot is just as important as any piece of equipment when it comes to clay competitions. You wouldn't choose your gun, eyewear, hearing protection, shooting vests, coats, base layers or cartridges without seeking out advice from a plethora of reliable sources. And your boots should be no different.

Gone are the days of deciding what you're putting on your feet depending on what is closest to the front door on the day of competing, because the British weather can never be depended on to do what it says it's going to.

LISTENING TO THE CUSTOMER

Le Chameau sponsors the CPSA for good reason. Their boots are synonymous with country living, being outside, and, of course, shooting. Le Chameau handcrafted footwear is steeped in heritage and has been going since 1927 when they were first crafted by Claude Chamot in a seaside village in Normandy. He listened to his local farmers, hunters and fishermen who needed a boot to withstand their long, laborious days. It was then, using natural rubber with high elasticity and strength, that he created a new generation of boots. They're designed to withstand all the countryside's demands, forest and sea. They're built to last. Nowadays, apprentice bootmakers learn the historic craft from master bootmakers, before they gain that title themselves. They ensure there is always a little bit of history in every boot and those designed for shooting are no different.

CHASSEUR LEATHER-LINED BOOT - £420

Arguably the most iconic of the brand, there is no denying the Chasseur is the superior boot choice for clay shooters. What makes them so special? To name a few reasons: the leather lining and insole for outstanding fit, insulation, and comfort, with a full-length specialist waterproof zip for ease when putting them on and taking them off, and a snap button for fastening.

Not only this, but there are also eight calf fitting options, so your boots will feel like they're made just for you.

There is a fibre reinforcement to the front of the boot, and you can take the sole on all terrains - which is reinforced for maximum arch support.

They're the perfect all-round boot for clay shooters, come rain or shine.

VIERZONORD NEOPRENE-LINED BOOT - £220

These are their bestsellers.

This boot was the first ever with an adjustable, waterproof gusset, and they make the perfect everyday pair. With a 3mm neoprene lining that insulates your calves and feet all day long, they're perfect for those biting winter days on the clays. The strap makes sure they fit perfectly to you, whilst the outside has a shock absorbing and all-terrain sole.

COUNTRY CROSS NEOPRENE BOOT - £180

This entry-level option is manufactured using the same Chamolux rubber but is a simpler design style than the Chasseur & Vierzonnord. The calf is a wider fit and the outer has a dual density sole. The neoprene lining ensures that feet are warm down to temperatures as low as -15 degrees Celsius.

CARING FOR YOUR BOOTS

Unlike our best shoes or trainers, many of us are often guilty of neglecting our Wellington boots when caked in mud, wet and dusty, often leaving them in the boot of the car or at the back door after a day's shooting or dog walk. But with a little bit of maintenance and good practice we can extend the lifespan of these products and keep them looking fit for purpose.

Whether you have been on a particularly wet day or have perspired in your boots, it is advised to remove dampness inside before wearing again, either by naturally air drying or by inserting crumpled newspaper into the boots to withdraw any moisture. For storage, ensure they are in a well-ventilated area, away from direct sunlight and a considerable heat source. While water and a brush is ample for 99 per cent of the cleaning required, a special care sponge or natural rubber spray can be used for added care or if you plan to store them for a long time. 🍃

THE REFERENT EYE

Robert Clarkson BSc Hons Optometry, explores eye dominance in shotgun shooting.

To make a pointing judgement with a shotgun requires at least two reference points. The principal ones being the target and the other being one of our eyes. To some degree, the shooter has to incorporate the rib, bead, or other sighting device for example fibre optics foresight, shot paraboloid, aimpoint etc into the picture whilst still maintaining central visual fixation on the moving target.

Shotgun shooting places a very special demand on eye/hand coordination, as for optimum performance the leading hand and eye have to match. Some forms of archery have a similar requirement. Visual input combined with gun hold point, gun mount, stance, chosen target specific technique (swing through, swing the shooter's referent eye in precisely the correct place every time. In effect, attaching the rear sight to the gun.

WHAT IS EYE DOMINANCE?

The efficiency of a component that makes up a pair of bilateral organs could be either equal, better, or worse than its other component. This could lead to a preference for using the more efficient component. This becomes the dominant component.

Ocular or eye dominance refers to the use of one eye more than the fellow eye to accomplish a task.

The consensus amongst vision scientists and researchers is that there are different types of eye dominance and these different dominances can coexist in the same individual depending on the method of testing and the task.

MOTOR OR SIGHTING DOMINANCE

Motor because it involves moving the arms and fingers or holding a card. This provides additional sensory input and contributes to lateral location when performing a specific task.

Motor dominance is evaluated by finger pointing, ring method, gun pointing which also provides gun fit information. Most realistically assessed on range by observing shots at straight going away and incoming targets.

ACUITY EYE DOMINANCE

Refers to the predominant use of the eye with the sharper image. If one eye has much clearer distance focus it will tend to be used as the rear reference point or referent eye.

HOW TO IDENTIFY ACUITY DOMINANCE

Are spectacles or contact lenses worn for specific tasks? Be aware that some people are very self-conscious about wearing specs and may be reluctant to wear them in public or that one eye may have a larger focusing error than the other.

WHEN WAS THE LAST OPTOMETRIC SIGHT TEST CARRIED OUT AND WHAT WAS THE OUTCOME?

Take in optical history but be aware of confidentiality issues. Was there childhood treatment for strabismus (squint) or patching for amblyopia (lazy eye). Any history of treatments or operations for eye conditions or injuries which may have left an eye with reduced vision. Consider checking the distance vision of each eye in turn with the car number plate test which is easily done in the carpark.

The car number plate test is still used by the DVLA, the police, and a driving test examiner. A driver is required to read a number plate at 20m (about five car lengths) with both eyes open. This is equivalent to 6/12 snellen acuity (only 50% of accepted good vision) As an instructor you can use this test on one eye at a time and look for any difference between the clarity of each eye. A number plate at 40m equates to 6/6 (100% or 20/20) and to read it at 80m equates to 6/3 or 200%. If each eye views the number plate individually through a pinhole this can indicate if any blurring is due to uncorrected refractive error. Spectacles or contact lenses may help. If the vision through the pinhole is still blurred, this suggests a lazy eye or some organic cause. This could help when advising a shooter to change shoulders.

“ The whole point of good gun fit and consistent gun mount is to position the shooter's referent eye in precisely the correct place. ” to, pull ahead, maintained lead, spot shooting) and target memory allows the shooter to compute the appropriate gun movement to achieve a hit.

From the moment the shooter first sees and fixates the target (the visual pick up point), to the instant the shot is taken, the Instructor needs to know which eye is providing most visual input. This eye will be acting as the rear reference point/rear sight or referent eye.

The whole point of good gun fit and consistent gun mount is to position

SENSORY EYE DOMINANCE

Each of our eyes sees a slightly different image. The brain combines these two images into a single coherent representation which we see in 3D or stereoscopically. If the eyes are presented with images which are sufficiently different from each other a pattern of perceptual alternation occurs where one image dominates while the other is suppressed. This is retinal rivalry.

The eye that perceives the half image more during binocular rivalry stimulation is the sensory dominant eye. Note that sensory and motor dominance can be opposite in the same individual.

HOW IS SENSORY DOMINANCE EVALUATED AND WHAT IS IT'S RELEVANCE TO THE SHOOTING INSTRUCTOR?

Briefly, computerised systems generate alternating visual stimuli which are presented to each eye in turn using either red blue goggles, a mirror stereoscope or prism goggles. The observer indicates which half image they see more often. The individual stimuli can be altered in brightness until the observer sees about equal portions of left and right gratings and this gives a measure of sensory dominance.

Clearly this type of procedure is beyond the scope of a shooting lesson but it has an important place in researching the relationship between eye and brain and in for example attempting to treat a lazy eye.

It is quite possible that devices like Easihit, D-rail, SP and Aimpoint red dot help shooter's with sensory dominance issues.

CAN THE REFERENT EYE SWITCH?

Acuity dominance certainly can switch. For example if an eye loses it's sharp distance vision due to changing refractive error or eye conditions like cataract, vitreous floaters, acquired visual field defects or fatigue in the longsighted shooter who struggles with their amplitude of accommodation can all switch the rear reference point.

Motor dominance is much more hard wired rather like handedness and is unlikely to change after teenage years when neural plasticity reduces.

Sensory dominance may exhibit some plasticity in adults and is the subject of ongoing research. It is also possible to speculate that it could vary with issues like tiredness, blood sugars, stress, but I'm unaware of any scientific evidence to support this. 🍌

TERMINOLOGY

The term 'dominant eye' can be confusing. Which type of dominance are we referring to? The term 'master eye' in the context of shotgun shooting is also open to possible misunderstanding. The term 'shooting eye' to label the eye over the rib is perhaps better however it may or may not be the rear reference point.

Going back to the first statement that the rear point of reference in the pointing judgement is one of our eyes, would it not be better to refer to it as being the 'referent eye'. As an illustration of this concept, if a right shoulder shooter has a dominant or master left eye and we cover it, this forces the right eye to become the rear reference point. This makes the right eye the Referent Eye. The left eye still remains the dominant eye.

To conclude, some understanding of human vision is vitally important to the Shooting Instructor or Coach wishing to advise on this complex topic.

With Home Internationals taking place, the team announcements have revealed some new names in England colours. I spoke to some of the new caps to find out more about their journeys and what it means to them to represent their country.

It is clear from speaking to everyone they have put in the time and effort and made sacrifices for their sport. They all share a great love and passion for shooting and their chosen disciplines. I was really touched by Alison Coupe's story, in particular. As she told me, you can have a go at any age and if you really dig deep you can achieve your dreams.

CHARLIE MORRIS

Herefordshire, OT

Charlie told me that he felt proud, especially after a difficult last year. He is looking forward to his first visit to Scotland to compete in the Home International. Family and friends have been a great support, and he thanks them for that. He also thanked his coach, Sarah Wixey for all her help.

WHEN THE HARD WORK PAYS OFF

Representing your country is an honour itself, and Anita North spoke to shooters who have put in the hours to realise their dreams, with some wonderful stories of perseverance paying dividends.

JAMIE MARSHAM

Worcestershire, DTL

Since first trying clay shooting at the end of 2022 Jamie has never looked back and it has been a rapid journey into international competition. The 34-year-old fell into DTL and really got the bug for the discipline. He said achieving an England cap is his greatest achievements: "The Home International was fantastic – all the team were very helpful, especially captain Tom Robinson." Jamie wanted to thank lots of people for their support in his journey so far, including Phil and Diane Sanders of Park Farm Shooting Ground, and Richard Pinchin for getting him going in clay shooting and coaches Ian Palmer and Rebecca Sealey.

ALISON COUPE

Norfolk, English Skeet

Alison is technically not a new cap because she shot for England back in 1986 and 1987 but let's not allow that detail to get in the way of a great story. After stopping shooting in 1988, she started again in 2020 and now at 58 she is once again going to represent England. She said: "It was quite a shock to make the team, and it took several days for the reality to sink in. I would like to thank my coach, Stuart Smith of Eriswell Lodge, and my family and friends for their support."

SARAH MILROYCheshire, DTL

Sarah, 51, took up shooting some 11 years ago and has thrived in the sport. Her competition journey is all thanks to Cheshire CPSA committee and their Ladies League. Sarah was elated to make the Home International Team and told me that the England DTL squad were like a family – everyone pulled together and supported each other. Sarah also gave a massive thanks to all CPSA staff and directors as well as the team manager, David Amos.

ANDY HEYWOODDevon, DTL

Aged 60, Andy is a Royal Navy reservist. He was immensely proud to make the England team on his second year of trying and told me the Home International was phenomenal. Andy told me he really appreciates the support he gets from his wife – he could not have done what he has done without her.

GEORGE MADDEN*Kent, DTL

George is 17 and has just completed his first year of sixth form. He said: "It's a feeling like no other to make the England team – a great honour. I feel very included in the team and really enjoyed the sense of occasion of the Home International. I want to say a very big thank you to my family – I could not have done any of this without them." Since we chatted George has also been confirmed in the ABT for the Home International. He told me he appreciates the support from sponsor MJ Sporting and was thankful for his local shooting grounds where he trains.

JOHN SPADEMANNorthamptonshire, English Skeet

The 29-year-old has been shooting since he was small. His parents shot Sporting for England in the early 1990s, but he was drawn to English Skeet. He said: "It feels amazing to make the team this year after just missing out last year and I am looking forward to the Home International. I have a lot of people to thank, including my parents, my other half, Sammy, and Katherine and Wayne of R&K Stockcraft.

PAUL CULVERWELLCheshire, OT

Paul has been shooting for more than 25 years and has represented GB in Helice. But at the age of 66 he has made his first England team. He said: "It is a great honour to represent England, and I am looking forward to shooting in the team environment of the Home International." He gave a special thanks to Phil Sanders for his encouragement and to his coach Sarah Wixey.

BETHANY NORTONHertfordshire, Olympic Skeet

At age of 17, Bethany is already a seasoned junior GB shooter, but she said: "It is absolutely amazing to get my first England team place, and I am looking forward to travelling to Northern Ireland for the Home International." She sent a big thank you to her mum, dad and sister as well as her coaches and sponsors.

I wish all the competitors the very best. And to anyone out there who might just have dreams of representing England, go on, go for it. And, finally, enjoy your shooting.

Triumphant North Region Teams Shine at English Open ABT at Nuthampstead

The North Region made an unforgettable mark at the English Open ABT this year, securing victories across the Senior, Veteran, and Junior categories. This remarkable achievement showcases the depth of talent and dedication in our regional teams, from seasoned veterans to promising young stars.

The Senior team, a powerhouse of experience and skill, displayed exceptional teamwork and resilience. The team included Stephen Corner, David Kirk, Peter Waugh, John Leightley, Ted Philipson, Andrew Dunne, Alan Routledge, Robert Bright, Nicholas Harris, and Christopher Henshaw. Their journey to victory was a masterclass in strategy and endurance.

In the Veteran category, the North Region's seasoned campaigners demonstrated that age is no barrier to success. The team, featuring Gordon Branthwaite, John Lucy, and David Lloyd, showed remarkable grit and determination. Their experience shone through as they navigated through intense competition, ultimately emerging victorious.

The future of the North Region looks exceptionally bright, thanks to the stellar performance of the Junior team. Young talents Lewis Kirk, Cory Doble, and Arran Greenwood showcased their potential with a series of impressive victories. Their dynamic play and unyielding spirit were key factors in their success at the English Open.

The North Region's triumph at the English Open is a celebration of teamwork, dedication, and the pursuit of excellence across all levels of competition. From the experienced seniors to the inspiring veterans and the promising juniors, each team member played a vital role in this historic achievement. Their victories are not just individual successes but a reflection of the region's strong shooting culture and commitment to nurturing talent.

As we celebrate these remarkable wins, we look forward to future competitions with optimism and pride, knowing that the North Region's teams will continue to shine and inspire.

High Gun was Nicholas Beavis with 93, then Carl Vickers on 90. Edward Wilkinson and Samuel Ward both on 89. Highest scoring Lady was Lucy

Colin ESK Champ.

Correction – At the All Round County Championship at Park Farm on 9 June, the Veterans title was won by Martin Knapman 70ex100, not Brian Richings 67ex100. Sorry for the confusion.

English Skeet County Championship, Gloucester on 7 July, despite being under the radar a healthy 23 entries ensured healthy competition across the classes, and we really do have some very impressive trophies for English Skeet. County, A Class and Junior Champion by a single target is Liam Richings 97, Runner-up and AA Class Paul Tudge 96, third and C Class Chris Tudor 93, Dave Smith 91 won B Class after a tense shoot-off against Martin Knapman. Ladies Joanne Knapman 90 and Cliff Gardner 92 took Veterans. British Open Nottingham 2-4 August, Martin Knapman shot a 96 to win the B Class.

West Midlands Area and Inter-Counties Olympic Skeet, Gloucester on 21 July, despite the superb weather the event didn't attract as many as one would have hoped for. Well done to the county team David Maddox, Graham

July has been a great month for our shooters, both at grassroots and up to the world class level.

Well done to Fiona Reed for taking County and Lady Champion at our County UT Championships at Rugby. Changeable weather and a testing layout kept everyone on their toes, but this was also the Area and Inter-County Championship and Fiona shot her way to Area Ladies Champion too.

Bywell hosted numerous DTL events in July. The ICTSF World DTL Championships at Bywell saw a number of our members on the podium. Congratulations to Dan Price taking Runner-up at his first World Championships with 889/900+72, and to Chris Moule who took third in AA Class and Runner-up in Veterans with 879/900+75 and finishing sixth overall. At the British Open DTL at Bywell, Chris Moule took England Veteran High Gun and England High Gun over two days as well as on the winning Veteran team. For the Home Internationals at Bywell, Chris was High Gun of the match, High Gun of England and the Veterans, and on the winning Veteran team.

The Caesar Guerini Sporting Challenge at Barbury saw Phil Smith take first in AA and Veterans (140/150), and Connor Davies second in Colts with 116/150.

Phil Smith also took County and Veteran Champion at Westfields for our county FITASC Championships on the 12-13 July. Runners-up were Nick Rees and Charlie Drury. Junior Champion is Taylor Alderton, Colt Champion is Connor Davies, and Lady Champion is Aimee Addison. Huge thanks as ever go to Steve and his team for hosting and their continued support and to everyone who supported the event.

The CPSA announced their OTR England team this month and we are delighted that three H&W shooters have made the grade. Congratulations go to Phil Sanders, Tim Smith, and New Cap Charlie Morris. It has been great to see the progress Charlie has made over the weekly updates on Facebook and lovely to see his work and commitment achieve such a fantastic result. They will all be representing their country at the OTR Home International in August at the National Shooting Centre, Falkirk and we wish them all the best of luck.

Gloucester Clay Shooting Club hosted the Area and Inter-County Olympic Skeet on the 21 July. Team H&W took gold in the Inter-Counties and for the Areas; Mitchell Brooker-Smith was Overall High Gun with 96/100 and Sophie Langton took third Overall and Ladies High Gun 85/100.

Gloucester also hosted our county Skeet Championship on the 28 July. Our new County Champion is Taylor Alderton with 98 (also Junior Champion), Runner-up is Brandon Smith with 97. Natalie Jones continues her unbeaten reign as Lady Champion with 86 and Veteran Champion is Brian Smith with 92. Lots of fantastic shooting and support from our members. Thanks as ever to Paul and his team for hosting, catering, refereeing so well.

Runners-up Veteran Steven Wilkinson, and James Peatfield, Junior, both scored 88. Steven took the Veterans title and James the Junior title. James also received 50 "Lucy" cartridges donated by Lucy Hall for our Junior winners. Lucy is part of this year's GB team participating in the 2024 Olympic Games. This score also tied the pair for A Class, James took that honour by default. The battle for the Junior title could not have been closer as both Josh Lee and Kallum Burrell finished just four targets back on 84.

Georgina Barratt finished well clear of the chasing pack taking the ladies title for the third consecutive year. Her nearest rival, Jacqui Baker, largely matched Georgina shot for shot but fell victim to a couple of stands that cost her points.

Young Terry Wilkinson, Paul's son, proved that he is going to be a chip off the old block as he picked up the Colts Champion of Champions trophy with a score of 68. Thank you to all those who kindly donated raffle prizes which raised £293 on the day. Thank you also to John, Simon, Hannah, the referees and the ladies in the kitchen for making the whole thing an enjoyable experience.

4 Aug: Revesby Country Fair

Country Fairs are a relaxing and fun day out for all the family so, providing the weather co-operates, they always bring together a huge amount of people. Over the past few years, Lincolnshire CPSA's clayline has become part of the entertainment so much so that we get repeat visitors who comment on how much they enjoyed it last year and are back for more. Over the day our experienced instructors guided people of all ages and all genders through the joys of breaking a clay. Everybody had fun, with many families and partners enjoying a bit of friendly rivalry. For the serious shooter, there was a 25-target Sportrap and a ten target DTL/single barrel. The High Gun prize of £150 for the Sportrap, sponsored by our local Isuzu main agents, Duckworth Motor Group, was keenly contested but, in the end, the front runners of Paul Wilkinson and Billy Cook, both on 24 could not be separated so shared the prize. Sponsored by Grimme UK to the tune of £120 voucher to be spent in their country store, the DTL layout was a bit of a challenge. The only 'straight' of the day went to Jody Mitchell, who, incidentally, also put in a very tidy Sportrap score of 17.

A big thank you to our sponsors, Duckworth Isuzu and Grimme UK, both of whom joined us on the day with their own displays but a special thanks to all our volunteers who worked so hard to make the day a success. Instructors, Phil Thomas, Brett Aisthorpe, Marvin Houghton and Paul Briggs, Sportrap and DTL referees, Donovan Jenkin, Richard Gray and Dave Shepherd and the support staff of Paul Stennett, Jackie Houghton and Janet Stennett. Take a bow – you have all earned a day off!

G Thatcher won the Mens and Veterans classes on countback with T Jones who took the B class trophy. Congratulations to all the winners and thank you to those who turned up to support the event and to The Priory Shooting Ground for hosting.

CHRISTINE GILBERT

📍 sites.cpsa.co.uk/norfolk

Another great month of competitions, with some excellent results from Norfolk shooters who have been competing in county, regional and national championships. Well done to everyone who has been out enjoying the sunshine, and congratulations to all the winners.

4-6 Jul: Beretta World ESP Championship, Barbury SG

Congratulations to Richard Bunning, who won this championship with an excellent score of 114/120. He was two points clear at the top, an improvement on last year's result, of one point and one place.

6-7 Jul: British Shooting Shotgun Series Round 3, Fauxdeglia ICSC

Congratulations to Norfolk Junior William Gilbert, who competed in the British Shooting Shotgun Series Round 3 and England OTR Team Selection Shoot. William scored 116/125 in the qualifying rounds – a Junior Men's Consideration Score – and then won Gold in the Junior Men's single barrel final with a score of 46/50. His scores earned him a place in the HCIT England Junior Team and gained him selection to compete for GBR in the Junior World Championship in Lima, Peru in October.

14 Jul: Norfolk All Round Championship, The Priory CTC

Thank you to all the Norfolk shooters who competed in the Norfolk All Round Championship which was held in conjunction with the Cambridgeshire CPSA Championship. Congratulations to Norfolk All Round Champion – Mark Goddard who scored an excellent unbeaten 93. Congratulations also to Veterans' Champion John Reynolds (86), Ladies' Champion Elise Dixon (67) and Junior Champion Jamie Goddard (81).

14 Jul: Norfolk FITASC Championship, Eriswell Lodge

This was held in conjunction with the Suffolk County Championship. This year's Norfolk FITASC Champion with a great score of 86/100 is Simon Peacock. Our congratulations to Simon, who has also gained his first England cap and will compete at the FITASC HCIT in Ireland this October. Close behind Simon was Glenn Halls (84), Jordan Sayer (80) and Joe Norman-Hinchliffe (79). The Veterans' category was very close with Peter Reynolds (75) winning by two points over Sean Harvey. This year's Ladies' champion is Heather Pointer (45). Sadly there were no Juniors.

Skeet Doubles winners.

21 Jul: East Midlands Skeet Doubles Championship, The Priory CTC

Congratulations to Simon Owen (93) and Roger Fletcher (92) who both competed in the East Midlands Region Skeet Doubles Championship. Simon placed third Overall and Roger placed third in the Veterans'.

21 Jul: English Open ABT, Nuthampstead

The North Region's Junior team have long dominated this event, but this year the East Midlands Juniors really pushed them all the way. Some top class shooting from Norfolk Juniors William Gilbert and Rhys Dixon, alongside teammate Oliver Sampson, brought them to within one target of forcing a shoot off with the North. As a team they all performed superbly and should be congratulated for their achievements. Oliver Sampson and William Gilbert picked up second and third respectively in Juniors.

27 Jul: Norfolk Sportrap Championship, Chalk Farm

An excellent turnout for the Norfolk Sportrap Championship which saw 51 Norfolk shooters competing, from a total of 95 entries. Congratulations to Richard Bunning, whose score of 91 secured him the County Champion title, to add to his County ESP Champion title. Congratulations also to Veteran – David Pointer (74), Lady – Nicola Hassall (51), and Junior – Jack Anderson (57) who were County winners.

There has been an awful lot of nonsense floating around about the medical requirements for licensing.

As the company who invented the 3rd party process of Firearms Licensing proforma completion and with half a decade of experience working with the Home Office, UK Forces and international judiciaries MedCert are uniquely positioned to dispel a few myths and offer some advice.

There are any number of scary tales on forums and “my mate knows this chap” stories being told wherein the individual, through absolutely no fault of their own, has had their guns removed and their licence revoked. The vast majority are total bunkum, at best these tales can often provide misleading lessons for those looking to preserve their own licences, and has given rise to a number of myths.

Myth No. 1 This process is new. No. The physical piece of paper, the proforma, is new and the timings are different, but the questions remain the same and the requirement for the individual to declare any relevant medical conditions is as important as ever.

As stated, this is nothing particularly new, and certainly not a system designed to remove guns from the individual or to specifically create income for the GPs. That said, a number of GPs have seen this as an opportunity to charge preposterous fees for the work done.

Myth No 2. Revocations are certainly taking place across the country, but contrary to many rumours the vast majority of these are due to the individuals themselves failing to report notifiable conditions on their original grants or subsequent renewals.

Myth No 3. Signs of illness will mean I lose my license. No. The medical proforma is an objective, opinion-free summary of an applicant's medical history and firearms licensing use this as one of the many pieces of information they review when assessing an applicant's suitability. Everyone goes through hard times in life and past episodes, or current conditions which are well managed, are not a barrier to being granted a licence.

However, what is a barrier to being granted a licence is omitting details of relevant medical conditions on previous application forms or during the term of the licence.

There are, of course, nuances to this – in all the many thousands of proformas we have done we are not aware that the police have revoked for minor discrepancies. On occasion, a patient may have been diagnosed with low mood and not been informed, had a note placed on their record as an aside or been prescribed a drug without knowing it is an antidepressant and therefore do not to tick the relevant boxes on their licence application in all good faith.

I cannot stress enough how much honesty is the best policy. Not only is it a requirement for all licence holders to be of good character, but trying to circumvent the system by omitting medical information or attempting to forge either your medical records or your proforma will result in serious consequences for both you and the shooting community as a whole. You might be surprised by how quickly forgery can be detected.

If you are suffering from a notifiable condition then you should never defer, avoid or cease treatment because you believe it will affect your licence. There are a number of wonderful organisations offering confidential support if you're not sure where to turn – the Gamekeeper's Welfare Trust, for example, has an excellent helpline.

A last point. The requirement is that you submit your completed proforma along with the rest of your application paperwork, and that this should be at least eight weeks prior to your expiry date. As such, please be aware that you should start the process of getting the proforma approximately five months before the ticket runs out.

Whilst the new timings of the medical proforma may be causing some issues, by the very nature of the cycle of licensing these will lessen. Medcert are already doing renewals for the FLU's that were early adopters of the proforma and even the latest adopters are fast approaching their second anniversary. 🍀

The season seems to be gathering pace now, especially as we seem to finally be enjoying something resembling a usual summer. The county competitions have seen some good entry numbers, especially for the Trap disciplines. They have also seen a few new names entering the fray. Many shooters enjoy the sport without entering competitions but this year we seem to have tempted a few of these shooters into the competitive arena. Maybe it's the chance to win a 'slab' of cartridges no matter what score is entered that has encouraged a few to start competitions. Whatever it is – everyone who enters a county competition is welcome.

Supreme Championship

Everyone who enters one of the eight disciplines, ESK, DTL, AR, FITASC, DR, ESP, SKD, and ABT that make up the Supreme Championship has their score recorded on the website leaderboard. Best scores in five of the above disciplines go towards your total for this competition. With ESK, ESP, and ABT still to come there is still a chance for those who have already entered two competitions to be in the running. Check out the website and see where you come on the leader board.

29-30 Jun: Single Barrel

17 guns turned out for this competition, the biggest entry since Adam was a lad. I'm hoping everyone enjoyed it. The weather was warmer than it had been, and the rain held off which was something. Joe Tomlin came top in the Senior category with 45ex50 and Bob Meadows took the Veteran title for the second year running. Isabel Russell won the Ladies title by one clay from last year's title holder Penny Spademan, and Colt Alfie Faulkner took his category again.

18 Jul: Olympic Skeet

This is usually held on a Thursday and this year was no exception. This year was exceptional for the record for the number of entries, 11 in total. This may seem like an insignificant number but when compared to entries for the previous years it represents nearly a 500% increase. Thank you to everyone who took part in this. Andrew Lea, the master at this discipline, took the Senior trophy for the ninth year in a row. Bob Meadows, the last Senior winner before Andrew, took the Veteran title and Harry Parton took the Junior trophy. Again, a very big thank you to all those who shot the discipline.

Andrew Lea.

Stuart Lobley.

27-28 Jul: Double Rise

This has been Glen Smith's area of expertise for the past two years but this year he failed to make it a hat trick as Dave Morgan beat him to the title by just one clay. Veteran shooter Stuart Lobley took his category trophy with a great score of 60ex100. The entry saw some shooters new to the county competitions, welcome to them.

Inter-County Director's Trophy competition

August sees the start of the Regional

Inter-County competitions with Skeet, Sportrap, and Sporting all being held, and DLT and All Round taking place in September. If you haven't contacted Roy to pass your contact details onto the team managers, please do so as fast as you can Your County Needs You!

Finally, I have an error to change. In the last edition I told you about the Awards Evening on Saturday 26 October. Through my own idiocy and a complete lack of proof-reading skills, I told you the wrong price. The tickets are £15 and available from Marty. So, get the date inked into your diary so that you can be there to celebrate the 2024 season of shooting.

It's been a busy couple of months in the Duchy and across the country with major events locally and nationally. Back In June there was a massive prize list which was one of the biggest in the Duchy, This was the Kellands Cup in DTL held over two days at the North Cornwall SG. This was well attended by 60 shooters who were treated to a great weekend of shooting along with great food and drink which was mostly provided by the kind sponsors of Tim Hill of Kellands Plant Hire, also a big thanks to the team at North Cornwall SG for a well run two-day event which was enjoyed by many, full results can be found on the North Cornwall SG Facebook page and also at robdietzshooting.com.

The Duchy also held several County Championships which included the Cornwall Skeet Championship, which was at Lower Lake SG, the winners Vet Champion and High Gun with 98/100 was Bill Mousalli, Junior Champion Tom Windhaber 97/100, Ladies Champion Emily Morden-Hawke with 91/100, Well done all and thank you to the team at Lower Lake SG for a great event.

The Cornwall DTL Championships was held at the start of August at the North Cornwall SG, which was a fantastic day weather wise and it was great to shoot in some dry conditions, The Cornwall Champion and High Gun was Simon EDE with a great score of 100/296, Vet Champion Colin Chidley with another great score 96/281, Junior Champion was Matthew Rowland with 93/269. The committee would like to say thank you to The North Cornwall SG Team for hosting another great event.

In July we had members from the Duchy taking part in the Major Events in Bywell Shooting Ground, we had Simon EDE who was shooting for the England Vets team and he was the only member from the Duchy to represent an England team at the Festival of DTL 2024, congratulations to Simon for winning with the England Vets team. Also, we had Ian Lobb who won a Bronze Medal in the ICTSF World DTL 2024 in the Disabled Standing, well done on a fantastic result. The weather at Bywell during the week was testing and very wet, so I feel anyone who shot at the event would agree, but a big thank you to the Henry Family and the team at Bywell for a great event.

Cornwall CPSA also now has a deal with Cornwall Screen print to allow members to purchase the Logo which can be put on your own polos etc, the link is on the Cornwall CPSA Facebook page.

Keep up the great shooting and keep an eye on the Cornwall CPSA Facebook page for the latest on the teams and scores.

6 Jul: ABT, Fareham CTC

19 Hampshire and IOW entries and 13 entries from surrounding counties made up the seven squads. Conditions good with some summer sun and next to no wind to affect the targets. The Hampshire and IOW CPSA trap manager Stuart Cureton returned some good scores and finally finished on 95/100 to take the ABT Championship title, cup, badge, medal and the 250 cartridges which were supplied by the Hants CPSA committee. IOW Sharon Morris 82/100 became the Ladies Champ, Tim Rowe 88/100 the Vet's and the Colts went to Oliver Clayton 82/100.

21 Jul: Skeet Championship

Fareham CTC hosted this event and the two Skeet layouts all tidied up and ready for this Hampshire and IOW Championship. A good entry of 15 Hampshire and IOW members mixed in with visitors from four surrounding counties. Tim Rowe and David Marsh refereed and buttoned a layout each and got the day off to a good start which continued throughout the rest of the competition. Martyn Fleming and Lee Knight were the ones to watch but then towards the end Lee dropped four more targets than Martyn. The 2024 Skeet Champion Martyn Fleming finishing on 95/100 collected the cup, badge, 250 Cartridges and the Vets's title. Lee Knight final score of 91/100 took to Seniors title, it was a shame that no Colts or Ladies entered this year.

Supreme Championship table

At the moment Sean Gamblen and Stuart Cureton are neck and neck both on 32 points each. The next few shoots will be in Sean's favour though with the FITASC, Super Sporting, and Compak Sporting coming up. Stuart has done well on the Trap disciplines but I'm sure he's first to say he's not too hot on the sporting disciplines. No sign of three times Supreme Champion Roger Deacon this year. last year Sean came Runner-up. It looks like Sean is set on picking up the Cup and the two hundred pounds high gun sponsored by Ineos 4x4 of Portsmouth.

day as the Hampshire and IOW All Round Championship. The members of this 60-year-old club enter this annual event to not only try and win the Hampshire and IOW Championship but to also win the Presidents Cup. Brian Coupe who has held the position of President of the club was delighted to hand the cup and 250 cartridges to Tim Chandler. Tim has been a member of the club for decades, back in the day shooting alongside Hampshire legend AJ (Smoker) Smith and many sporting legends there after.

Tim unfortunately lost his fingers on his right hand as a young boy but that didn't stop him picking up Cup's and medals in many of the disciplines over the years. Double "A" Veteran Tim returned an 89/100 just two off of the top score submitted by Lee Knight with 91/100. Whilst looking at the clubs listed for Somerset on the CPSA website, I noticed there are now seven, including five Registered. The other two are affiliated to the CPSA. In order for a club (any type) to be a CPSA member, each year when they renew, they are required to upload proof of their insurance and have a current Safety Officer detailed. You could say, in Somerset, we're very fortunate to have so many options/venues where we can enjoy our sport. Possibly, since the Olympic results there may be some new interest in clay shooting – in Somerset, anyone could be spoilt for choice where to start!

As the end of the year approaches, give some thought to supporting the county by joining the committee – the AGM will be upon us (early Feb) – in the blink of an eye. Good luck in the Inter-County events, your County needs you!

With still no registered ground in Dorset we rely on our friends in neighbouring counties to hold our county championships. The closure of Southern Counties was a massive blow to our shooting strength at all disciplines and ever since the entry numbers for all disciplines have fallen year on year. Moreover it is most certainly apparent that younger members are not coming through the ranks which is sad and concerning for our sport. At the time Southern Counties was way ahead at all levels and located in the centre of our county, it was perfectly placed for us all. It now leaves us with just a dedicated few who are prepared to travel, often for hours to attend Registered shoots.

I am sorry to start with a negative comment, but having attended many shoots in the last year at all disciplines it is certainly noticeable that the Veteran classes seem to be getting bigger!

30 Jun: Skeet Doubles, Brook Bank SG

For the first time, Dorset were invited to join Somerset to shoot a Skeet Doubles Championship at Brook Bank Shooting Ground. This exciting discipline was unfortunately enjoyed by only a small entry for both Counties. This may well have been due to short notice in holding the event. But going forward we will be encouraging more members to have a go at a great discipline that will undoubtedly improve shooting ability. Richard King added another cup to his impressive collection this year with a score of 97. Runner-up and Veteran award went to Richard Pike 89.

Our Major County Championships are now completed but our Teams continue to do well at National and International events.

South East Inter-Counties ABT, Nuthampstead

The Surrey ABT Team was a close second on 408, just four targets less than winners Essex. Riccardo Verrilli had yet another good day and won the individual South East ABT Champion Title with a score of 94, this time just one target ahead of second place. The rest of the team were: Fergus and Jo Watson-Hopkinson, Brian Gardiner, Dan Parker, Phil Chambers and Steve Cole. Well done team!

South East Inter Counties Universal Trench, NCSC Bisley

The Surrey Trap Team claimed another second place – this time losing out to Kent at the Universal Trench competition held at NCSC Bisley. Riccardo Verrilli again shot very well but this time his score of 91 was just one target short of winning another Regional Title. The rest of the team were Fergus and Jo Watson-

Hopkinson, Brian Gardiner, Dan Parker and Phil Chambers.

International Honours

Helice British Grand Prix, Invicta GC

Well done to Steve Cole who won Gold in the Veterans Category and Jo Watson-Hopkinson who won Silver in the Ladies. Both also qualified for the Great Britain Team heading to the World Championships being held in Cairo later this year. Congratulations to you both and good luck in Egypt.

I'll start this month's article by congratulating Nathan Hales and Amber Rutter for winning their respective medals in Paris with spectacular shooting by both of them just slightly tainted by the controversial decision in Amber's final. That's means Great Britain has won Olympic clay shooting medals in every Olympics since 2012.

FITASC

The 46th FITASC world championships at the Game Unlimited Hunting Club, Wisconsin, saw George Digweed take bronze in the Seniors category. Congratulations George.

Team caps

Congratulation now to those Sussex shooters who have qualified for national teams. Firstly, to Hannah Gibson for making the England skeet team and Alisdair Williams (Men), Andrew Stratford (Senior), and Jack Malthouse (Junior), for qualifying for the GB Helice team to compete in Cairo. Jack has only recently started shooting Helice after spending a few years shooting sporting so a great achievement in his first year.

2024 Helice Grand Prix

John Foy reports that the following Sussex CPSA members were successful over the weekend of 27-28 July in the British Grand Prix held at Invicta gun Club. Richard Cadey (Men gold), Alisdair Williams (Men bronze), and Andrew Stafford (Senior's silver).

Team appeal

I'll end this article with an appeal of a different sort. As well as the popular county competitions in the various disciplines there are also the SE Region Inter-County championships into which we like to enter teams. In the perfect world the best county shooters in each respective discipline would be asked to be part of the team. But this is not always the case, either people don't want to or can't make it which is life and often it's difficult to find enough people to fill a team for certain disciplines. So the appeal is simple – if you would like to be considered for a county team please get in touch.

Insurance

Newmoon Insurance

Can you afford to pay for a damaged stock or barrel blowout?

It's a question we hope you never have to ask yourself but it is one that you should consider now, rather than after the event.

Many shooters rely on home insurance but the hard fact is that many home insurance products exclude guns from contents cover, whilst others may have restrictions in policy cover.

Premiums start from £35 a year (including IPT) for £1000 cover on guns and you can even extend cover to outside the UK. For CPSA and BASC members only.

We recommend that you take the time to consider what cover you have on your guns. To discuss your requirements or to request a free quote, please call Newmoon Insurance Services Ltd on:

FALCONSTRIKE HYDRAULIC RECOIL REDUCTION SYSTEM

SHOOT WITH MORE COMFORT, ACCURACY AND ENDURANCE

Some shooters are sensitive to the punishing effects of recoil, so we've created a multi-fit hydraulic recoil pad for wood stocks that utilizes dampening technology borrowed from the aerospace industry that dramatically reduces recoil: 80% Less Recoil Energy, 35% Less Muzzle Lift, 25% Less Peak Force, 35% Less Rock Back to give youth shooters greater accuracy, less flinching and a better shooting experience. No measuring, no grinding, no hassle.

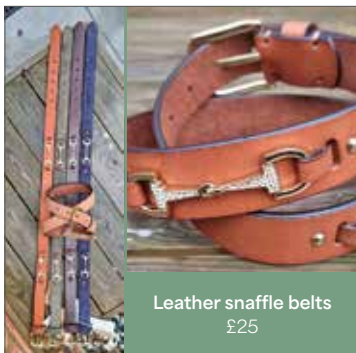

- Fits Stocks: 4-1/2" – 4-3/4"
- For Wood and Synthetics Stocks
- Thickness / Length of Pull (LOP): 1-3/16"
- Weight: 7.5 ounces

FalconStrike mounts quickly and easily to your small shotgun or hunting rifle wooden or synthetic buttstock with only two screws.

Minimal maintenance, maximum performance

LAPORTE provides long-lasting machines with low energy consumption. Our innovative systems considerably extend battery life, to ensure uninterrupted use. No more worries about maintenance: benefit from the efficiency and durability of our equipment.

Cutting-edge technology, impressive simplicity

Our launchers feature integrated spring tension control (Variable Speed), which means there's no need to replace springs or use tools to adjust power. Its patented design makes vibration virtually non-existent, ensuring exceptional stability and accuracy.

A wide range with unbeatable reliability

Lightweight barrels for individual use and large-capacity barrels for major events like European or world championships (75 to 1000 targets per launcher). LAPORTE's revolutionary backstop system remains impeccable even after thousands of shots. You can trust our launchers to be consistently reliable, whatever the conditions of use.

Robust design, enhanced durability

Our launchers, which have always been equipped with cast aluminium bodies, have now benefited in recent years from AI to make the most of their balance and robustness. Resistant to the rigours of daily use, our launchers embody LAPORTE's signature superior quality.
